Nine Desperadoes Remain Out of Bounds.

Arthur Hewitt is One of the Much-wanted.

Deputy Warden Lemon and Capt. Trelford Were Marked for Slaughter.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

TOPEKA (Kan.) Nov. 13.—Deputy Warden Lemon of the Federal penitentiary is in close pursuit of two escaped convicts near Wellington. Another posse is near two convicts in the vicinity of Coffeyville. Numerous horses have been stolen by those being pursued.

These four are all the officers have positive track of tonight. Reports come from Wellsville, Ottawa and Emporia that posses are pursuing some suspects, but these are not known to be convicts. There are nine yet at large.

CHASING LEADER HEWITT.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 13.—Warden McClaughrey received this morning a message from his deputies near Cottonwood Falls, where four men were captured last night, saying that they were close on the heels of two others. One of these was believed to be Arthur Hewitt, aged 23, white, who was serving five years for larceny and who is the last of the leaders of the outbreak. The leaders were Thompson, Mullins, Southerland and Hewitt. Warden McClaughrey yesterday offered an increased reward for Southerland.

From stories that have leaked out from the captured convicts, it evidently was part of the plan of the four for liberty, last Wednesday, to kill both Deputy Warden Lemon and Capt. Trelford, the officers in immediate charge at the time. Trelford was forced to flee with the convicts, and when they had gotten a sufficient distance from the penitentiary he was threatened with death. He took desperate chances, and succeeded in escaping.

CUBAN POLITICS.

Gomez Comes Out in Support of Palma for Presidency and This Will Probably Elect Him.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Commenting on the political situation in Cuba, the Havana correspondent of the Herald says that a majority of the Nationalist and Republican parties have united on Señor Tomas Estrada Palma for President of Cuba, the decision being reached at a joint meeting, presided over by Gen. Maximo Gomez. A banquet followed the meeting. It was attended by many prominent leaders.

Gen. Gomez made a strong speech in the interest of Señor Palma, and will stump Cuba for him, if necessary. Señor Maso's followers are making a desperate attempt to kill the Palma influence on the plea that Señor Palma is not the friend of revolutionists, nor of the poorer classes. They even assert that Señor Palma is not a Cuban citizen, having failed to renounce American citizenship. Señor Maso's campaign is not without effect, but it is believed that the influence of Gen. Gomez will overcome the opposition.

REYES TO RETURN TO HIS NATIVE LAND.

EVENT OF GREAT IMPORTANCE TO COLOMBIAN INTERESTS.

Marroquin Is Said to Have Urged Him to Make His Way Back to the Country. Clever Operations of Insurgents With the Captured Darien.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The Tribune will say tomorrow that information that Gen. Reyes, who for ten years represented the Colombian government in Paris, is soon to return to Colombia was received in this city yesterday.

This news was regarded by persons interested in Colombian affairs as of great importance. Gen. Reyes, according to this information, has received a message from acting President Marroquin, urging him to return to Bogota. At present, Gen. Reyes is representing the Colombian government at the Pan-American Congress in the City of Mexico.

CAPTURE OF THE DARIEN.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

COLON (Colombia) Nov. 7.—[A. P. Correspondence. Wired from Chicago, Nov. 13.] Following are the details of the capture by insurgents of the steamer Darien, which was recently purchased by the government from the Darien Gold Mining Company at Panama:

The Darien was dispatched by the Colombian government, toward the end of October, to convey a rapid-fire gun and a fair supply of rifles and ammunition to the forces now stationed at Agua Dulce. It is rumored that she had on board $5000 to be delivered at Agua Dulce. The steamer had been ordered to keep well in sight of Chorrera, the headquarters of the insurgent forces, on her way to Agua Dulce. In compliance with this order, it appears, the captain of the Darien steamed too close to land, when in the vicinity of Chorrera, and the steamer grounded on a sandbank in sight of the rebel forces, who soon surrounded her with canoes, open boats, etc., and took possession without any fighting whatever.

The rebels, on the rise of the tide, immediately ordered the captain to steam to the island of Taboga, about ten miles south of Panama, and on arriving they signaled to the officer commanding the military contingent there to come on board. As soon as he did so, he was made a prisoner and compelled to write an order for the force under his command to embark with all haste with their arms. In this matter about thirty men and all the arms and ammunition at Taboga were captured.

It is said the government believes that the captain of the Darien was in the pay of the rebels.

The Darien has since been trying to capture sailing vessels having government troops on board, and actually had one in tow when she was chased by a small steamer chartered from the canal company. The government is now without any steamers or gunboats of its own at Panama.

SNOW "DOWN IN MAINE."

Old Scheme Against the Trusts.

Do 'Em Up by Cutting Down Tariff.

Will Draft a Bill So as to Protect Laborers.

Senator Morgan on Deck—War Department and Aggi—Commercial Men.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Representative Babcock of Wisconsin arrived here today and is still dinging away at his old scheme for putting the American trusts out of business by reducing the tariff. He also favors cutting off all taxes levied under the War Revenue Bill. Mr. Babcock says he will prepare and introduce early in the session a new bill providing that the tariff be taken off all heavy steel products, such as billets, structural and building steel and other articles in which labor is not a material part in the production.

"I shall urge the passage of this bill from the opening of Congress," declared Mr. Babcock tonight. "It is one in which the tariff feature will not enter largely, as it will in no wise affect the revenues of the government at present. None of this foreign-made structural or building steel is sent to the United States. With the duty, the corporations or individuals manufacturing structural or heavy steel now make their own price. The object of my bill will be to allow those who control the market to sell their product at no higher price than they now sell their steel abroad. If steel rails are sold for $28 in the United States, and other countries can ship their product and sell it for $24 per ton, then the American dealer or manufacturer must also sell it for $24, which is the importing price. It will have no effect upon labor, and will prevent the charging of too high prices.

"I shall include nothing in my bill repealing duties in which labor forms the greater part of the cost of manufacture. My bill, I believe, will be passed by Congress, as it will be shown that duty in no wise protects either the American laborer or manufacturer, and the steel industry has undoubtedly grown beyond the need of a protective duty. The duty on steel products in the Dingley bill is the same as it was in the Democratic Wilson bill.

"In regard to the repeal of the war taxes, I have favored this from the first. During last session I favored a greater reduction than was made. I believe the war taxes should be removed, except, perhaps, on stock-exchange transactions, the inheritance tax and other special items. There certainly is no better method of raising revenue than by taxing the dealings of stock speculators. I would also leave the so-called 'bucket-shop tax' and others of similar nature. I believe the tax on beer should be reduced to $1 a barrel, where it was before the outbreak of the Spanish-American War. As to whisky, I have not yet determined.

"There will undoubtedly be considerable discussion in Congress on tariff revision and the repeal of the war taxes. I think Congress will appreciate the necessity for such action, and that it most certainly will be accomplished."

RECIPROCITY WITH CANADA.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—A distinguished body representing the commercial organizations of New York, Boston, Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Indianapolis and Cincinnati, called upon the President today, to urge the importance of reciprocity with Canada.

Mr. Leeson of Boston acted as spokesman for the party. He told the President that, next to Great Britain and Germany, the trade of Canada with the United States represented [illegible] money to the manufacturers and producers of the United States than that of any other country, and that unless something be done to further that trade in the way of reciprocal concessions, all of it might be endangered.

The President received the delegation cordially. He said that he did not need to be reminded of the importance of a question to which he had given so much thought and attention. He said, however, that he did not think it proper for him to express a preference for reciprocity with one particular country; that the whole subject was being canvassed, and he hoped that something would be done at the approaching session of Congress. He added that the organizations represented could do much by bringing influence to bear upon their Representatives in Congress.

DISCLOSURE BY HAYNES.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PAUL, Nov. 13.—S. O. Haynes, publisher of a commercial newspaper at New York, speaking at a dinner given by the Northwestern Manufacturers' Association tonight, said that President Roosevelt had given him positive assurance that the message to Congress would contain no reference to revision of the tariff. The President had said that this omission would be made in the interest of conservatism. The President said, however, in the interview, that he favored placing the tariff on a strict business basis, keeping it apart from political manipulation.

Haynes said he felt assured that another and more determined effort would be made at the coming session to secure the appointment of a tariff commission. Leading Senators and Congressmen had expressed to him a desire to bring about a revision that would meet the requirements, impose no hardships on present business interests, and furnish a way to make changes without the prospect of endangering the present commercial prosperity of the country.

HABEAS CORPUS FOR AGGI.

NEW ISSUE FOR COURTS.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—While the War Department has not been advised of the reported step to secure the release of Aguinaldo from captivity through a writ of habeas corpus, they are prepared for a move in that direction. A few weeks ago, the first application of this kind was made in the case of a military prisoner, and as there was some indication of a disposition on the part of the Philippine Commission to uphold the right of habeas corpus in that case, the department was obliged to cable some instructions, both to Gen. Chaffee and to the commission.

The department officials have deprecated the making of an issue of this important point, pending the decision of the Supreme Court in the Fourteen Diamond rings case, involving the question as to whether the Constitution follows the flag. Up to this time, there has been no real test of the right of appeal from the Philippine courts to the Federal courts here, nor of the right of habeas corpus in the Philippines. As far as Aguinaldo is concerned, it is said that his captivity is only nominal. The only evidence of it consists in the appearance of an army officer by his side, when he visits the town. Otherwise he is free to go anywhere.

MORGAN ON REVISION.

BUSINESS TOO BRISK.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Senator Morgan of Alabama reached here today for the purpose of working up sentiment in Congress in favor of the passage of a Nicaragua Canal bill this winter. In addition, Senator Morgan said that all through the South there is a feeling that the tariff bill ought to be revised this winter, and he gave reasons therefor. But Senator Morgan said that he realized there was not very much chance for tariff revision while business was booming under the old tariff system as it is at present.

MILITIA REORGANIZATION.

ROOT TO DEAL CAUTIOUSLY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One of the important features of the annual report of the Secretary of War deals with the question of reorganization of the National Guard of the country. Secretary Root will make recommendations looking to bringing the State troops and regulars together in joint maneuvers on the great camp grounds and instruction to be provided, and will also make recommendations for giving militia officers every facility to secure practical training and instruction of regular army officers.

This, however, does not touch the special subject of reorganization of the militia troops, by which they will be of

PUSS CUTS OFF NIAGARA.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LOCKPORT, (N.Y.), Nov. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A cat was the cause of a great deal of trouble to the International Traction Company and Niagara Falls Power Company, last night. Puss climbed a trolley pole on the Buffalo and Lockport Electric Railway at Hoffman, a small hamlet west of this city, and tried to walk on the feed wire. Her tail touched the parallel wire that carried the current back to Niagara Falls. There was a flash that could be seen for miles, as 24,000 volts of electricity passed through her body. Puss was burned to a crisp. Her charred body fell across both wires, and did not drop to the ground. This short-circuited the current, and caused the fuse at Niagara Falls powerhouse to be burned out. The power was immediately cut off from all lines running out of the powerhouse.

It was two hours before the cause of the trouble was located and the charred remains of the cat removed from the wire. In the meantime, almost all electric railways and street-lighting plants in Western New York were without power.

New Company to Deal in Stocks.

Morgan-Hill Interests End Controversy.

Control of Great Northern and Northern Pacific Passes.

Meeting of N. P. Directors—Preferred Shares are to Be Retired.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The sweeping character of the Northern Pacific Railroad settlement came out today with the announcement of the incorporation, under the laws of New Jersey, of Northern Securities Company with a capital of $400,000,000. The company is to take over the stocks of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific railroads and the control of those properties. The three incorporators named, George F. Baker, Jr., Richard Trimble and Abram M. Hyatt, are merely temporary representatives of the Morgan-Hill interests. They will be replaced by a board of directors, in which Union Pacific interests will have liberal representation. The settlement puts an end to the controversy over the control of the Burlington, provides for the joint control of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern, and assumes protection to Union Pacific interests in the Northwest.

About the time the news of the incorporation of the new company reached Wall street, the directors of the Northern Pacific Railway were in session. There were present President Charles S. Mellen, E. H. Harriman, James J. Hill, William Rockefeller, H. McK. Twombly, Daniel S. Lamont, John S. Kennedy, D. Willis James, Charles Steele, James Stillman, George F. Baker, Samuel Rea, Eben B. Thomas and Brayton Ives. The resignation of Robert Bacon of J. P. Morgan & Co., as a member of the board, was accepted, and Samuel Spencer, president of the Southern Railway Company, was elected in his place.

Resolutions were unanimously adopted that the Northern Pacific Railway Company exercise the right specifically expressed in each certificate of its stock, and retire the preferred stock at par, the first of next January.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

NORTHEN PACIFIC MEETING.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—There were two important developments today in the railway situation in the Northwest, and both tended to confirm the existing belief that a final basis of settlement as to the control of Northern Pacific had been finally agreed upon. The final ratification of this agreement will bring into existence the greatest and most effective example of the "community-of-interest" idea, as applied to the railroad system of the country.

The first of today's developments was the incorporation, at Trenton, N. J., of the Northern Securities Company, with a capital stock of $400,000,000, and the second was the unanimous adoption by the Northern Pacific directors of a resolution, providing for the retirement at par, of the company's preferred stock, January 1, 1902.

There was a full attendance at the meeting, at which this action was taken, those present including George Baker and Charles Steele, representing J. P. Morgan & Co.; E. H. Harriman of the Harriman syndicate, which is in control of the Union Pacific; J. J. Hill, president of the Great Northern; Samuel Rea, vice-president of the Pennsylvania; James Stillman of the National City Bank; H. McK. Twombly for the Vanderbilts, and William Rockefeller.

The directors decided that the funds necessary for the retirement of the preferred stock should be obtained by the sale, at not less than par, of $75,000,000 4 per cent. bonds, convertible into common stock, each holder of common stock now outstanding being entitled to purchase at par an amount equal to seventy-five-eightieth of the amount of his special holdings. It was further provided that two dividends of 1 per cent. each be paid on the preferred stock before its retirement.

Samuel Spencer was elected a member of the board in place of Robert Bacon, resigned, and the board organized by re-electing all of the company's present officers.

No official statement was obtainable this afternoon as to the scope of the newly-incorporated Securities Company, but it was generally understood that the company was formed to take over and control the shares of the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern railroads and their leased lines. The Great Northern's outstanding capital is $125,000,000 par value, selling at 200 in the market, while the Northern Pacific's total outstanding stock, after the retirement of the preferred, will be $80,000,000 par value, making a total of $205,000,000 par value for the shares of these two companies. At 200 for Great Northern, the amount would be increased to $350,000,000 for the shares of the two companies.

Burlington shares, it is understood,

...TO THE IRISH.

...e to the Almighty to Settle ...'s Account With the British ...ment.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WORCESTER (Mass.) Nov. 13.—John ...ood, Patrick A. McHugh and ... O'Donnell, the Irish envoys ...ring this country, were given ...mestic reception in Worcester ...

One of the features of the meeting was the reading of a letter from Senator George F. Hoar, who regretted he could not be present, on account of an infirmity in his eyes, and who closed by writing: "But your guests will be sure to receive the greeting they so well deserve, and the great American doctrine, no government without the consent of the governed, so disregarded in both hemispheres, will be vindicated in God's own time."

are not to be turned over to the Northern Securities Company. That stock is now held as collateral for the outstanding Burlington collateral bonds, with voting rights vested in the Northern Pacific and Great Northern railways. It is understood that the Union Pacific and the Chicago and Northwestern interests agree to the retirement of the Northern Pacific preferred, and that the Union Pacific will have a heavy interest in the capital of the new company, considerably beyond the par value of their present Northern Pacific shareholdings, which are placed at $78,000,000 par value, just over a majority of the total $155,000,000 of Northern Pacific capital stock.

No information was obtainable as to what share, if any, the Vanderbilts and the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul are to have in the new company. Under the new arrangement, the Union Pacific Railway will have voting rights in the Burlington, the directors being about evenly divided between the Union Pacific and the Hill interests. The suggestion was made today that the Burlington stock may be held in a voting trust under the agreement between the two interests. In this case, J. P. Morgan will be a voting trustee.

As the control of the Burlington road by the Great Northern-Northern Pacific interests, followed by the struggle for Northern Pacific shares, caused the affairs which reached a settlement today, disposition of the Burlington naturally is an interesting question. In that regard, the Journal of Commerce tomorrow will say that the Burlington is to be restored by the Northern Pacific and Great Northern, who now own it, to a practically independent basis, and will enjoy full and free traffic relations with all its connections. This independence is to be secured through a lease by the present owners to a new company formed for the purpose. This is the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy "Railway" Company, incorporated under the laws of Iowa, with a capital of $100,000,000.

The terms of the lease may be announced after the lease of the old Burlington company today (Thursday,) but it is supposed that they will fully protect the Great Northern and Northern Pacific in their guarantee of the bonds by which the Burlington was purchased.

After the meeting of the Northern Pacific directors, J. J. Hill and George F. Baker went to Morgan's office and had a conference with him. Later, Jacob Schiff, of Kuhn, Loeb and Co., and E. H. Harriman called. All declined to be interviewed.

A member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. said the Northern Securities Company would be the holding company of the various roads interested, but he declined to say what railroads these were, on the ground that the details are not yet completed and premature publication might interfere with their consummation.

"You may rest assured," said he, "that all difficulty over the Northern Pacific matter is now at an end, and this has been accomplished in a manner highly satisfactory to all concerned."

Regarding the scope of the agreement, the Times tomorrow will quote a member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. as follows:

"The agreement now reached is perfect, in that there is now an understanding that will protect the Union Pacific, Burlington, Northern Pacific and Great Northern roads. It will maintain the interests of each, and prevent any of them from interfering with the others. The understanding is absolute, in that it is, in the expectation of the parties to the agreement, bound to be permanent, and security-holders need not be afraid of any more months of May because of Northernwestern railway interests."

One of the heads of the Harriman syndicate, the Times will also say, declared that the agreement meant that hereafter no important matter could be passed to a conclusion without the knowledge and assent of Union Pacific interests.

Another representative of the Harriman interests made the following statement: "The Union Pacific interests are entirely satisfied with the settlement reached today. We believe that the settlement recognizes to the fullest extent the claims upon which the Union Pacific originally sought a voice in the management of the Burlington system. This agreement stamps the situation in the Northwest with the final seal of harmony. It means that actual community of interest will prevail among the railroads of the Northwest, and that there will be no further disturbances of the financial world, from that source, at least."

In answer to a question, he stated that the recently reorganized Burlington company would leave the old Burlington company for the purpose of management only.

DAWSON RAILWAY.

SOON TO BE BUILT.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

VICTORIA (B. C.) Nov. 13.—The Colonist says editorially this morning:

"We have information which leads us to feel warranted in saying that the proposed railway from Dawson to the Klondike mines will be built next summer. The line will probably extend up Bonanza Creek, with branches up the several gold-producing creeks, the main line continuing from Bonanza up El Dorado and across the divide to Indian River. The object of the promoters will be to extend the line at a very early day as far as Stewart River, and ultimately to the mouth of the Pelly, opposite Fort Selkirk. It will in all probability form part of an all-Canadian route to Dawson.

"There is enough business in sight to warrant the construction of the southern portion of such an all-Canadian line, and although he would be a rash man who would undertake to predict how soon the gap between the waters of the Sitkan and Lake Tesla will be covered, nevertheless so rapidly do things develop in the Northwest, and the probability of valuable discoveries in this little-known country are so great, that we may regard a line from the British Columbia seaboard to Dawson as almost within measurable distance of realization."

HAYS'S OLD JOB.

HE CAN HAVE IT AGAIN.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—The Chronicle tomorrow will say that it is reported that C. M. Hays, who recently resigned the presidency of the Southern Pacific, is to be elected president and general manager of the Grand Trunk system. Hays was general manager of the latter road when he was made president of the Southern Pacific about a year ago.

Hays is now in England conferring, it is said, with the owners of the road.

WIFE'S HAND WASN'T IN IT.

Rathbun Relates More About Conspiracy.

Might Have Killed a Man, but Didn't.

Miss Corinne Pryor Has a Story About Defendant. Inquest Continues.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 13.—In the jail at Jeffersonville, tonight, Newell C. Rathbun was asked whether his wife at Little Rock was implicated in the plot to collect the insurance. After several moments' silence he replied: "No; there was nobody in it at Little Rock."

HIS "CONFEDERATE."

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) Nov. 13.—Rathbun at first stated that his only confederate was a deserter from the regular army, named Blanchard, but he finally admitted that this was false, and that Blanchard was a fictitious character.

The suspicions of Capt. Sullivan were aroused today by news from Little Rock that a Miss Corinne Pryor had stated that Rathbun had proposed a very similar plan of defrauding an insurance company to her, and asked her to marry him. To carry out her part, he would send a corpse home; it could be buried as him, and he and she would divide the insurance. He also learned that Mrs. Rathbun still insisted that the corpse sent from Jeffersonville and now in Little Rock, was that of her husband.

Rathbun said his wife knew nothing of any plot to commit murder or to set fire to a hotel.

"Indeed," he said, "no murder was committed, for I did not kill Goldman. I might have killed him, if necessary, but he died of natural causes."

One of the most perplexing features of the case as it now presents itself to the police is in regard to the real identity of the prisoner. That he has been passing himself over the country as Lieut. Newell C. Rathbun; that he was married in Little Rock under that name, and that he was insured for $4000 appear to be certain, but the detectives are convinced that it is an alias.

Rathbun, tonight, was taken across the river to Jeffersonville, Ind., and placed in jail, charged with murder.

LAUDANUM IN GOODMAN.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 13.—A telegram has been received from the Chief of Police of Evansville, Ind., stating that Goodman was a resident of Cripple Creek, Colo., where he was a brass worker. When asked for his opinion as to the claim made by Mrs. Rathbun that the corpse shipped to Little Rock was that of her husband, Rathbun laughed and remarked: "Maybe it is his corpse." This is all he would say on the subject.

Dr. Benson Little of Jeffersonville, who was present at the autopsy upon Goodman's body, says he will swear that laudanum was in Goodman's stomach in large quantities.

The Louisville police today began sending all over the United States photographs and a description of Rathbun, in an effort to positively identify him.

LITTLE ROCK INQUEST.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LITTLE ROCK (Ark.) Nov. 13.—The inquest over the remains supposed to be those of Newell C. Rathbun, was resumed today. Former Chief of Police Sanders, Durand Whipple, who rented the room which Rathbun occupied as a recruiting office, and William O'Connell, who roomed with Rathbun several weeks previous to his marriage, testified that the remains were not those of Rathbun.

Detective Chichester leaves tonight for Louisville. He will take with him a personal friend of Rathbun, for the purpose of identifying him. Chichester represents the insurance companies in which Rathbun secured the policies for $4000. The body here will remain in the keeping of the police until Chichester reports the result of his investigations at Louisville.

HIS MILITARY ESCORT.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The War Department has decided to send Newell C. Rathbun from Louisville to Jeffersonville, Ind., under military escort, there to be turned over to the civil authorities. The military authorities are holding Rathbun on the charge of desertion, but believe he will be tried on the more serious charge of murder preferred against him in Indiana. As a prisoner of the United States government, no requisition papers will be required to take him to Indiana.

greater value to the national government in the time of war and by which their relation to the national government will be more clearly defined. That question has remained undetermined for a hundred years or more, and every attempt to secure legislation defining the relations between the State militia and the national government has met with failure when brought before Congress.

Secretary Root will not, therefore, make the mistake of favoring any particular plan of reorganization which brings about friction between the War Department officials and officers of State organizations.

MAJ. H. R. BELKNAP DEAD.

DEATH OCCURS IN LUZON.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Col. Ward, acting adjutant-general, received a cable message today from Gen. Chaffee, reporting that Maj. Hugh R. Belknap of the Pay Department, died at Calamba, Laguna de Luson, on the 13th inst., from intestinal troubles, and that his remains will be sent to the United States on the transport Thomas.

Maj. Belknap was appointed to the pay corps in the regular establishment last February, having served previously with the same corps during the Spanish war as a volunteer. He was a son of the late Secretary Belknap, and was himself prominent in Republican party councils, representing one of the Chicago districts in the national House of Representatives for several terms. He was a leading member of the Committee on Military Affairs while a member of the House.

SENATORS DROPPING IN.

CANAL BILL FINDS FAVOR.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Senator Spooner of Wisconsin and Senator Bailey of Texas saw the President today, and the former, together with ex-Senator Don Cameron of Pennsylvania, took luncheon at the White House. Senator Spooner declined to discuss the questions of reciprocity and tariff, but expressed the opinion that the new treaty with Great Britain would be ratified and the canal bill be passed at the approaching session of Congress.

Senator Bailey, who was for two Congresses the leader of the minority of the House, says that, so far as he is aware, there will be no meeting of the minority Senators to determine upon a policy of opposition in the coming Congress. He is inclined to think that events will be likely to determine their course. Senator Bailey said that if the new canal treaty were the strongly American treaty it was reported to be, he would gladly give it his support.

A delegation from the Land Grant College Association, which is meeting in this city, formally paid the respects of the association to the President today. It consisted of R. B. Fulton of Mississippi, Joseph Swain and G. E. McLean of Iowa.

LODGE AND SPOONER DINE.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Senators Lodge and Spooner of the Foreign Affairs Committee, which will have cognisance of the Nicaraguan Canal treaty and reciprocity treaties in the coming Congress, took dinner with the President tonight, and were in conference with him up to a late hour.

It was after midnight when the two Senators left the White House. Both declined to discuss their talk with the President. Senator Lodge, in response to an inquiry, said the successorship to the late Senator Davis as chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee was already settled, and that it would go to the senior member of the committee.

Senator Spooner said he probably would introduce at the coming session a measure creating a tariff commission of experts to go over the tariff question exhaustively and make a comprehensive report for the guidance of Congress, along the lines of the amendment he offered to the Dingley bill during the pendency of that measure in the Senate.

OLONGAPO NAVAL STATION.

CONSTRUCTION NOW POSSIBLE.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The President today signed an executive order creating a naval reservation of a large tract of land just acquired by the Navy Department at Olongapo, on Subig Bay, Luzon.

The department will now proceed with all dispatch to construct at this point a navy yard and station of the first order, patterning the plans generally after the Mare Island navy yard. As soon as this is properly equipped, a large part of the work now done at the Cavite navy yard will be transferred to Olongapo, and in addition, the latter yard can undertake repairs of the larger vessels of the Asiatic fleet, which are now repaired expensively at Hongkong. It is a part of the project to ship the Havana floating dock to Olongapo to supply immediate docking needs, and until permanent docks can be constructed.

BRITISH COLUMBIA SHINGLES.

BOOM IN THE INDUSTRY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TACOMA, Nov. 13.—Exclusive Dispatch.] Numerous orders and big profits in the shingle business in British Columbia have caused a boom in that industry. Shingle mills are going up all over the province, and many of the firms who are establishing mills near Vancouver and New Westminster are Americans from Washington and Wisconsin, who find it difficult to secure cedar in their own States. They are attracted by cheap cedar in British Columbia. Washington people are putting up a large mill at Hastings, B. C., while several mills of smaller capacity are being erected in the city limits of Vancouver by Americans. Besides these mills two large shingle mills are being erected by Talt Bros. in Vancouver, another by the Imperial Lumber Company and by Heaps & Son. In another year the shingle output of British Columbia will be more than double the present output.

As soon as the new mills are ready for business, they are taken into the combine, and Combine Manager Scott of Vancouver distributes orders to them according to capacity. For the past twelve months, it has been impossible for the mills of the province to keep up with these orders, and by combining prices are kept high.

CIVIL SERVICE EXTENSION.

BY THE PRESIDENT.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—About two hundred employés in the executive branch of the rural free delivery service of the Postoffice Department will be brought into the civil service by an order of President Roosevelt, which it is understood will be issued within a week or two. These employés are clerks, special agents and inspectors. The six thousand rural free delivery carriers throughout the country will not be brought into the civil service under the order, but they will be taken in at a later day. Their civil service status is likely to be somewhat different from those first included, though the form of the relations governing them has not yet been passed upon.

THE PRESIDENT'S VISITORS.

COMMERCIAL MEN COMING.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Arrangements were made at the White House today for the reception next week, by the President, of a representative committee from the reciprocity convention, which will meet at the Raleigh Hotel Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. About five hundred delegates representing commercial bodies from all parts of the country are expected to be present at the convention. The call of the convention is to discuss the expediency and practicability of a broader application of the principle of commercial reciprocity as a means of expanding the foreign markets for American products.

Dr. José C. Barbarossa, manager of the Executive Council, and L. Sanches Morales of the House of Delegates of Porto Rico, talked with the President today about Porto Rican affairs. They told the President that the economic conditions in the island were improving, but that the most repressing problem was that for the protection of the coffee industry, which had been treated fully in the memorial sent to the President by the Chamber of Commerce of San Juan. They complimented Gov. Hunt and the other officials on the work they were doing.

The team of horses purchased for President Roosevelt in Baltimore yesterday has arrived at the White House stables. The President is much pleased with their appearance. They are fine, high-stepping, stylish-looking animals, and fulfill the President's idea of a carriage team. They were tried this afternoon for the first time, the President and his daughter, Miss Alice Roosevelt, taking a drive behind them.

BANK IN CHINA.

CAPITALISTS THINKING OF IT.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Rockhill's attempt to interest American capitalists in the establishment of an international bank in China, is bearing fruit. Today Walter G. Oakmand, president of the Gusrahtee Trust Company of New York, called on Secretary Hay to talk on this subject.

There seems to be a desire on the part of other capitalists to know how far they can count on the aid of the United States in the maintenance of the bank, and the Secretary of State is referring the inquirers to the Secretary of the Treasury, who will determine the matter.

WESTERN CENTENNIAL.

PRESIDENT INTERESTED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Joel M. Long and ex-Judge Martin L. Pipes of Portland, Or., had a talk with the President this morning about the Louis and Clark centennial exhibition, which it is proposed to hold at Portland in 1905, commemorating the centennial anniversary of the exploration of that section of the United States. The exposition will seek to bring oriental countries into closer relations with the United States.

WASHINGTON BRIEFS.

San Carlos Indians.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The Secretary of the Interior has taken cognizance of the situation at San Carlos Indian reservation, Arizona, to the extent of directing the agent of the Indians on that reservation to notify Territorial and county officers that the department expects them to fully protect peaceable Indians, while legitimately engaged in work on the roads in that vicinity.

Craft Wiser Than Sapp.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Representative Boreing of Kentucky today formally presented to the President J. A. Craft of Louisville, whom the President yesterday appointed to the collectorship of internal revenue of the Fifth Kentucky District. The President cautioned Craft not to fall into the error of his predecessor, Sapp, but to observe rigidly the civil-service law. To this Craft pledged himself.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Orders were issued today ordering seven troops of the Fifth Cavalry, now in the Department of California, to sail for the Philippines on the Hancock, about December 15.

WINNING MOY HOME.

PEORIA (Ill.) Nov. 13.—Moy Home, a Peoria Chinaman, who bought a piece of property in Chicago, and then went to China to settle his mother's estate, is in jail in San Francisco, and the ladies of the Second Presbyterian Church of this city are trying to secure his release and admit him to the country. He attempted to get in at San Francisco, some months ago, but was shipped back to the Hawaiian Islands. He then made another attempt, and was thrown into jail. He wired here today for $300, and the ladies of the church sent it. Congressman Graff has been asked to intervene for the Chinaman.

NATIONAL FRIENDS COLONY.

PENDLETON (Ind.) Nov. 13.—The committee of National Friends, headed by John L. Thomas of this city, which went to Colorado recently to select land for a National Friends' colony, have returned. They purchased 4000 acres in Prower county, Colo., on the Santa Fé Railroad near Holly. They believe it is well suited to sugar-beet or cantaloupe culture. The colony will be organized as rapidly as possible.

Chicago packers are believed to be cornering the egg market, and now have 500,000 cases in cold storage. The combination expects, it is said, to have the market completely under their control before the middle of January.

FEAR DEATH HAS COME.

Officials Worried Over Miss Stone.

Dispatch to German Paper the Cause.

Bulgarian Officials Explain Their Attitude—Insist on Full Ransom.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The State Department officials are very much worried about a report printed in the Cologne Gazette that Miss Stone, who was captured by Bulgarian brigands, is probably dead. The Cologne Gazette is one of the most reliable newspapers printed in Germany. It has its own correspondents everywhere, including Washington, and for that reason officials fear that its advices may be true.

POSSIBLY MURDERED.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BERLIN, Nov. 13.—The Cologne Gazette today contains a dispatch from Sofia, Bulgaria, saying that it is feared that Miss Ellen Stone, the American missionary in the hands of the brigands, has been murdered, owing to the delay in the payment of her ransom.

BULGARIA'S ATTITUDE.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SOFIA, Nov. 13.—The Bulgarian officials disclaim any intention to interfere with Consul-General Dickinson's private negotiations for the release of Miss Stone from the hands of the brigands, but they decline to become parties to an agreement, sanctioning brigands or the emissaries of brigands coming into Bulgarian territory to treat for the ransom of persons captured in a neighboring State. In defense of the interests of Bulgaria the officials cannot show weakness toward the brigands, or repudiate responsibility for the consequences. The government would, however, respect, subject to certain conditions, all conducts granted by Dickinson personally to private emissaries.

It is suggested that Dickinson give the bandits a fixed time in which to accept the amount as the only means of bringing the matter to a conclusion, inasmuch as the prestige of the United States is injured by the present inconsequent negotiations. Hardly a day passes without persons calling at the hotel where Dickinson and the newspaper correspondents are staying, with information to sell regarding the case. This is either stale or fabricated.

A Greek priest yesterday introduced himself with the statement that he had met a Turkish officer with Miss Stone and Mme. Tsilka near Pjummiabala. He added that the women asked him to tell people that he had seen them. This fiction is one week old.

Miss Stone's statements in her letters of the movement of the troops compelling the brigands to keep in constant motion, proves that the troops in question must be Bulgarians, as the Turkish troops in Macedonia are stationary.

INSIST ON FULL RANSOM.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Ivan Molocheff, a Bulgarian clergyman from Uscub, in Macedonia, has just arrived from visiting Miss Stone, and is now in consultation with Mr. Dickinson, says a Sofia (Bulgaria) dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser.

"Miss Stone," he said, "is in the house of Bekir Bey, in the town of Ceres, Macedonia. I left her two days ago, coming direct to Dickinson to try to arrange for her release. Miss Stone and Mme. Tsilka are well, but the strain is terrific, and there is danger that Miss Stone may lose her mind. To be always in the same surroundings is likely to drive her crazy; constantly looking at the same objects has semi-mesmerized her, and she has had a presentiment that evil will befall her.

"The brigand chief informs me that he will now insist on the full ransom, as the length of time Miss Stone has been left on his hands leaves no margins for bargaining. The name of the brigand chief is Dervich Younouse, and he is an Albanian. Bekir Bey, in whose house Miss Stone is confined, is hand-in-glove with the brigand chief. Bekir Bey assisted the brigands, by keeping Miss Stone for three days in the mountains before taking her to his house.

"There are about one hundred and fifty Macedonians imprisoned in connection with the Stone affair by the Turkish officials. I want no personal compensation, but I want the Macedonians released. If the American, English and French consuls at Salonica insist upon Bekir Bey releasing Miss Stone it will not be necessary to deal with the brigands, and we can get her release without paying ransom."

MISS STONE'S JOURNEY.

WAS IN LINE OF DUTY.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BOSTON, Nov. 13.—The executive officers of the American Board of Foreign Missions issued a statement today, concerning the case of Miss Ellen M. Stone, intended to be corrective of reports that have been widely published, relative to the condition that resulted in her capture by the brigands. This statement affirms that Miss Stone was in pursuit of her customary duties as a missionary, when she was captured. The route over which she was traveling is one that is continuously used by the missionaries, and there was reason for apprehending any special danger. No warning whatever was given to Miss Stone as to this particular journey, either by the Turkish or Bulgarian authorities. She had the usual escort of eighteen to twenty people. One of the missionaries acquainted with the region states that the route Miss Stone took was the safest of any in that region. The statement further affirms that there is no ground whatever for criticising Miss Stone for want of precaution in making this journey.

"ED" STOKES'S PROPERTY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The first step in the prospective litigation over the estate of Edward Stokes was taken today. W. E. Stokes, by attorney, obtained an order from Surrogate Thomas, directing F. V. Foote and Horace Stokes, the brother of E. S. Stokes, to show cause, Friday, why he should not be allowed to come in and intervene in the proceedings of the second will of E. S. Stokes, which was filed for probate Monday last.

NEELY SHORTAGE.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BALTIMORE (Md.) Nov. 13.—Martin C. Fornes, Director-General of Posts of Cuba, brought suit in the United States Circuit Court here today against the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company of Maryland, which, he says, bonded Charles F. Neely, former chief of the Bureau of Finance of the Department of Posts of the island of Cuba, in the sum of $5000. Mr. Fornes claims that amount of damages.

Another company of this city, it was learned, also bonded Neely for about $30,000. It is probably that a suit will be brought against this company unless settlement is made.

BANK BURGLARS GETTING BOLDER.

RIDE INTO AN OHIO TOWN AND TERRORIZE ITS PEOPLE.

Fire Half a Dozen Shots as They Appear on the Main Street—Attempt to Force Inner Vault of Bank Was Unsuccessful.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WAPAKONETA (O.) Nov. 13.—A bold attempt was made last night to rob the Citizens' Bank at Minster, this county, by a gang of twelve or fifteen men who held up the citizens of the town in regular western style.

The robbers, well armed with revolvers and shotguns, suddenly appeared on the main street, and fired half a dozen shots. They broke open the doors of the bank building, and attempted to blow open the safe with nitroglycerine, but failed to reach the inner vault, which contained $10,000.

In the meantime the Marshal and night watchman opened fire on the robbers from a second-story window, across the street from the bank. The robbers returned the fire, and also fired at all citizens who appeared on the streets. Over one hundred shots were exchanged. Becoming frightened, the robbers jumped into their rigs and drove rapidly away. No trace of them has thus far been found.

At the meeting of the Executive Committee of the society it was said that the address of Mr. Roosevelt, at the meeting of the society last June at Oyster Bay, had been printed in a leaflet, and has had a very large circulation. It has been translated into several languages and has been circulated in Mexico and the Argentine Republic.

MURDEROUS IMPULSE.

FRANK NEWMAN CONFESSES.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN JOSE, Nov. 13.—Frank New man, the nineteen-year-old boy fro San Francisco, who shot and wounde a young man named Arpa, nea Guadalupe last evening, made a state ment today, in which he said that h shot Arpa without provocation. H said that he was returning with Arp from a hunt, and that when Arpa was a few feet in advance, a sudden im pulse compelled him to shoot. Arpa raised his gun and fired, then rifle the pockets of the wounded man an hastened home. As he was leavin Arpa staggered to his feet, seized hi gun and fired at Newman, but with out effect. Newman further state that the shot struck Arpa in the neck and that he toiled him to prevent others from getting the money, in tending to turn the plunder over to the officers.

Arpa tells a somewhat different story He says they were walking along in friendly conversation, when, without word of warning, Newman shot him After he had fallen he moved slightly and Newman then shot him again. H then feigned death, while his pockets were being rifled. When this job was over he again moved, and Newman sent some shells in his gun for a third shot. Then it was that he mustered strength enough to seize his rifle and fire at Newman, who turned and fled. Arpa was wounded in the face and in the shoulder. He will probably recover.

The wounded man's full name is M. J. Arpa, and he is third mate of the steamer Newport, which arrived from Panama ten days ago. Not feeling well, he obtained shore leave to visit his uncle near Guadalupe. He says both he and Newman were perfectly sober when the shooting occur

High winds have been the chief factor in its removal. William L. Hall, chief tree planter of the Federal government, has completed a trip over the entire area with the object of ascertaining how it can best be controlled by means of forest trees and plants.

The proposed work of the government has two objects in view: First, protection of property along the river, and second, reclamation of miles of land now lying waste in the Columbia Valley, where shifting sands cover it and prevent agriculture. Hall says judicious tree planting and starting of permanent windbreaks will not only reclaim the sand dunes themselves, but prevent the blowing of sand across other tracts further down the river. He will establish windbreaks consisting of poplars, cottonwoods and locust trees, setting bushes and willows in between.

The accomplishment of this plan will give the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company from great yearly expense, besides providing homes for hundreds of settlers.

SAN JOAQUIN IRRIGATION.

LARGE AREAS TO SOAK.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

STOCKTON, Nov. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The farmers of this county have concluded that they must have water, if they are to be assured of a crop each season, and by next year nearly twenty thousand acres of land will be irrigated, if the present plans are carried out. The land owners south and southeast of Stockton are working on the proposition to add two more laterals to the main ditch of the Stanislaus and San Joaquin Water Company, which secures its supply at Knight's Ferry on the Stanislaus River. They propose to extend one ditch from the H. W. Cowell place, east of Lodi, about six miles to French Camp Slough, while other laterals will run from Atlanta to another point on French Camp Slough, about eight miles. This will place over seven thousand acres under irrigation, while a third canal, which Ripon farmers will dig, will supply water for 10,000 acres.

MURDEROUS IMPULSE.

FRANK NEWMAN CONFESSES.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN JOSE, Nov. 13.—Frank Newman, the nineteen-year-old boy from San Francisco, who shot and wounded a young man named Arps, near Guadalupe last evening, made a statement today, in which he said that he shot Arps without provocation. He said that he was returning with Arps from a hunt, and that when Arps was a few feet in advance, a sudden impulse compelled him to shoot. He reloaded his gun and fired, then rifled the pockets of the wounded man and hastened home. As he was leaving Arps staggered to his feet, seized his gun and fired at Newman, but without effect. Newman further stated that the shot struck Arps in the neck, and that he robbed him to prevent others from getting the money, intending to turn the plunder over to the officers.

Arps tells a somewhat different story. He says they were walking along in friendly conversation, when, without a word of warning, Newman shot him. Before he had fallen he moved slightly, and Newman then shot him again. He lay feigned death, while his pockets were being rifled. When this job was done he again moved, and Newman gave him some shells in his gun for a third shot. Then it was that he mustered strength enough to seize his rifle and fire at Newman, who turned and fled. Arps was wounded in the face and in the shoulder. He will probably recover.

The wounded man's full name is M. Arps, and he is third mate of the schooner Newport, which arrived from Nome ten days ago. Not feeling well, he obtained shore leave to visit his uncle near Guadalupe. He says that he and Newman were perfectly sober when the shooting occurred. After being shot he dragged himself to his uncle's place, fainting six times on the way. At the saloon where they stopped before going on the hunt, Arps had cashed a gold piece, and said he was going to San Francisco next day.

PROTECTION OF GAME.

DISCUSSED AT SAN JOSE.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN JOSE, Nov. 13.—The second annual convention of the California Fish and Game Protective Association met here tonight, with a fair attendance, President Payne presiding. The session tonight was devoted to the reading of papers. Tomorrow reports of the officers will be submitted and officers elected. One of the most important announcements to be made by Chief Deputy Vogelsang of the Fish Commission. This is to the effect that Judge Carroll of San Francisco had just handed down a decision sustaining fully the law which prohibits the buying and selling of quail.

Papers read tonight were: Dr. A. H. Barker, San José, on "County Organization of Protective Associations;" W. W. Richards, San Francisco, "Relations of the Game to the Forestry;" A. T. Herrman, San José, "Forestry and Its Relations to Game," and Rose Cornwall, San Francisco, on "The Game and the Law." Barker recommended for organizations of game protective associations in all counties of the State; Richards, in his paper, strongly approved the making of the Presidio into a public park, and urged that the acreage be increased; Herrman insisted that the forests be replanted where cut down by the lumbermen, and also that bare mountains and plains be set to trees, while Cornwall gave a history of laws on game from early English times.

DIMMICK CONVICTED

ON SECOND INDICTMENT.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—Walter N. Dimmick, former chief clerk of the United States Mint, was found guilty of embezzlement today, on a second indictment charging him with unlawfully using the government's money for his own private use. The trial of Dimmick in this case was similar in many respects to his first trial, the charges being practically the same. The jury today deliberated about four hours. On his conviction at the first trial he was sentenced to two years in San Quentin, and his second conviction will add a few more years to his term of penance.

A third indictment brought against Dimmick for the embezzlement of $30,000 which was stolen from the mint was quashed by Judge De Haven on a technical point raised by his counsel, and the charge will be taken up by the new grand jury, which will meet this month.

BRUTAL MOB.

ABUSES A NEGRO.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

VIRGINIA (Nev.) Nov. 13.—Word has just reached here of an outbreak of mob violence, which almost resulted in the death of Henry Ellis, a negro, residing at Fay, a new mining camp in Lincoln county.

A gang of men went to the cabin occupied by Ellis, first attacked him, and then dragged him out and held a mock trial on a charge of stealing $3.50 from a boarding-house at Fay. At the conclusion they searched his pockets and took all the money he had, after which a rope was placed around his neck and he was drawn up three times to the limb of a tree. The limb broke, and the mob decided not to hang the man, who was marched out of town. He succeeded in reaching the town of Uvada in safety.

JUDGE NOYES CONCLUDES.

MOST OF TESTIMONY IN.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—The Nome contempt proceedings, before Commissioner Heacock, are rapidly nearing an end and the case will be presented to the Circuit Court of Appeals next Monday, the attorneys having been so instructed today.

The cross-examination of Judge Noyes was completed today. Judge Noyes positively denied that he did anything to vex, harass, or disturb the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals, or to prevent or delay the execution of its process. He did not question the right of the Court of Appeals to allow appeals from his orders in cases, and claimed he never said the writs were void.

The witness stated that Marshal Vawter, in speaking about the $20,000 matter, remarked: "We are not here for our health, and, although I do not want to influence you," etc.

Judge Noyes said the opposition to him at Nome developed when a certain newspaper published an article against him for removing one of its friends, who had been a commissioner in the Kugarok.

WOOD ON THE STAND.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—Another witness today was Joseph K. Wood, one of the respondents, who was District Attorney at Nome. He admitted that he and McKenzie entered into a law partnership, but said that no mention was made in his presence of Judge Noyes as a beneficiary of this partnership. When McKenzie was appointed receiver of the Anvil Creek claims, Wood withdrew from the firm.

During the last of his stay in Nome, the witness said, he was not on speaking terms with Judge Noyes. His explanation for failing to deliver the keys of the safe-deposit boxes to the deputy marshals was a desire to wait for orders from McKenzie, who had given them into his charge.

Wood testified that he secured his appointment to the Alaska Attorneyship through Senator Carter, who appealed directly to the President against the opposition of the Attorney-General.

LIFE A TORMENT.

SO HASBROUCK ENDED IT.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN RAFAEL, Nov. 13.—Joseph Hasbrouck, former secretary of the Bancroft-Whitney Company of San Francisco, committed suicide today by shooting himself in the head with a shotgun. Hasbrouck had been a victim of melancholy, and it is believed ended his life to escape its torments. He leaves a widow and three children.

RETIRED LAST JUNE.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—At the office of the Bancroft-Whitney company this afternoon it was stated that Mr. Hasbrouck has not been actively identified with the firm since last June, when failing health compelled his relinquishment of work. Since that time he had been merely a stockholder in the concern.

STANFORD NEGOTIATIONS.

DEBATE WITH WASHINGTON

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 13.—Negotiations have been started for an intercollegiate debate between Stanford and the University of Washington, which, in all probability, will result in a team from Washington visiting Stanford before the end of the year.

The treasurer, Edwards, stated today that the gross receipts of the Stanford-California football game last Saturday approximated $19,000. This is about $6000 less than last Thanksgiving. When the games are played on the university campuses and not in San Francisco, the receipts will probably be considerably lower.

Next year will be the last, according to the intercollegiate agreement, in which the annual contest will take place in the city, but the students will attempt to have the agreement rescinded and a return to the Thanksgiving-day game in the city effected.

WOMAN STRANGLER CLAIMS TWO VICTIMS.

MYSTERIOUS CRIMES THRILL EVANSVILLE WITH HORROR.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

EVANSVILLE (Ind.) Nov. 13.—There were two mysterious murders near this city yesterday morning. Both victims were women, both were killed in the same manner, and evidently by the same persons. What possible motive existed for either crime, no one is able to explain. Neither woman was known to have had an enemy, and nothing is known to link the two of them in any affair likely to furnish a reason for one man to attack both.

The body of Mrs. Georgia Railey was found near the city, behind a public highway. There were finger marks on the throat. The neck was broken. The supposition is that the woman was choked to death by some one in a buggy, and that when she fell out her neck was broken. There were evidences of the body having been dragged some distance, and thrown into a ditch.

A mile outside the city, but in an opposite direction, the body of Miss Lena Renner was discovered by searchers. Her throat also had finger marks, showing the manner of death to be similar to that of Mrs. Railey.

The similarity of these murders to two others in this city during the last three years, forms another strange incident in the case.

In April, 1898, Mrs. Mary Stork went buggy riding with a stranger, and the next morning her dead body was found in a ditch. The man who took her life was never discovered. Mrs. Stork was a prominent young woman, and a great sensation was caused by her death.

In April of the following year Miss Nora Kifer of Elberfeld, Ind., while visiting here, suddenly disappeared. Her body was found weighted down in a creek, the following month. Joseph D. Keith, a wealthy farmer, will be hanged next Friday for the crime.

POLICE ARE BAFFLED.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

EVANSVILLE (Ind.) Nov. 13.—All the efforts of the entire police and detective forces of this city to find a clew to the murderer or murderers of the two women have proved unavailing. Several suspects are under surveillance, but developments have not been sufficient to warrant the police in making arrests.

While it is evident that both victims were killed about the same hour Tuesday night, it is still believed the women were slain by the same man.

John Kifer, a young railroader, was arrested as a suspect. He was with Miss Renner on Tuesday, but Kifer succeeded in convincing the police that he was innocent of the crime. Miss Renner was the daughter of well-known and highly-respected parents in Jasper.

The only clew found that gives ground for any hope of clearing the mystery tends to bring under suspicion a man who for several years has kept company with Mrs. Railey.

The stomach of the Renner woman has been examined by the Coroner and physicians, and traces of morphine were discovered, although not in quantities sufficient to cause death. This leads the police to believe that the woman was drugged by the murderer, and that after the victim became unconscious he choked her to death.

ONE HUNDRED LIVES LOST IN STORM.

GALE CONTINUES TO RAGE AT MANY COAST POINTS.

Impossible to Identify Many of the Vessels Wrecked and Complete Reports Will Probably Largely Increase the Number of Fatalities—Extend to Denmark.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, Nov. 13.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The gale which has been sweeping over Great Britain and Ireland for the past two days, continues unabated at many coast points. Over the Welsh lowlands the torrents of rains are increasing, causing disastrous floods. Reports of wrecks and casualties continue to flow in. The death list, made up of threes and fours, has an aggregate approaching one hundred. The mail boat Nord, from Dover for Calais, which last night ran down the lightship of the works of the new Dover pier, has succeeded in returning to Dover. The mails and passengers are safe. The crew of the lightship was also landed this morning, after passing a terrible night at sea in a small boat.

The British steamer St. Elveo has been beached at Dover. Early today, a French bark struck off Hendon, south of Sunderland. Nineteen of the crew were drowned.

Numerous other wrecks have been reported, but the weather in most cases prevents the identification of the craft. Two vessels in distress were sighted last evening off Dungenness, but the weather was so severe that the lifeboat was unable to put out to their assistance. This morning, one of them sank. The other, a steamer, reached West Bay, where a tug is now standing by her.

The revenue-cutter Active has been wrecked in the Firth of Forth. Twenty-three of her crew were drowned, and three were saved.

The Norwegian bark Inga, Capt. Olesen, has been totally wrecked at Tynmouth, and sixteen members of her crew have been lost.

The Russian bark Pollux, Capt. Lour, from Liverpool, N. S., for Glasson dock, was stranded at North Wharf, Fleetwood, and lost her foremast and mainmast. She got towed off to her destination today, water-logged.

The Swedish bark Trio was driven ashore late this afternoon, at West Hartlepool, Durham, and was broken up. Three of her crew were washed ashore alive, and the remaining seven were drowned in sight of thousands of spectators powerless to help them, all attempts at rescue with rockets carrying life-saving lines having failed.

Pimples

What is more annoying than these little persistent things, and what is more provoking than their disfigurement of the face?

There are many kinds.

Some are watery, some are mattery, some are hard and dry. But they have a common cause—the presence of extraneous matter in the blood, often due to defective digestion.

Edward H. Willie, South Bend, Ind., acknowledges the benefit he derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla. He had been many years a sufferer from impure blood, shown by pimples, blotches and bad complexion, and had taken many medicines in vain, when he decided to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, a few bottles of which entirely cured him. His face is now free from pimples and his skin is fair.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Promises to cure and keeps the promise. It purifies the blood and gives permanent strength and tone.

DIED DEATH OF HEROES.

Vivid Description of Samar Massacre.

Defense Recalls the Memory of Alamo.

With No Weapons but Table Knives They Did Terrible Execution.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

VICTORIA (B. C.) Nov. 13.—Among the arrivals by the steamer Empress of China from the Orient was Lieut. F. F. Allison of the United States navy, who is on his way home from Manila. Speaking of the massacre of the members of the Ninth at Samar, he said the natives has grown to like the colored troops, who had been stationed there, and when the Ninth arrived it was thought by the American troops that the same friendly feeling would be shown to them, and the guard was not as strictly kept as it otherwise would have been.

The night before the massacre the village presidente came to Capt. Connell and before the padre declared that it would take 100 more native laborers to do certain pioneer work. He did not have the men, and begged the indulgence of the army captain. Honest and true in the legitimate discharge of his duty, Capt. Connell said: "Do the best you can. Get any native who will work, but clear away the underbrush."

Just after daybreak the natives with bolos to cut underbrush began coming into camp, and then the massacre began. The last underbrush man killed the sentry, the church bell rang, the soldiers went to breakfast below the floor that held their arms; the insurgents separated, half went upstairs and shot down them, and the other half went in the mess room and murdered the unarmed soldiers.

Not one of the survivors turned his back upon the scene of carnage until all was lost; their officers fallen; their comrades slaughtered, and a terrible vengeance executed upon the enemy. They then saved themselves and their wounded mates.

Capt. Connell apparently was awakened in his quarters by the attackers pouring in. He was alone, so he jumped from the window, down among his guards, but the guards had all been slaughtered. He was struck down by many bolos almost as soon as he struck the ground. Not satisfied with killing him, the assassins hacked his body into bits, severing the head, upon which they piled paper and sticks of wood, setting them afire, to render the face unrecognisable. The body, however, was identified by Lieut. Drouillard's detachment, which came down from Basey.

Separated from their weapons, most of th rank and file fought like heroes with table knives, stones, clubs, and such rude weapons as chance threw in their way. It was a bitter fate that befell the black-a-moors who closed with the Americans, before they had received their death wounds. Some of the natives were buried by their own crew before they fled, but Col. De Bussy ordered 100 more to be thrown into a trench.

A rifle in the hands of the first sergeant of the company rendered a terrible account. The sergeant, who is now in the Tereblan Hospital, killed the faithless presidente, who led the attack. With six men he fought his way to the headquarters building, to see if they could rescue or pick up a stricken comrade. Despite the mad rushes of the savages that surrounded them, they were able to secure the post colors. Then they cut their way back to the beach, where another little knot of comrades were defending the Baroles and their wounded companions.

Lieut. Allison says there are 7000 troops in Samar. He says there have been a number of filibustering expeditions fitted out in Singapore and Hongkong, mostly by Germans, which in some case have succeeded in landing their contraband arms and ammunition, but many captures have been made by the gunboats.

SURPRISED INSURGENTS.

ATTACKED IN RIFLE PITS.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MANILA, Nov. 13.—[By Manila Cable.] Capt. Hartman's troops of the First Cavalry early this morning surprised 400 insurgents at Bucan, in Batangas province, Southwestern Luzon. Half the insurgents were armed with rifles. They were prepared for an attack, and were in rifle pits. The cavalry attacked the insurgents on the flank, killing sixteen of them, wounding five, and capturing nine rifles. The insurgents broke and ran, the cavalry pursuing them.

The large boatloads of arms are reported to have been landed on the southern part of Batangas Peninsula, and taken to Durangan. Maj. West stationed in that locality is trying to find these arms.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The report from Japan that the United States government had placed an order for six gunboats with the Urga Boat Company, is not strictly accurate. They were to be bought at Hongkong and other places where they could be obtained at the best advantage.

The chairman said he did not fear the projected American and German competition, on account of the Eastern Telegraph Company's concessions in Pacific regions.

PLAIN SPEECH HURT UNION LABORITES.

ENRAGED AT HEARING TRUTH, THEY BECOME RIDICULOUS.

Because Col. Breckinridge Told Them What He Thought, They Expelled the Members Who Invited Him to Deliver Address of Welcome.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LEXINGTON (Ky.) Nov. 13.—There is much excitement among the delegates to the convention of the State Federation of Labor, now in session here, over the address of welcome by W. C. P. Breckinridge, who stated that he favored a combination of labor, and also a combination of capital, but that he did not believe a national federation of labor would be possible without complicating the interests of various sections.

Col. Breckinridge said that he was the friend of labor organizations, and that he heartily favored the organization of labor, but that he thought its battles should be fought with reason and not with force: that the day of strikes was over, citing and criticising the big steel strike. He said further that he did not believe it conducive to the best interests of labor, but unjust and an abrogation of personal liberty, for unions to say to the employer, "You must employ only whom we choose, and pay them what we demand," and say to the workingmen, "Unless you join our union you cannot work."

This expression of opinion was not pleasing to a number of the delegates, and several wanted to make speeches when Col. Breckinridge had concluded, but to avoid a scene the chairman declared the meeting adjourned.

When the convention reconvened the situation was so strained that several delegates attempted to expel the members of the Arrangements Committee who invited Breckinridge. They would not proceed with business, a motion to proceed being voted down, 35 to 3. There were motions to adjourn to Covington or Louisville, and then a committee of five was appointed to report whether the convention should leave Lexington.

At the session this evening the committee reported in favor of adjourning to another city, but a motion to that effect was defeated. A turbulent session followed, during which the federation adopted resolutions denouncing Breckinridge for his expressed sentiments, and expelling from the federation and convention, C. Fleming, vice-president of the federation, and president of the local Typographical Union, who arranged the programme and presided at the opening session.

J. J. O'Brien, the Lexington delegate, then walked out of the convention, and a meeting of the Blue Grass Typographical Union, the entertaining organization, was called for tonight. At the meeting of the Typographical Union resolutions were adopted withdrawing from the Kentucky Federation of Labor, and the action of Delegate O'Brien in leaving the convention, was indorsed. The printers, in the resolutions adopted, further declared, "that the brand of unionism exhibited by the Federation of Labor in its action today is not that to which Lexington unions are accustomed, nor the kind they attempt to propagate, and finally, since the federation has seen fit to criticise the entertainment and welcome accorded, the delegates are bidden a courteous farewell."

The resolutions also stated that while the sentiments of Col. Breckinridge are not indorsed by the Typographical Union, he was at least entitled to a respectful hearing, and to the privilege of free speech.

TWO VESSELS LOST.

The Glencaird, Bound for San Francisco, and the Astree, on Its Way to Valparaiso.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BUENOS AYRES, Nov. 13.—[By South American Cable.] The transport Chaco, which has arrived at this port, reports having picked up at Staten Island, off Terra del Fuego, the captain, first and second officers and twenty-one of the crew of the French ship Astree, which sailed from Shields, July 12, for Valparaiso. The Astree had been abandoned October 5, off Cape St. John. Six other members of the crew who had left the ship in smaall boats are missing. The Chaco also picked up the first officer and two of the crew of the bark Glencaird, Capt. English, which sailed from Shields, May 18, for San Francisco. The Glencaird was lost off Port Margaret, Staten Island. The captain, second officer, third officer and the rest of the crew were drowned.

SOUTH AFRICA.

CALLS BOERS MURDERERS.

Kaffirs Their Victims, Says Brodrick.

War Secretary Speaks at London Banquet.

Alleged Peace Negotiations from Many, but None from Botha.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, Nov. 13.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The British War Secretary, Brodrick, speaking tonight at a banquet given in London in his honor, by the City Carlton Club, declared that the Boers were hiding their tracks by murdering the Kaffirs behind them.

"Lord Kitchener wired today," he continued, "that the cold-blooded murder of natives had become frequent of late, and that two dead natives, their hands tied behind their backs, were found November 10, at the bottom of a mine shaft."

Later in his speech, Brodrick said Great Britain has now 42,000 Boers in custody in the centralization camps, and on various islands, and that 15,000 more had been killed and wounded, or had left the country on parole. He added that he believed the number of Boers now in the field was about 10,000.

"The country has set its teeth, and intends to go through the process of wearing them down," he exclaimed. "We intended to provide Lord Kitchener with fresh troops to replace the tired ones. Only today, a certain colony made an offer to help."

Brodrick said he was sorry anything had happened to affect the career of Sir Redvers Buller, and he assured the company that the deafness of Sir Evelyn Wood was not a bar to the work that officer had to do as commander of an army corps.

NONE FROM BOTHA.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Peace negotiations are reported from every quarter, except Botha's headquarters in the saddle, says the London representative of the Tribune. The National Liberal Federation is agitating for a full and explicit declaration of terms, from Downing street, but this is a political maneuver directed by the pro-Boers. Kruger and Leyds are credited, for the first time, with a willingness to consider something less than actual national independence as a basis for peace, but the rumors from Holland are contradictory and illusory. There is a story that the Boers in arms have approached Kitchener, and have intimated a desire for peace, without any reference to Kruger, Steyn or Botha, but this is a transparent fiction, started for the purpose of explaining Salisbury's reference to grounds of confidence which he could not lay before the people. There can be no peace while 3000 Boers and Cape rebels are in the field, under a dozen or more guerrilla leaders.

Kitchener's last report shows how scattered these forces are, and how narrow is their range of operations. Dewet has reappeared in a quarter of the Orange River Colony, where he can coöperate with Botha, and it is surmised that another attempt to invade Natal is impending.

The recent address of Charles Francis Adams of Boston, drawing an analogy between the conditions in South Africa and those in the United States at the time of the Appomattox surrender, and showing that Lee refused to sanction guerrilla warfare, because he considered it immoral and un-Christian, has produced a deep impression here. The Imperial South African Association has decided to reprint the text of the address in pamphlet form for the benefit of pro-Boer sympathizers.

NO PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BERLIN, Nov. 13.—The Frankfurter Zeitung today publishes an interview with A. D. Wolmarens, the Boer representative at, Amsterdam, in which the latter is quoted as declaring that the rumored impending peace negotiations between the Boers and the British are unfounded.

"So long," says Wolmarens, "as the British Ministry maintains the attitude outlined by Chamberlain's and Lord Salisbury's last speeches, the question of peace cannot be entertained. The idea of the cession of the gold fields is absurd."

REPORT PROGRESS.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—A correspondent of the London Times and New York Tribune, wiring from Middleburg, Cape Colony, says considerable progress has been made in the operations against the Boers. The most formidable commandoes have been driven out of their favorite haunts in the Midlands.

The work of clearing the Boers out is necessarily slow and harassing, says the dispatch, as at least two-thirds of the inhabitants of the country districts are sympathizers with them. That the work of clearance is not being done more quickly rests with those who allowed the troops to grow stale, by not relieving them in regular rotation. More horses and greater mobility in the columns are required.

BUTLER'S MERITS RECOGNIZED.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, Nov. 13.—Gen. William Butler, formerly in command of the troops in South Africa, who was recalled at the beginning of the campaign against the Boers, is at last having his merits recognized. According to the Daily Chronicle, he has accepted the offer of an appointment as president of the most important committee in connection with the War Office reform.

Gen. Lew Wallace Seeks a Vindication.

Interesting Letter to Army of Tennessee.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) Nov. 13.—The chief incident in the meeting of the Army of the Tennessee, which began here today, was the reading and discussion of a letter written by Gen. Lew Wallace of Crawfordsville. The letter was an acknowledgement of the courtesy and kindness of the society in inviting Gen. Wallace to become a member. Gen. Wallace set out that he had been a member of the society, and had severed his membership after the first three or four meetings for the reason that he found in it at that time many who were unfriendly to him, because of the discussion that grew out of the battle of Shiloh. Gen. Wallace said he would become a member of the society if it would do him justice by appointing a committee to review and report on his conduct on the occasion of his march from Crump's Landing to Pittsburg Landing. He offered to pay all expenses connected with the investigation.

Gen. Wallace's letter called forth much discussion. The general opinion of the members of the society, however, seemed to be that the incident of Gen. Wallace's action on the day of the battle should not be opened again. The members all expressed the kindliest feelings for Gen. Wallace, but thought that an investiagtion would be unable to settle the situation, anyway, since all the witnesses are dead.

The society directed President Dodge to write to Gen. Wallace, expressing its high regard and kind feeling for him, and renewing the invitation to join the society. His letter to the society was ordered printed in the record of the society's proceedings.

Gen. Dodge, president of the society, said tonight in regard to the incident: "The sentiment of all the members, I believe, is friendly to Gen. Wallace, but they think it would be inadvisable to reopen the matter at this late day, when the witnesses who would be needed to prove anything are all dead.

"There never was the least unfriendliness toward Gen. Wallace on the part of our society. I never knew when I wrote to Gen. Wallace asking him to join the society, that he had once been a member and retired. We asked him simply because we knew his record as an eminent soldier and brave patriot, and thought he would like to meet with us in his own State. I will write to him as the society instructed, tomorrow, and again ask him to join the society, after expressing our kindly feeling for him, and I hope he will accept the invitation."

TRUST COMPANY.

Mexico Has None Now, But the Standard Oil Interests Hope to Supply the Deficiency.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CITY OF MEXICO, Nov. 13.—Renewed reports in financial circles attribute to the Standard Oil group the purpose to establish a large trust company here, which will do a banking business, and provide means for financing large American undertakings, these being continually growing in importance. Present Mexican legislation does not contemplate trust companies as they are known in the United States, and there will have to be extensive changes made in existing laws to give full scope to a trust company.

These steps, it is now said, are under consideration by the government. It is understood that this country's business development has reached a point where trust companies are necessary. Old established banking interests oppose the increase of American financial influence, and will probably make opposition to changing the laws so as to make them favorable to the new American financial project. However, the administration is not hostile to American business interests, and will probably favor a large trust company which will surely assume an important place in the banking world here.

LABOR RIOT IN IOWA.

OMAHA (Neb.) Nov. 13.—A special to an afternoon paper from Oelwein, Iowa, says a serious riot occurred there last night between the Great Western shop employés and the non-union men who took their places during the strike. The non-union men were preparing to leave the city, when an angry mob of shopmen gathered and began clubbing and beating them. Several were seriously injured and two were beaten into unconsciousness. The police were powerless, and no deputies were at hand. So great became the danger to the non-union men that the company was compelled to stop its trains at the shops, that the men might board them from there.

BIG PUNCHERS ON THRONES.

Two Cynosures Draw Admiring Crowds.

Ruhlin's Pulse Beating at Forty-six.

Berkeley Will not Play Football With Princeton—Racing Results.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—While interest grows in Friday's big fight, the odds are still 10 to 4, and there is not even the color of Ruhlin money to be seen.

The champion and the Akron giant sit on thrones today at their respective quarters, the cynosure of admiring throngs. At Ruhlin's training camp it was all Ruhlin, and at Jeffries' it was all for the Los Angeles boy. Both men have practically let up in their preparation for the contest. A slight touch here and there was all that they gave themselves today in the way of finishing off their work. Tomorrow morning a short ramble will be the last they will take, and Friday will see them in the hands of rubbers and rubbers, keeping up the motion on every muscle of their big bodies.

Harry Corbett, who will act as referee, said tonight that the public need be assured of one thing, so far as he was concerned, and that was that the men would fight from the moment they went into the ring until one or the other was declared the victor. "There is to be no hugging in clinches," was the way he expressed himself. The people who patronize fights have grown tired of these disgusting exhibits of hanging on, and I think it's about time an end was put to it. Of course, a referee can't prevent fighters from coming together in a clinch, but I want it understood from the beginning that when I give the word I want Jeffries and Ruhlin to break. The man who hangs on after that will be watched, and if he tries to save his strength in this manner, with a full understanding of the warning he receives before the gong sounds, let him and his backers abide by the decision."

Jeffries was asked today for an estimate of the length of the fight.

"Well," he said, "I know this much, and that is Ruhlin has not been standing still since I met him last. He has improved very much. I have an idea that he will bore in from the jump. Maybe I'll stop him in the first round, maybe in the second, but really I do not think it will last longer than fifteen."

The same question was put to Ruhlin.

"I feel strong," he answered, "as well as I ever did in my life. I feel as though I can fight, and fight hard. If it's the best man that wins, and no one can tell now but what Jeffries is the best? Of course I don't think so, but I wouldn't want to say the fight would go five rounds or ten rounds, or that I could polish him off in one, though I may prove my ability to do so."

The San Francisco physicians examined Jeffries this morning, just after he finished his road work, and they pronounced him to be in superb condition. His heart action was strong and regular, which, taken with the health of his other organs, indicated to their minds the possession of the ability to go to the limit of human endurance.

Another physician said the same thing about Ruhlin. He found his pulse to be 46, which the medical man declared to be a marvel. The champion's pulse is regular at 50.

Billy Delaney, acting for Jeffries, has made arrangements with the San Francisco Athletic Club to bring about a meeting between him and Sailor Sharkey in this city December 20, in the event of the champion beating Ruhlin. Sharkey is expected to arrive Friday morning, and if the outcome of the big battle is favorable to the above proposition he will go into training immediately.

PULSES DON'T FIGURE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The pulses of Jeffries and Ruhlin cut no figure, as both men have very slow pulses, yet their hearts and other organs are normal, men could do eight and ten-mile runs as these two have both been doing for weeks every day with weak hearts. There has been a lot of "rot" printed here about Jeffries and Ruhlin having "bicycle hearts," but no boxing man takes any stock in it. The men are in the pink of condition, and it only remains to be seen which is the cleverer, or which one has trained to the best purpose. Eastern men here favor Ruhlin, because they have always disliked Jeffries, as they called Corbett, but the California experts believe that he will win the fight easily.

RUHLIN'S CAUTION.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—Ruhlin is making any plans for the future. "There will be time enough for that Friday night," he said. "I expect I will be kept busy when I get champion, but I am not going to worry about that now. I have got to put Jeffries out of the way before I have any definite plans for the future. I guess he has to brush me aside in his path before all will be a bed of roses for him.

"I propose to keep my training partners, and I understand Jeffries is maintaining his quarters. Friday night will determine who will need the more training."

PUPS AT PETALUMA.

SISQUOC MAKES BEST SHOW.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PETALUMA, Nov. 13.—There was a good crowd at the second day's session of the eleventh annual plains meetings here, and there were some exciting events.

The feature of the day was the fine performance of Denny Healey's pup Sisquoc. Though finally shut out from the stakes, Sisquoc showed himself the best dog on the field. In the second round Sisquoc and Joseph Shea's Slim Jim tried for honors, after the best of seconds. In the final, Sisquoc won by 21 to 17. The winner was the favorite, at 5 to 1. Though jaded, Sisquoc won his next course, but lost to Slim in the fourth.

The morning will be finished tomorrow. Tiburon, Aelos and For Glory are favorites, against A. J. Martin's Tom Hurlick and St. Ives.

Eckhardt, superintendent and matchmaker of the Stockton Athletic Association, was dangerously injured this afternoon by a fall in the handball court at the clubhouse. He was standing at the top of a long ladder, fixing an electric light, when in some manner the ladder turned and slipped, throwing him to the floor, a distance of about thirty feet.

Late tonight he had not regained consciousness. He is suffering from internal injury, concussion of the brain and spine, and the right side of his face is partially paralyzed.

CHINESE ARE HUMBUGGED.

Ingenious Dodge of Politicians.

Pigtails to Be Pulled to City's Market.

Board of Trade of Chinatown Gives the City Council Schemers Comfort.

Minister Wu, who represents the Chinese empire at Washington, has unwittingly played an important part in the fight over a public-market in this city.

The fuglers of the City Council have made use of his august name to crowd the new city market upon the Chinese fruit peddlers. Where bribery and threats and coercion failed, it seems that Wu's distant word is about to prevail.

A short time ago a circular letter was received in Los Angeles Chinatown from the illustrious Minister Wu. Its purport was a little good advice to the Chinamen about the exclusion act.

The letter reminded them that the Geary act was about to expire, and that it was yet an open question whether or not another act would be passed to exclude the Chinese. Mr. Wu suggested that any disturbance stirred up by the Chinese about this time might have a marked influence in favor of another exclusion act; so he begged of them to exhibit a shining front of virtue.

It is evident that the highbinders of the Pacific Coast were giving the respected Wu some worry lest they burst out with blood-letting and spoil the effect of all his scheming, for he requested the Chinamen here to render every assistance to the police and to help in prosecuting all Chinese offenders against the law of the white men.

CHINESE BOARD OF TRADE.

It has already been published in The Times that the City Council has its minions in Chinatown who have tried to threaten and bribe the fruit peddlers to go to the new market. It is probable that the arrival of this letter must have been reported to the Five Immortals.

Anyhow, it was suggested to the Chinese of influence that the best way to comply with Minister Wu's suggestions about behaving was not to give the authorities any more trouble about the public market. This quiet tip made a marked impression on Chinatown.

Last Monday night a meeting of the Chinese Board of Trade was held, and the matter was discussed. The Board of Trade came to the conclusion that it would be a very unwise thing to let the matter of the location of a public market influence and perhaps endanger the fate of the attempt to do away with the hated exclusion act. There were no formal resolutions passed, but it was tacitly understood that every Chinaman should do his best to influence the refractory peddlers, who stick like grim death to the Hewes market, to move to the city's market.

Whatever influence the merchants bring to bear will be indirect. They have no direct authority over the fruit men.

Some of the fruit men with a spirit one would never suspect in a meek and lowly Chink, vow that they will not be driven out. They are indignant because they think that the Council is using underhand means of forcing them away.

POLICE INTERFERENCE.

However true it may be, they claim that the Council has secretly instructed the policemen on duty at the market to abuse and mistreat them. White men employed about the market bear out the statements of the Chinese about the brutality and roughness of the patrolmen. As to whether the policemen are following the dictates of the ward bosses or their own inclinations, cannot be said.

The Chinamen claim that they have been warned by the policemen to go to the new market under penalty of having their licenses raised. Various other dire things are to happen to them unless they change, so they are told.

One of the Chinese merchants who formerly was strongly in favor of the Hewes market has within the last few days experienced an astonishing change of heart. He is now urging the fruit peddlers to go to the city's market.

Yesterday afternoon he was seen by Chinamen to be closeted a long time with one of these same policemen.

It is understood that they were discussing the philosophy of Confucius.

SEVERE EARTHQUAKE.

People Living in Southern Utah Badly Frightened by the Shock Which Lasted Fully Thirty Seconds.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SALT LAKE, Nov. 13.—Specials to the Herald from various points in Southern Utah, give meager accounts of a severe earthquake shock, which occurred shortly after 9:30 o'clock tonight. The shock, which lasted fully thirty seconds in some places, created general consternation among the inhabitants. The vibrations were northeast to southwest. Telegraphic communication to the district affected is very limited, and full details will not be known until tomorrow. So far as reported no loss of life and comparatively little damage to property resulted.

At Oasis, in Millard county, the people rushed into the streets expecting their homes to collapse, and at Beaver, in Beaver county, the shock damaged the County Courthouse and a number of other residences.

A slight shock was felt in this city at 9:37 p.m., but it was not severe enough to be generally noticeable.

ANTI-CHAMBERLAIN MEETINGS.

BERLIN, Nov. 13.—Many anti-Chamberlain meetings have occurred at the University of Breslau and the technical institutes of Hanover and Darmstadt. They were attended and addressed by many professors. At Plauen, Saxony, 2000 persons adopted vigorous anti-Chamberlain resolutions, which were sent to the King of Saxony, Count Von Buelow, the Imperial Chancellor, and the German Reichstag.

IMPECUNIOUS RELATIVE OF MAJ.-GEN. BULLER.

DEGENERATE BRITISHER LEVANTS FROM SAN DIEGO.

Creditors Consider Him Mighty Good Riddance—Lower California Scandals Being Investigated—Officers Camping on Tijera's Trail—Hesser Murder Trial.

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 13.—[From The Times' Resident Correspondent.] Charles F. Buller, first cousin of Sir Redvers Buller, the English general, and for six years a resident of this vicinity, left here very suddenly and mysteriously about two weeks ago and has not been heard from since. He leaves a host of creditors and his liabilities reach into the thousands.

Among his victims are the leading business houses of the city and many individuals loaned him various amounts to assist him in supporting his family. He has long been known as wholly incompetent in business affairs. His father left a large estate in England, but realiding his son's propensities for spending money, willed to him no portion. Instead, he placed a certain part of the estate in the hands of a corporate firm of attorneys with instructions that they dole out to Charles a monthly income enough to comfortably support himself and family. Over this they were to have entire control, increasing or reducing or cutting off entirely as they saw fit.

Since that time Buller has received in the neighborhood of $150 per month, with additional sums at intervals. His habits, formed in youth, were very extravagant and he has found it difficult to make ends meet. He has worked practically every business firm in this city. His wife had two children by a former husband, and their union was blessed with four. She is the daughter of Sir Colin Campbell, Governor-General of India at the time of the famous siege of Lucknow.

Mrs. Buller, too, is improvident. In September of last year they were living at El Cajon. Their credit was exhausted and they were in actual want. When the allowance arrived it lasted but a few days, and they were destitute during the remainder of the month. Attorney H. S. Utley appealed to the court in their behalf and was appointed guardian of Buller, who was declared incompetent. This relation continued until June 20 of this year, when, through some misunderstanding, Utley threw up the job. Since that time H. L. Rickey has acted unofficially in that capacity. They managed to pay off a portion of the debts. A few days ago Rickey heard, incidentally, of their departure.

Among the victims of Buller's borrowing habit was Mrs. Amos Purdun, who died at Coronado a year ago. When her financial affairs were summed up it was found that she had loaned him in small amounts over $1000. He had worked the sympathy racket on her. Another was Mrs. Mary Drummond, an English housekeeper, who acted as their servant for about a year. She never received compensation, and in order to alleviate their financial difficulties pawned jewelry, which was never redeemed.

Buller's creditors say that, notwithstanding the large amounts due them, they are not sorry that he has left the city.

BAJA CALIFORNIA SCANDALS.

For some time there have been complaints concerning the government of Lower California, emanating from Ensenada and reaching as far, it is said, as the City of Mexico. From the most authenticated rumors, it will result in the transfer of Gov. Sangines to some other post in the Federal service, presumably La Paz. Complaint has been made that the government has been in many respects oppressive and annoying. There have arisen two camps of partisans—those who are the advocates of the Governor's policy, who are largely the recipients of his patronage, and those who are asking his removal, and who claim to be the victims of his mal-administration.

The latter claim that among other things the Mexican law has been violated in that individuals have been committed to jail for real or fancied crimes, without trial, and often not knowing of what they are accused. It is also claimed that the mails have been tampered with. Communications to that effect have reached the head government at the City of Mexico, and an inspector of the Postoffice Department has been ordered to Ensenada.

These charges have been much resented by the upholders of the government, and through the official sheet, the Echo of the Frontier, many personal and vulgar charges have been made.

Another charge against the Governor is that his son has been allowed to carry things high as a libertine. Several of his victims reside in this city, and his actions have ruined several families.

Investigation is proceeding all along the line.

TIJERA'S HIDDEN TRAIL.

A new description and a fresh photograph of Teodoro Tijera, the Mexican official who absconded from Ensenada with $15,000, were turned over to the police office this morning. The Lower California officers are in the city on his trail. It has developed that he was here three or four days ago, having shaved off his moustache in the hope of changing his appearance beyond recognition. Some of the Mexican residents of this city recognized him and notified the officers. When they arrived, Tijera had skipped to parts unknown, leaving no trail. The local police have been requested to assist, and the proper extradition papers have been secured.

THE HESSER TRIAL.

The jury in the Hesser trial was secured this morning, and the testimony of the prosecution begun.

Officer Chandler, prosecuting witness, was first called. He stated that he heard a shot on the evening of August 24, about 7 o'clock. He found on inquiry that it was fired in the Telephone saloon. When he went in he took in the situation at a glance. The victim, Reis Pollerano (or Reyis Poyorena, according to the records,) was lying on the floor breathing his last. Two men, Burns and Cooley, were wrestling with the defendant and trying to force a pistol out of his hand. He assisted them, and they succeeded in getting the gun. Defendant was landed in jail. Witness produced the pistol, but could not identify it positively, as it has not been in his possession continuously.

Ben Packard was next introduced. He met the deceased and Marcos Yberra at Fritz's saloon on the evening in question. They proposed a drink and he accepted. They left the saloon. He met them a little later on the corner of Fifth and F streets. One of the party again proposed a drink, and they went into the Telephone saloon. They had one drink around, and witness stepped toward the door with the intention of going out when the shot was fired.

Yberra was introduced, and corroborated this testimony.

It is now evident from the cross-questioning by the counsel for the defense that temporary insanity will be the plea.

ALLEGED HORSETHIEF.

A warrant was sworn out this morning by Liverymn H. H. Mason, for the arrest of Marshall Brooks on the charge of stealing a fine horse and saddle. According to the allegations, Brooks went to the stable yesterday about 1 o'clock, and represented that he wanted a horse to go to Chollas Valley to recover an estray animal of his own. Mason let him have his best saddle horse. He has not yet returned. Chollas Valley is in the eastern suburbs of the city. Brooks was seen early yesterday afternoon riding up Fifth street in an opposite direction.

COPPER ON THE CARPET.

The Board of Police Commissioners began the investigation of the charges against Officer Blackledge this evening. The prosecution finished its case and the defense was almost completed. Blackledge is charged with drunkenness, profanity and conduct unbecoming to an officer. All the allegations are denied. The case hinges on whether or not he was drunk.

SAN DIEGO BREVITIES.

She was a prominent worker in the Methodist Church, and her loss will be much felt by those who knew her. The funeral will be held tomorrow from the Central Methodist Church, at 1:30 p.m.

The Association of Passenger Agents arrived here this afternoon from Los Angeles, and were tendered a ball at the Coronado Hotel this evening. It was a brilliant function. Tomorrow they will be tendered a reception at Tia Juana, and will leave for the North tomorrow evening.

The St. Denis sailed this evening for Ensenada.

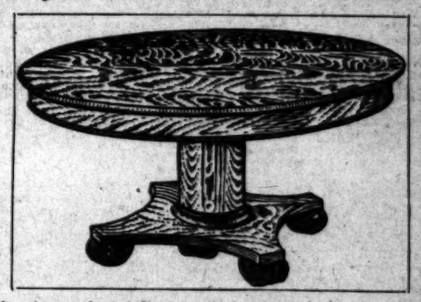
Art in Dining Tables.

Rich, massive center-pedestaled tables are taking the places of the old-fashioned sorts in every well-furnished home. These tables are artistic in every line. They entirely change the appearance of a dining room, and, when the other pieces correspond to them, the whole effect is refreshing—so different from the ordinary, time-honored schemes of furnishing.



Self-Locking Pedestals

There is an objection to the pedestal tables sold by other stores that is entirely overcome in these we handle. We have the sole agency for Los Angeles for the patent fastening that holds the two parts firmly together. It locks the pedestal firmly and automatically together and is released by a touch of the lever up under the table. No crack can possibly show, there is no springing apart or sagging.

Pieces to Match.

We have every dining room piece to match the tables. Chairs, side tables, sideboards, china closets. Every one modern and up to the standard of the tables. Many modern pieces are revivals of ancient styles. All these come in all the fashionable woods.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE—OFFICIAL DOING

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The City Clerk yesterday received from the bond editor of a New York paper the details of Waldron's latest outburst against the water bonds in New York.

Street Superintendent McGuire has decided to ask an official investigation of the street department as a result of the published charges of his brother-in-law, M. E. Hallisey, a discharged foreman.

Secretary Mason of the League of California Municipalities visited the city yesterday to prepare for the next annual convention, which will convene here January 8.

Considerable fun was occasioned at the Courthouse yesterday by the vain attempt of a notary public to perform a marriage ceremony. The notary was thwarted by the County Recorder, much to the discomfiture of the blissful couple.

B. Duncan, of the "evil eye," was awarded a signal defeat yesterday in the Probate Court, in his unnatural attempt to keep his daughter, Mrs. Katherine D. Lewis, from coming into property bequeathed her by her late mother, Mary T. Duncan.

Human driftwood in amazing quantities was floated into the criminal court yesterday.

AT THE CITY HALL.

WALDRON ISSUES STILL ANOTHER CIRCULAR.

IS EAGER TO INVADE PILLBOARD BILLSHIRE'S NEW FIELD.

Warns the New York Bankers Against Purchasing the Issue of Water Bonds. Dillon & Hubbard Make a Statement Supporting the Bonds.

Waldron, the malicious meddler, has broken out again in a new place. In accordance with the law that makes it imperative for all light bodies to come to the surface, he has again appeared.

This time the water-bond dummy has deluged New York with circulars addressed to bankers stating that he has applied for a writ in quo warranto, and that the bonds are involved in legal entanglements that may last for years. Certainly this is a surprising interest for a taxpayer to take in a technicality contained in a charter. It would make interesting reading if it was known who is furnishing the money for this campaign against the credit of the city.

Yesterday the City Clerk received a letter from Gustav Simon, bond editor of the Financier, a New York commercial paper in which the water bonds were advertised. Mr. Simon states that the circulars signed by Waldron have been distributed to all the prominent banking and bond-buying houses in Gotham and doubtless in other cities.

At the request of his paper, Mr. Simon secured from Dillon & Hubbard, the bond experts of the East, a statement in which the firm totally discredits Waldron's suit. The statement was published in the Financier on Monday, and a copy of it was mailed to the City Clerk and to The Times.

In the opinion gratuitously given for publication by Dillon & Hubbard, the action brought by Waldron in the Superior Court is reviewed. After quoting the opinion of the presiding judge denying the request for an injunction, the firm says:

"It may be that Waldron is going to apply to the Attorney-General for a suit in quo warranto. We still adhere to our opinion that there is nothing in the objections of Waldron in whatever action they may be brought. The city charter which Waldron seeks to impugn and overthrow was adopted in 1888, and it is altogether unlikely that the Attorney-General will grant an action or that the courts would sustain it."

The $2,000,000 issue of water bonds is now on the market, and bids will be received until 11 o'clock next Monday morning. While the Council is powerless to change the rate of interest which was deemed objectionable by some of the bankers, every other provision has been made to favor the bond buyer. The amount of the deposit has been lowered, and the Council is very hopeful that good bids will be received.

It will be remembered that the Adams-Phillips Company is in the field, and that other local financial institutions have become interested in the bonds, and may bid for blocks of the securities.

City Attorney Mathews is hopeful to secure a denial of Waldron's application for permission to institute a suit in quo warranto before next Monday.

WILL ASK INQUIRY.

M'GUIRE SEEKS INVESTIGATION.

To settle the current rumors relative to bribery and corruption in the street department, Street Superintendent McGuire will ask an official investigation at the hands of the Council. McGuire says he has no doubt of his vindication. Strong pressure was brought to bear to prevent the superintendent from demanding an inquiry, but the publication of the ugly charges of a discharged brother-in-law left no other course open to him.

For some weeks it has been rumored that all is not right in the street department. Several times investigation of specific charges has been made, but each time the charge was met with an emphatic denial from a source just as reputable as that from whence the complaint originated. It has been declared that the payroll is padded and that men are compelled to pay for positions in the department. It has never been asserted, however, that Superintendent McGuire got the money, but that it went to a man politically close to him.

When M. E. Hallisey, outside foreman and a brother-in-law of Superintendent McGuire, was discharged from the department last week, ostensibly because he refused to attend to his duty and was quarrelsome and imperious among the men, matters came to a climax. Hallisey made wild statements in one breath and denied them in the next, according to reports, and his charges were all met in minute detail by the Street Superintendent.

An evening paper printed an interview with the discharged employé yesterday, and as a result Superintendent McGuire stated that he will demand an official investigation at the hands of the Council. The request will be presented to the Council next Monday, and at that time a date for the investigation probably will be set.

Charges and counter-charges in the matter are so interwoven with a family row that it is hard to determine the animus of the matter.

"If it becomes necessary to protect myself, I can tell a good many things," declared McGuire yesterday, and there is no one who doubts him.

As the street department was the chief patronage office captured by the Democrats last fall, strong pressure has been brought to bear on the superintendent to influence him in the appointment of deputies and laborers. About ten men have appeared for every position, and it is stated that men who helped McGuire win the fight for Street Superintendent have made an unconscious tool of him to further their own selfish ends.

Briefly summed up, Hallisey, the brother-in-law, alleges that the payroll is padded with names of men that never have worked in the department; that some of them state that they have to pay $20 a month to some one for their position; that excessive requisitions for sand have been approved by the Street Superintendent; that public property has been devoted to private ends; that men were paid time when out of the city, and that McGuire told him to go and lose a book that contained a list of city property.

To each of his assertions Street Superintendent McGuire makes a detailed denial and a plausible explanation of the circumstantial evidence introduced against him. Furthermore McGuire says that Hallisey was always in difficulty with the men and that those he mentions as included in crooked transactions are employés with whom he was not on good terms. Several times Hallisey tried to have men fired because he had taken a dislike to them and when the Superintendent refused to let him do as he liked, he became much incensed it is said.

Hallisey took it upon himself to order material from James Hellman's hardware store without consulting him. McGuire told him that the next time he did that he would have to pay for the material himself and issued an order, so he says, that no material should be purchased unless he saw and approved the order.

In many other ways it is asserted that Hallisey was not all that he might be as a foreman and consequently he was discharged. If the discharged foreman has the courage of his convictions and appears before the Council the truth may be gleaned from the conflicting statements.

CITY GOVERNMENT.

LEAGUE OF MUNICIPALITIES.

H. A. Mason, secretary of the League of California Municipalities, called at the City Hall yesterday morning to discuss with the heads of municipal departments the next annual convention of the league, which convenes in this city January 8, 1902, and continues for three days. Mr. Mason is also editor of the publication known as California Municipalities, which is furnished to all the cities in the league.

According to forecasts the coming annual convention will be one of the most important in the history of the organization. It is expected that about one hundred and fifty delegates from the seventy cities in the league will meet in conference upon the matters that are now being agitated in the several cities. Municipal ownership of public utilities is one of the most important subjects that will be considered by the league. To this question the attempt of this city to obtain control of the waterworks will add zest, as the arbitration will probably be settled one way or another by that time.

It has been found by Mr. Mason that 30 per cent. of the cities in California own or control their own water systems. In a majority of instances municipal ownership is said to give satisfaction, and the experience of the various municipalities in this regard will be considered at the annual convention.

Other matters, such as the best means of disposing of sewage, street lighting, sanitary regulations, systems of financial accounts, and the civil-service features of city government will be considered and the experience of the cities of the league condensed in the form of information that will be valuable as guides to officials.

According to Secretary Mason, the purpose of the league is to establish a clearinghouse of information concerning municipal government. The experience of one city in the league with regard to matters of administration or regulation are furnished to another city upon request. In this way one city is supposed to benefit by the experience of another and to be better able to formulate a perfect system of government.

Nearly all the cities and towns in Los Angeles county belong to the league, with the exception of Pomona, and Secretary Mason will visit that city with a view to securing affiliation before the convention. The annual membership fee exacted by the league is from $10 to $60, according to population.

Mr. Mason will remain in the city three days before returning to San Francisco.

Application for Spur Track.

John G. McKenney, manager of the Ice and Cold Storage Company, has made application to the Council for a franchise for a spur track across the intersection of Second and Alameda streets. The spur is wanted to connect the plant of the company with the main track of the Southern Pacific Company on Alameda street.

Tax Collection.

Tax collections to date amount to $220,000. Yesterday about $13,000 was collected. The first installment will be delinquent November 25. Despite the collections, the deficit in the cash fund is steadily increasing.

POLICE COURT.

J. Sternberg, the driver of a milk wagon, in whose cans was found milk adulterated 25 per cent., and whose cream jugs were in a depraved condition, was fined $100 for the milk charge and $10 for the cream, in Justice Austin's court yesterday. He paid the fines.

John West, who stole some clothes from a Chinese laundryman, was sentenced to four months' imprisonment in the Police Court yesterday.

J. L. Scherer, who was charged with running down Officer Cicotte, was tried for battery in the Police Court yesterday and acquitted.

NOTARY TRIES TO MARRY A COUPLE.

BUT HIS ACT IS NOT RECOGNIZED BY THE RECORDER.

Bridal Pair Finally Call on Justice James With Another License and are Securely Wedded—Twice Through the Mill in One Day.

Twice through the marriage ceremony in one day, and each time in dead earnest, was the experience of William N. Flaherty and his bride, Sarah F. Lansdown, yesterday. The first time a notary thought he was marrying them—but he wasn't—and the next time Justice James did the job securely.

It may have been a joke, but Flaherty does not think so.

Some time during the forenoon, happy and expectant, the couple—he is 22, and she is one year younger—called upon "Cupid" Kutz for a marriage license. They got it, and off they went for the final touches. Now it transpires that the law, quoted in large letters on every license, specifically relates what officials may tie the marital knot, and they are none others than a justice of the Supreme Court, a judge of the Superior Court, a justice of the peace, a priest, or any minister of the gospel. A notary public is not down on the favored list.

At any rate, Flaherty and bride found themselves in the office of J. M. Wilde, a notary, on West Fourth street, who lost no time in pronouncing them man and wife and getting a fee. In filling out the necessary certificate attached to the license, the notary introduced several innovations, and even went so far as to have the high-contracting parties "witnesses to their own marriage and present at the ceremony," in addition to one Ella M. Hyland, a really-and-truly witness. Then Wilde put on his big golden notarial seal, and sent the married (?) couple rejoicing to the County Recorder's office.

The Recorder refused to record the license, and told them they were not married at all. Then there were some long, sad faces, but Flaherty (and Mrs. Flaherty of notary brand) hied away to Wilde for an explanation. Then Wilde consulted with an attorney and was given a boisterous horse-laugh, with some pointed advice to return the fee. When this little diversion was past, the couple returned to "Cupid," procured a copy of the misused license, and were finally married by Justice James.

The Flahertys consider themselves lucky in finding out just when they did that they were not married.

LES MISERABLES.

FLOTSAM AND JETSAM.

Driftwood such as is seldom washed into the criminal department of the Superior Court came before Judge Smith yesterday. Mexicans, Chinamen, vagrants and idiots were arraigned one after another, until the judicial stomach itself must have been on the point of turning.

"Flotsam and jetsam?" remarked Judge Smith, after the flood of misery had swept out of sight; "well, sir, I should say so! Do you know, I seldom have had to do with such a mixed gang."

The first thing done was to frustrate two habeas-corpus proceedings in behalf of San Gabriel white men, instituted by "Hocus Pocus" Ladd. One was a vagrant; the other was Louis L. Price, who is mixed up in a shooting scrape, as a result of which a man now lies at the point of death in the County Hospital. A new complaint was issued by Dist.-Atty. Rives yesterday to enable Justice James to take ante-mortem testimony.

The second miserable man to float before the judge was Wong Bing, a fat, piggy-looking Mongolian, who killed Chow Youck on October 7, in Chinatown out of vengeance for his brother's death in North Ontario early in the year. Bing's trial was set for January 2.

The next chunk of driftwood was Timothy Langan. He is charged with doing things on October 19 to Mucio Cruz with a deadly weapon.

Then Edward Perry was shoved into the judicial stream, it was evident that he had been up against something big. His alleged offense was grand larceny, and he was charged with taking $2.55 from old Thiebaud Bauer on October 26. Bauer, erstwhile known as "the King of Little Paree," was once the champion wrestler of the world. He is an incompetent now and his guardian is Chris Buckley, the "blind devil" of San Francisco, who doles out to his besotted ward the sum of $5 every day for squandering. Remey, who has the appearance of about 30 cents, is accused of getting $2.55 of the allowance on an ill-fated day in October.

Savino Bustillos, accused of assault to murder, was the next log in the stream. But he wasn't ready to plead and must float in again.

Alfredo Gallardo, whom morphine has cruelly wrecked, is said by his own sister to be an idiot. Once a mule kicked him in the head, and he hasn't been right since. He is accused of having sticky fingers. Two quarts of milk, two milk cans, a rip saw and other trifles have clung to him, until he stands in the shadow of the penitentiary because of petty larceny after a prior conviction of petty larceny. The Police Court convicted him of petty larceny on June 1. On November 2 he was arrested again. Gallardo is a brother-in-law of Judge Montaño of Manila. It is probable that the young man will be sent to Highland. He is constantly making the grimaces of a King's fool.

And last of all, Judge Smith spent the day trying H. K. Williams, a colored man, for slashing with a penknife another coon in the Republican Club on East Second street on September 28.

MRS. LEWIS WINS.

"THE EVIL EYE" THWARTED.

B. Duncan, the old ghost of the past, whose sole object in his pitiful dotage is to nurse his "evil eye," played one of his last cards yesterday in his unfatherly fight against his daughter, Mrs. Katherine D. Lewis, wife of Col. T. A. Lewis, to deprive her of property given her by her mother.

When Mrs. Duncan died on December 29, 1900, she left a will, dated in 1893, bequeathing all her property, real and personal, to her daughter, Mrs. Lewis. The personal property, including a large amount of jewelry, household ornaments, dishes, silver, etc., given to her from time to time by her mother during nearly twenty-five years, the unnatural father tried to recover from his child in a case decided by Judge York, but failed, and, when she endeavored to probate her mother's will, he contested the matter and proposed a will executed by Mrs. Duncan in Kentucky, in 1858, wherein he of "the evil eye" was sole legatee of all her property.

Acting on the ridiculous theory that at the time of her death she had kept her residence in Kentucky, although she had lived in Los Angeles for seven or eight years, blatant B. had both wills probated in Kentucky, and thereby tried to close his daughter from any claim under the California law.

But he failed miserably. It was contended yesterday by Messrs. Fitzgerald and Anderson of counsel for Mrs. Lewis, that the alleged will of 1858 did not constitute a valid disposition of any property whatever. It was further contended by them that neither of these wills (a will and an alleged codicil) disposed of any property within this State, particularly that neither of them affected in any way the property bequeathed by her mother to Mrs. Lewis by will of 1893. Finally, they contended that Mrs. Duncan, at the time of her death, was a resident of this State; and that, therefore, the instruments offered by B. Duncan for probate should have been offered originally in the probate court of this county, instead of his having first offered them for probate, as a matter of the Kentucky court, and then introduced them here, by certified copies of foreign wills probated in Kentucky.

Judge Shaw held that the will of Mrs. Lewis's favor was entitled to probate, and that the documents offered by B. Duncan were void, being his opinion that Mrs. Duncan was undoubtedly a resident of California at the time of her death, as she resided here for many years previous thereto, and that the Duncan instruments affected only the Kentucky property, and not the property within this State.

In all this shameful history of Duncan has been the aggressor, using every means in his power to thwart the natural desire of his wife to will a portion of her individual property to their only daughter, and to this end he even went so far as to pawn his, dresses and jewelry given his mother to her daughter as presents and gifts, and continuously in the possession for more than six years.

The property bequeathed to Mrs. Lewis includes a residence property on South Figueroa, where the daughter has lived part of the time with her husband and his wife's death.

"I suppose I'll have to appeal now," said B. yesterday, and Mrs. Lewis was made executrix of the will probated will.

"I have nothing to do with it," said Judge Sha

SPEAKING TO SUPERVISORS.

Leading Citizens Have Strong Views.

Courthouse Site for White Statue.

Nobody Can See Rhyme or Reason in the Supervisors' Reluctance.

Times reporters asked some of the prominent men of Los Angeles yesterday for expressions of opinion as to the obduracy of the Supervisors in acting upon the request for a site on the Courthouse grounds for the Stephen M. White memorial. There was no lack of responses, which are quoted herewith.

Hon. Erskine M. Ross: I think it astonishing that the Supervisors should hesitate to grant the permission sought by the committee. I can conceive of no good reason for this opposition. It seems a most appropriate place for such a monument. I think it criminal to grant this request would need very seriously on this county. Senator White was not only a lawyer of very great distinction, but a statesman of national reputation. I think that all who honor him will honor themselves.

L. A. Meserve, Esq.: I can't understand why there should be any hesitation in such a matter. I believe that every public-spirited man, regardless of politics, will uphold the Board of Supervisors in awarding the right to place the White statue in the Courthouse grounds. If this establishes a precedent, well and good. If California ever produces a second Stephen M. White, then let his statue go in the Courthouse grounds, too. The State has never produced but one, so far, and the present generation at least is not likely to produce another.

Albert M. Stephens, Esq.: I think Senator White's services to this county were so signal and remarkable as to entitle him to a high position in the respect of the people. I think that per cent. of the people would be delighted to see his statue in the most prominent place in the city, and the most appropriate place is that adopted by the committee, in front of the Courthouse. I hope to see the statue there, and I can't understand the sentiments of a man who would object to placing the statue of this great lawyer in the Courthouse grounds. I regard him as one of the most remarkable men I have ever known, and the greatest lawyer I have ever come in personal contact with.

G. J. Griffith: Don't see why there could be any objection to placing this statue in the Courthouse grounds. It is new to me that there could be any opposition. I am in favor of putting this statue up and of placing statues of distinguished men throughout the city.

L. C. Cate, Esq.: The eminence of Senator White as a lawyer entitles his statue to a place in the Courthouse grounds. The Courthouse is an especially appropriate place because it was as a lawyer even more than a statesman and lawmaker that he made his fame. Hon. W. F. Fitzgerald: I find it extremely difficult to employ language sufficiently strong to express my feelings of surprise and disgust that there should be any opposition from any officer of this county or State to the location of this memorial to our late distinguished fellow-citizen, Stephen M. White, in the Courthouse grounds or on any other place that could be designated by the committee.

Shirley Clark: When I heard that they were talking of placing the Senator White statue in the grounds of the Courthouse, I thought it was a capital idea. It is just the place for it. I don't see any possible objection to placing it there.

Marcus Cohn: I am unable to believe that the Supervisors will refuse to grant this request. It seems to me a fitting place for his statue right there in the grounds of the Courthouse. Where he used to pass and repass day after day going from his office into court, where so many of his triumphs were won. Los Angeles cannot give his memory too much honor, and if a more appropriate spot could possibly be found for his statue, then I should be opposed to placing it there. That would be the only reason.

Hon. H. F. Vaciel, Esq.: There should be no one moment's hesitation on the part of the Board of Supervisors in granting that monument where the committee has requested, namely, within the corridor of the Courthouse, symbolizing the field on which Mr. White won his great fame. I cannot understand why there should be any occasion for hesitation or for delay. And for the life of me I cannot conceive of any good moral, social, ethical, political or other reason in opposition to it. Hon. Stephen M. White was one of the best, ablest, the most public-spirited and the most unselfish men in public affairs that California has ever produced, and in honoring his name and memory forthwith passing a resolution consenting that the monument may be so placed, the Board of Supervisors will not only do honor and credit unto themselves, but to the people of Los Angeles county, whom they represent.

Hon. J. A. Anderson: I think this would be an outrage. That is the place where the statue ought to go. I am astonished that any one could be found to oppose it for one moment. I am surprised that there could be man, woman or child in all this county to oppose it.

Hon. Will A. Harris: Inasmuch as the committee has already decided to accept that site, the permission of the Board of Supervisors ought not to be withheld. It occurs to me that the reason for the hesitation of the board are incompetent. Senator White was the most distinguished man that California ever turned out. His memory should be honored.

Hon. Robert T. Gay: When the Supervisors are satisfied that the wishes of the people demand the granting of this application, I am sure they will no longer hesitate. I think there is now no longer need for hesitation. The board should not let a little petition of thirty-three names deter them any longer.

NATIONAL SONGS.

Unique Programme Given Last Night at Meeting of Men's League of Christ Episcopal Church.

One of the most unique programmes ever heard in Los Angeles was last night dished up at the meeting of the Men's League of Christ Episcopal Church.

It was original to a turn.

"Origin and History of National Songs," was the title given the exercises by Dr. George Thomas Dowling, the rector.

In fascinating story, the doctor told of the birth and history of the songs, including "Yankee Doodle," "Wacht am Rhine," "America," "Star Spangled Banner," "Marseillaise," "God Save the King," "Columbia" and "Home, Sweet Home."

As each sketch was concluded, the glee club sang the song to which it referred, and the whole audience of men joined in the chorus.

The league, besides enjoying this programme, elected its first board of officers, as follows: President, Dr. George Thomas Dowling; vice-president, W. S. Creighton; treasurer, Moye Stephens; secretary, F. E. Lowry.

WHITE MONUMENT OUGHT TO GO ON COURTHOUSE GROUNDS.

County Fathers to Be Convinced in Unmistakable Terms That Their Constituents are Tired of Dilatory Tactics. Memorials Being Numerously Signed.

Indignant at the contumacious attitude of the Board of Supervisors regarding the location of the Stephen M. White memorial monument upon the Courthouse grounds, the Executive Committee in charge of the fund has taken steps to convince the board that such dilatory and puerile tactics are not in favor with their constituents.

At a meeting in the Mayor's office at the City Hall yesterday afternoon, the committee, on motion of Gen. H. G. Otis, instructed Secretary Joseph Scott, at his discretion, to send copies of a prepared memorial to contributors to the fund, living in the city and county. It is desired to secure the return of these petitions, with attached signatures, by next Monday, so that they may be arranged and classified by the committee preparatory to presentation to the board at its meeting on Tuesday.

Mayor Snyder presided at yesterday's session. Other members of the committee present were: John F. Francis, Gen. H. G. Otis, A. B. Cass, I. B. Dockweiler, Joseph Scott, M. H. Newmark, R. F. Del Valle and James C. Kays.

Secretary Scott explained the purpose of the meeting by referring to an informal session, previously held, at which the secretary and Gen. Otis were appointed a committee of two to prepare and circulate petitions for the purpose of obtaining an expression of public sentiment on the matter. The action of the informal meeting was ratified, and the form of petition, already published in these columns, approved.

It was at first proposed that copies of the petition should be sent to all parts of the State, but Secretary Scott pointed out that there would not be time to secure the return of the petitions before the next meeting of the Supervisors, adding:

"It seems to me that this affair is sufficiently humiliating to citizens if the knowledge of it is kept as far as possible within our own borders. Certainly the spirit shown by the Board of Supervisors will not redound with credit to this section."

Treasurer Francis presented for the inspection of the committee a copy of the petition signed by some of the most influential men of the city.

"This petition," declared Mr. Francis, "represents over $20,000,000 of property in this county. Many of the signers are men in politics, and all of them are representative business men."

Mr. Francis also stated that he has secured the official indorsement of the petition from one prominent association of business men, and that other similar indorsements will be forthcoming. He was appointed a committee, together with Mr. Newmark, to bring the matter to the attention of the Chamber of Commerce, Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, Wholesale Jobbers' Association and other civic bodies.

On motion of Gen. Otis the committee decided to prepare an explicit written statement of what is desired for presentation to the Board of Supervisors. This statement will recite that no cost will be incurred by the county if the memorial monument is placed on the Courthouse grounds; that no avoidable interruption of business will be caused by the construction of the statue; that all necessary changes in the walls of the grounds, after being sanctioned by the board, will be made at the expense of the fund; that the débris will be promptly removed, and that the statue and grounds will be left in perfect condition.

A general discussion of the action of the Board of Supervisors followed. Mr. Cass was inclined to think that the members of the board have made up their minds, and that nothing less than a locomotive at full speed would dislodge them from the position taken.

"I do not believe such to be the case," said Gen. Otis. "All the board has asked is an expression of public opinion. No motion has been adopted and no good reason has been given for denying the petition of the memorialists. On next Tuesday we will furnish the board with an expression of public opinion that they cannot oppose on any ground of the demands of the public service."

It was the wish of the committee for it to be understood that the question of a location has not yet been reopened. A majority of the donors have expressed their preference for the Courthouse grounds, and it is the purpose of the committee to try to convince the Supervisors that the general public are desirous that the memorial monument shall be located there.

LETTERS AND MEMORIALS.

Letters have been received by the committee in favor of locating the memorial in any of five or six different parks. San Pedro has been suggested, as have been many other locations. If the question of site should be reopened, interminable delay will result, and the controversy will become still more unseemly.

By the memorialists it is deemed eminently fitting that the statue of Stephen M. White should be placed upon the grounds of the county he served so well. As District Attorney he began his public career in Southern California, and in that office he won deserved laurels. He served in the California State Senate, and later he reached the proud position of United States Senator; but he was first and always a lawyer. In recognition of his calling and broad-minded public service, it is deemed that no more suitable place could be selected for the memorial monument than the Courthouse grounds. The Bar Association and several judges from the Superior and United States courts, it is understood, will communicate to the Board of Supervisors their earnest desire that the statue be located on the Courthouse grounds.

BY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Yesterday afternoon the directors of the Chamber of Commerce unanimously adopted the following resolution:

"Whereas, It is the expressed wish of the great majority of the subscribers to the Stephen M. White memorial fund, that the monument should be placed in front of the Courthouse; and, whereas, such a structure as is contemplated would be an adornment to the property of the county and would be an appropriate recognition of the services rendered by Stephen M. White to the people of this region; therefore, be it

"Resolved, by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce, that we urge the Board of Supervisors of the county to grant the petition of the Memorial Committee that the necessary space be given for that purpose."

LETTER FROM MRS. WHITE.

The following letter has been received from the widow of the late Senator White:

Gen. H. G. Otis, Member Executive Committee, Stephen M. White Memorial Fund—Dear Gen. Otis: In view of recent events, and particularly in view of your own splendid and sterling efforts to do honor to the memory of my late husband, I wish to thank you, and through you the Executive Committee, for the great and successful work you have accomplished in this regard. At the same time I desire to approve the committee's selection of the Courthouse grounds as an entirely proper and appropriate site. I have never expressed myself in favor of any other site, as reported in some quarters to my surprise. I do not undertake to condemn those who are in favor of the Sixth-street Park as a site, but my own decided preference is for the Courthouse grounds, as preferred in the first instance by the subscribers themselves, and subsequently confirmed by your committee. To place the statue anywhere else now would be, I feel, a reflection upon Mr. White's memory, and I deeply regret that there has been any controversy over the subject. I write on behalf of myself and my children, and beg you and the members of the committee to accept my profound thanks for your generous efforts to do honor to my husband and your friend. With sincere esteem and gratitude, I am,

Very respectfully yours,
HORTENSE S. WHITE.
Los Angeles, November 13.

FROM BUSINESS CENTER ASSOCIATION.

LOS ANGELES (Cal.) Nov. 12, 1901.—Business Center Association of Los Angeles: F. W. Braun, president; Hon. Fred Eaton, D. K. Edwards, I. W. Hellman, Kaspare Cohn, J. C. Drake, Judge Albert M. Stephens and A. C. Harper, directors. To the honorable, the Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles county—Gentlemen: At a regular meeting of the Executive Committee of the Business Center Association of Los Angeles, an organization containing a large part of the frontage in the business district north of Third street, held November 12, the following resolution was passed by unanimous vote:

Resolved, that we strongly advocate the location for the White monument selected by the Monument Committee on the grounds of the Courthouse, and we petition the Board of Supervisors of this county to so locate the structure.

C. D. WILLARD, Secretary.

FROM NATIVE SONS.

The hundreds of members of the Native Sons of the Golden West, desirous of doing honor to one of the most illustrious members of that order, will, as an order, endeavor to induce the Board of Supervisors to act favorably upon the petition now before it, with reference to the Stephen M. White monument. The following letter will be sent to the board today by Corona Parlor:

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles County—Gentlemen: Corona Parlor, No. 194, Native Sons of the Golden West, respectfully petitions your honorable body to grant the request of the Stephen M. White Memorial Fund Committee for permission to erect a monument in the grounds of the County Courthouse.

In our opinion, not only would the costly memorial that is to be erected be a greater ornament to the building and grounds than anything that is now there, or that might be placed there hereafter, but no other site in the city of Los Angeles would be so appropriate for the location of this monument; for the Los Angeles County Courthouse saw the beginning, the rise, the fullness and the glory of the distinguished lawyer and statesman's career.

The Native Sons of the Golden West feel an especial interest in this matter, because Stephen H. White was not alone the most eminent and useful citizen that the State of California has produced in recent years, but he was also a native of this State, and was ever true to the interests of California in general, and this section in particular.

Respectfully submitted.
CORONA PARLOR,
No. 194, N.S.G.W.

BAD DREAMS

Caused by Coffee.

"I have been a coffee drinker, more or less, ever since I can remember, until a few months ago I became more and more nervous and irritable, and finally I could not sleep at night for I was horribly disturbed by dreams of all sorts and a species of distressing nightmare.

Finally, after hearing the experience of numbers of friends who had quit coffee and gone to drinking Postum Food Coffee, and learning of the great benefits they had derived, I concluded coffee must be the cause of my trouble, so I got some Postum Food Coffee and had it made strictly according to directions.

I was astonished at the flavor and taste. It entirely took the place of coffee, and to my very great satisfaction I began to sleep peacefully and sweetly. My nerves improved, and I wish I could warn every man, woman and child from the unwholesome drug, ordinary coffee.

People rarely do not appreciate or realize what a powerful drug it is and what terrible effect it has on the human system. If they did, hardly a pound of it would be sold. I would never think of going back to coffee again. I would almost as soon think of putting my hand in a fire after I had once been burned.

A young lady friend of ours had stomach trouble for a long time and could not get well as long as she used coffee. She finally quit coffee and began the use of Postum Food Coffee and is now perfectly well. Yours for health. Don't publish my name." ——— Herington, Kan. A Poor Way To Treat CATARRH

No one would be so foolish as to kindle the fire on top of a pot to make it boil, yet the treatment of Catarrh is often just as senseless and illogical. Douches, sprays, ointments, so-called tobacco cures, and various other applications, are diligently used, but the little good accomplished is swept away by the first breath of winter. When you attempt to cure a constitutional disease—one affecting the entire system—with purely local remedies, you are applying the fire to the top of the pot, you are doctoring symptoms, and, like thousands of others, get disappointing results. In Chronic Catarrh, the whole system becomes involved; the entire mucous membrane, or inner covering of the body, is in a state of high inflammation. The pressure of blood upon the glands and cells produce excessive secretion of mucus, much of which is absorbed into the blood and distributed to all parts of the body. In this way the stomach, kidneys and intestines are often seriously affected.

The nose, throat and ears are most frequently attacked by this foul disease, because the mucous lining is exposed to the cold, damp air, which attracts the vitiated blood to the surface, causing congestion of the little blood vessels and glands, making breathing difficult and labored; the throat becomes parched and dry; the hot, watery discharge from the nose gradually changes to a yellowish color and becoming more profuse and tenacious, drops back into the throat, causing gagging and almost constant coughing to dislodge it. This offensive discharge, in spite of all precautions, finds its way into the stomach, and extreme nausea and an obstinate form of dyspepsia follow.

St. Joseph, Mo., March 24, 1901.
I had a bad case of Catarrh; my nose was always stopped up and my head ached continually, and the odor of my breath was sickening. I had a most annoying cough, also. I tried a number of remedies and was treated by several doctors, but got no relief—my case was thought to be incurable. S. S. S. being recommended to me, I began its use, and after taking nine bottles was cured, and have never been troubled with Catarrh since. MISS MARY L. STONE, 601 Francis Street.

Blinding headaches, neuralgia of the eyes and dizziness are also symptoms of this disease, and when the inflammation reaches the delicate mechanism of the ear, hearing is lost, and, as the blood becomes more deeply poisoned, the tissues and soft bones in the head are eaten out, greatly disfiguring the face. At this stage of Catarrh the breath becomes insufferably offensive. S. S. S. is the simplest and most effective treatment for Catarrh, and when taken into the circulation reaches all parts of the system and cleanses the blood of all Catarrhal matter and restores it to a normal condition. When rich, new blood begins to flow through the veins, the obstructed glands and broken down cells resume their natural functions, and the hot and inflamed membranes are lubricated and moistened with a soothing, healing fluid that quickly brings relief to the congested parts. S. S. S. puts the blood in such perfect condition and so strengthens and invigorates the general health that the local manifestations of the disease gradually disappear, the discharge from the nose ceases, the head clears, breathing becomes easy and natural, the appetite improves, and a perfect and permanent cure is effected.

THE TIMES-MIRROR CO.

THE PEOPLE AND THE WHITE MEMORIAL.

By the way the letters, resolutions, memorials, petitions and public expressions of citizens are coming in, it is evident that The Times has understated the proportions of the current of sentiment so quickly aroused by the reluctance of the Supervisors to grant a location for the Stephen M. White Memorial statue on the Courthouse grounds. Vigorous protests against the hesitancy of the Supervisors are made by many influential citizens in interviews published elsewhere in this issue. Resolutions of a similar tenor have been adopted by the Chamber of Commerce and the Trade Center Association, and are also printed. The Times is glad to give to the public, too, a letter from Mrs. White favoring the Courthouse grounds as a site for the memorial to her honored and beloved husband. All through the city and the county petitions are being signed, asking the Supervisors to accede to the request of the donors of the statue. The movement partakes of the nature of a popular uprising—so great and general is the surprise that such a question should be raised, and so deep the indignation over the endeavor of a few fanatics to influence the Supervisors against what must be their own best judgment. The voice of the people will be heard at the Courthouse, and must needs be respected.

THE COMMISSIONERS FAVOR NICARAGUA.

From time to time it has been intimated, by schemers, political and otherwise, who are opposed to the Nicaragua Canal, that the report of the Isthmian Canal Commission would show a division of sentiment among the members of that body in regard to the relative desirability and practicability of the Nicaragua and Panama waterways. The final report of the commission, which is now practically completed, and an outline of which has been sent to The Times by our Washington correspondent, gives the lie to these predictions. In this case the wish of the prophets was doubtless father to the thought.

The report of the commission will say that the consideration of all information obtained with regard to the Nicaragua and Panama Canal routes establishes that the former is "the most practicable and feasible route for an isthmian canal, to be under the control, management and ownership of the United States." The estimated cost of the Nicaragua Canal is about $200,000,000, which is $58,000,000 more than it would cost to complete the Panama Canal, but that does not include the price that would have to be paid for acquiring the Panama Canal concession. The Panama Canal would be shorter than the Nicaragua Canal, and would have fewer locks and less curvature, enabling a saving of twenty-one hours for the passage of ships from the Atlantic to the Pacific oceans, but on the other hand this advantage would be offset by the fact that the Nicaragua route is nearer to the United States, so that there would be a net saving of time to a ship sailing by this route between New York and San Francisco.

It is said that while the commission will make no reference in its report to obstacles which may be thrown in the way of legislation in behalf of the Nicaragua route, its members understand that a combination has been formed to defeat the Nicaragua Canal Bill which will be the outcome of its report. This combination includes, in addition to the transcontinental railroad companies, the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, the Panama Canal Company, the Suez Canal Company and the Atlas Steamship Company, which controls the exclusive rights of transportation across Nicaragua, and which itself is owned by the Hamburg-American line.

Thus the friends of the Nicaragua Canal in Congress will find themselves confronted by an exceedingly powerful opposition. They will have against them French influence, German influence, English influence, and the influence of the great railroad systems of our own country. On the other hand, they will have with them the American people. And that counts.

A United States dollar in Bogota has a way of doubling up like real estate values in Los Angeles.

FUNDS FOR NATIONAL IRRIGATION.

Congressman Newlands is reported as saying that there is a good chance that the bill to reclaim the arid lands which he introduced at the last session of Congress will reach action at the coming session. It provides that the proceeds of the sales of all public lands, amounting to about $3,000,000 annually, shall go into a fund to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, in providing storage reservoirs for water in the arid States, to make the lands available for settlers. The entries under the act must be in eighty-acre tracts. The cost of each enterprise is apportioned among all the acres capable of reclamation by it. Settlers will pay for the lands in ten annual installments. This provides that the fund shall be kept good and be a revolving fund to be constantly increasing by new sales of land and installment payments.

The Herald, commenting upon the statement that the President "favors a big appropriation for irrigation purposes," claims that this "would be a vital mistake," and says that no appropriation is required from Congress, also that "any movement for one would evoke such a degree of opposition in the East that the whole project would be put in jeopardy." The Herald asserts that all the interested sections ask for is the expenditure of money received by the government from sales of public lands (as provided in the Newlands bill,) and adds: "With knowledge of the opposition developed in the East during the last session of Congress, it would be fatal to attempt to procure a direct appropriation for irrigation purposes."

In this case the premise and the assumption are both faulty. The Newlands bill is good so far as it goes, but it does not go far enough to accomplish any important practical results in the great work of national irrigation of the arid lands. As The Times has previously shown in commenting upon this plan, the amounts received by the government for the sale of lands in the arid States, among which States and Territories the money would undoubtedly be divided pro rata, are in many cases too small to effect any useful purpose. In fact, most of the money would be frittered away. From an official statement of the United States Land Office, it is shown that the net amounts received by the government, after deducting expenses, from the sale of public lands in six of the arid or semi-arid States and Territories, was as follows:

Arizona	$ 31,755
California	120,183
Kansas	7,568
[illegible]	7,381
New Mexico	38,160
Utah	67,505

Now what could be accomplished in Nevada in the way of irrigation of arid lands through the expenditure of $7381 annually, or in Arizona through the expenditure of $31,765? It would help to make surveys, but that is about all. What the National Irrigation Association, which has devoted much close and conscientious study to the question, recommends is as follows:

1. The annual appropriation for the hydrographic division of the United States Geological Survey should be increased from $100,000 to $250,000, for irrigation investigations and surveys and for sinking deep test wells.

2. An appropriation should be made in the Rivers and Harbors Bill of at least $1,000,000 to build two reservoirs in Colorado, one on the Arkansas River and one on the Platte, and also, as provided in the Senate amendment to the last Rivers and Harbors Bill, two reservoirs in Wyoming and one at Lake Kampeska in South Dakota.

3. An appropriation of at least $3,000,000 should be made to build the San Carlos reservoir and canal in Arizona, the St. Mary's Lakes Diversion Canal in Montana, and a reservoir in the Sierra Nevada Mountains in California, with canals to bring the water to public lands in Nevada.

4. An "arid-land reclamation fund" should be created by setting apart for that purpose the proceeds of the sales of public lands as a constitution fund to be in the treasury of the United States, to be expended by the Secretary of the Interior in the construction by the national government of storage reservoirs and main-line canals to bring water within reach of settlers on the arid public lands, all such lands to be reserved for actual settlers only under the homestead act, the cost of the works built by the government to be borne by the lands reclaimed and repaid in annual installments.

It will be noted that this includes the revenue from the sales of public lands, as provided in the Newlands bill, but it also includes the construction of several important irrigation improvements, which could not be undertaken within a generation, if we had to depend entirely upon the proceeds of sales of public lands in the various arid States and Territories.

The statement of the Herald that an attempt to procure a direct appropriation for irrigation purposes would be fatal to the movement shows that the Herald has entirely failed to keep informed in regard to the great change in public sentiment that has taken place throughout the country, and notably in the East, during the past couple of years, largely through the active propaganda that has been conducted by the National Irrigation Association. Indeed, it is a remarkable and significant fact that the sentiment in favor of this great and beneficent improvement is today more marked in the East and Middle West than it is in those sections which will be mainly benefited by national irrigation. The manufacturers and merchants of the Eastern States have begun to realize that the creation of homes for hundreds of thousands of American citizens, upon land that is now arid and unproductive, would open to them a vastly-increased market for their products—a market the need of which is now beginning to be badly felt.

Congress voted $50,000,000 in fifteen minutes to begin the Spanish War, because an irresistible public sentiment demanded it. Congress will certainly not hesitate to vote $5,000,000—or more if necessary—for the beginning of work on the reclamation of the arid lands owned by the United States government, because there is a great and rapidly-growing sentiment behind that movement, and because, further, it is right and just and expedient.

Dr. Alex McIvor-Tyndall, the mystic, will appear in his fascinating entertainment, "A Night of Mystery," in Blanchard Hall, Friday and Saturday evenings. Under this heading the famous psychic has staged some marvelous demonstrations of clairvoyance, hypnotism and thought transference. His manifestations of an invisible power are made in full light, on an open stage, and under the direct supervision of a committee of prominent citizens. He uses no apparatus, no assistance, and no cabinets, yet his demonstrations surpass anything accomplished by theosophical adepts or spiritualistic mediums. On the occasion of McIvor-Tyndall's last public appearance here, some six years ago, the theater was crowded nightly. By special request, McIvor-Tyndall will give demonstrations of the use and abuse of hypnotism, showing the dangers of this strange power, as well as the amusing and ridiculous features of its weird influence.

THE OIL INDUSTRY.

WAS LOSING ITS MONEY.

Yet Claimed to Pay Big Dividends.

Curious Tricks of Pike and Company.

Ridiculous Claims of the Boomers of the "Eastern Consolidated."

Without having a clear and undisputed title to a single foot of Southern California oil land, the Eastern Consolidated Oil Company nevertheless continues to set forth in flamboyant advertisements that it is now earning for its stockholders dividends at the rate of 2 per cent. a month. This and similar untruthful claims are made by the management of the company, which has its headquarters in New York City, in the hope of inducing eastern capital to invest in a losing enterprise.

Over a year ago the Eastern Consolidated incorporated with a capitalization of $5,000,000 for the purpose, as it was then advertised extensively, of making fortunes for its stockholders in the oil fields of California.

STARTED AS CALIFORNIA OPERA

Promoters of the enterprise secured the consent of such men as D. N. Morgan, former United States Treasurer, to act as president Ernest Cady, ex-Lieutenant-Governor of Connecticut, as vice-president; Charles J. Noyes of Boston, at one time Speaker of the Massachusetts Legislature, and Lelis A. Corbin, as directors. Last but by no means least, the notorious banking and kite-flying firm of L. E. Pike & Co., was installed as financial agents.

In the original prospectus the company advertised that it had purchased ten acres in the Kern River field, 20,000 acres in the near Gaviota and the principal holdings of the Rodeo and Romel companies in the southwestern extension of the Los Angeles field. The latter properties consisted of over one hundred acres, on which three producing wells had been sunk.

The company was not long in taking advantage of the fact that there were producing wells on its holdings, and soon began advertising their production at something like ten times its actual output. For several months the company did a land-office business, disposing of its stock at 25 cents a share, but all this time it did not own a single foot of California real estate. In this one respect the company has been consistent, as it is in the same condition today.

BECOMES SICK OF ITS BARGAIN.

Under a contract with E. L. Harding and others well known in local oil circles, the company agreed to pay $50,000 for 20,000 acres of undeveloped land near Gaviota, Santa Barbara county, also considerably over $100,000 for the local holdings. After paying $25,000 on the former property and giving a mortgage for the balance, and making the first payment on the Rodeo property, $20,000, the directors of the corporation became dissatisfied with their bargain. A delegation of directors, headed by ex-Gov. Cady and Attorney I. McGlen of New York, was sent out last summer to inspect the property and to put the company on a basis to make good its numerous claims.

As a result of the visit the company decided to begin work on the Gaviota property, to complete the purchase of the Kern River land and to throw up the local property, thereby forfeiting $20,000 paid.

DROPS STILL ANOTHER WAD.

But among the unfounded lies that had been advertised by this concern was a claim that it owned wells which produced thousands of barrels of oil a month. Something must be done to at least make a bluff at keeping faith with those who had purchased stock on such representation, so the company secured an option on the local holdings of the Oceanic Oil Company. The Oceanic wells were then producing in the neighborhood of 2500 barrels of oil a month, and the property was valued at $85,000. This sum the eastern company agreed to pay, and did make two payments, $25,000 in all, before it became tired of this bargain. But it did become tired, and after allowing several payments to go by default, lost all title to the property besides the $25,000 paid.

Ten acres in section 29, 30, 30, of the Kern River field the company is said to have paid $38,000 for, but owing to a claim against the property the company has not received a deed for the same.

STILL MAKING FALSE CLAIMS.

Such is an outline of the Eastern Consolidated Company's short but eventful career in California. It has expended over $110,000 and yet can only hold claim to ten acres in the Kern River field when the claim against that property has been adjusted. If it completes the purchase of the Gaviota land, as yet unproven oil property, it must do so before January 15, and this will require the additional expenditure of $25,000.

In spite of such a record of mismanagement the Eastern Consolidated blossoms out with a four-column advertisement in the New York Journal of the 2d inst., still claiming that it is now earning dividends at the rate of 2 per cent. a month.

PROUD OF ITS WORK.

"Management is everything," says the company in the ad quoted. "Many a good enterprise has been ruined by bad management, but the Eastern Consolidated will not suffer in this particular."

Similar gems gleaned from the same source, are:

"One reason why the Eastern Consolidated has distanced all its competitors: Because this company believes in giving its stockholders a chance to realise big returns on their investment. Consequently, you only pay 25 cents instead of 50 cents to $1 a share for your stock, and thereby have the advantage of seeing your stocks doubled in value within thirty days.

"We believe that for a safe investment that will return large dividends for years to come, as well as affording great profits from the advance in the price of shares, there is nothing that will equal shares in this company."

Another reason given for the alleged success of the company is "because, aside from the Standard Oil Company, there is no company offering its stock to the public today that has as much property, as good property and as big prospects for becoming one of the greatest oil companies in the United States as the Eastern Consolidated Oil Company(with eastern brains, eastern capital and eastern enterprise.

WHAT IT NOW CLAIMS.

But, although the company's California holdings have dwindled down to a few acres, it has other things in view. It announces in its last advertisement that the company is now considering the purchase of property at Spindle Top, Tex., "right in the midst of the big gushers." To those who have followed the ads. of the company this announcement will fail to make the proper impression, as on September 8 of this year the company's ad. printed in the Chicago Tribune belittles the Texas field and cites numerous authorities to bear out its statements in favor of the California field.

It is also announced that eighteen producing wells somewhere in Ohio have been acquired, and the company is still looking for other choice holdings.

C. A. Sumner, who was engaged as local manager of the company when the directors made their trip to the Coast last summer, is no longer connected with the company, having tendered his resignation, which took effect on the first day of this month.

"I did not like their way of doing business," said Mr. Sumner yesterday, "so I got out. I have not turned over the affairs of the company to C. F. Hurd, who was sent out here to take charge of them, but will do so as soon as the company has settled for work that they authorized me to contract for. As soon as this is done, my business with the company is at an end."

BEAUMONT FIELD.

IT HAS ITS TROUBLES.

BEAUMONT (Tex.) Nov. 11.—[From The Times' Resident Correspondent.] Litigation which threatens to stop the operation of many if not all of the companies doing business on Spindle Top has been opened in the United States and district courts this week. Several suits were filed some time ago, which clouded in a measure the titles of those who are taking oil from the ground in the Beaumont field, but nothing approaching the present deluge of law suits has been thought of. The Veatch survey is the one on which most of the litigation hangs and it would seem that some of the early holders of property in the league were the fathers of large families and poor hands at making a real-estate transaction that is above suspicion. Heirs from California and from England are attempting to get hold of property which the petitions allege belongs to them alone. In one suit filed in the United States court for this district 134 defendants are named, and these include practically all the companies doing business on the heights. The property interests which may be tied up when the case is brought to issue runs up into the millions. Another suit filed in the same court involves three-fourths of the Veatch survey, in which the plaintiffs ask that a fractional interest and a half million damages be given them. Twenty-eight defendants are interested and the plaintiffs are residents of England. One hundred and fifty acres are tied up in another case.

Sales of small patches of ground in the proven field have been numerous this week. The prices ranged from $3750 for one-thirty-second of an acre to $25,000 for an eighth of an acre. A piece of ground about 24x49 feet was sold for $15,000. This land is in block 22 and some distance from the Hogg-Swayne tract, which has been covered with derricks. In all the recent conveyances pipe-line concessions are given both parties to the transaction.

Six new wells were reported on the field this week and a number of others spouted in an irregular and unsatisfactory manner.

Among other things which have caused the oil companies much concern is the matter of freight rates. One of the companies made contracts in a large section of territory which has been supplied with fuel from western coal fields and learned when it was too late that the rates on oil were so high that it would be impossible to place the oil in competition with the coal. The companies are prevented from filling orders for oil by an inability to get tank cars enough to guarantee a regular supply of oil to those who will put in oil burners. The friction between the oil companies and railways grows. So far not even the switch engines in the Beaumont yards have been equipped with oil burners, and no move has been made to provide oil storage to supply any of the steam power in use by the railways.

We acknowledge receipt of a special edition of the Los Angeles Times, entitled the Arizona Mining Number. It is a gem, contains 2 parts, 32 pages, with 78 illustrations. Such editions is but one of the many object lessons of the enterprise of our southern neighbors. It were well for Northern California to emulate this progressive spirit.—[Davisville (Cal.) SCHOOL BOARD HOLDS QUIET SESSION.

PIANO TUNER ELECTED AND HOT AIR CONSIDERED.

Public Schools to Be Closed from Thanksgiving Day Till the Following Monday—Board's Macy-street Reading-room Opens Friday.

The Board of Education disposed of a considerable number of business odds and ends last night between 8 and 10 o'clock. The features of the evening were the election of an official piano tuner, to minister to the grievous wants of the various school tomtoms throughout the city, and the decision to subscribe for one year to one copy of an eastern publication known as the School Board Journal. B. W. Thompson was installed as piano tuner. The School Board Journal will drop into the office regularly despite Giffen's dislike for it.

When the communication from the publishers of the journal was read, asking for subscriptions, a copy of the paper was produced and laid upon the table.

"Huh!" said Giffen. He never believes in recklessly squandering the people's money intrusted to the board. "I move we subscribe for one copy, to be kept on the table for the benefit of the teachers who visit the office," said Skilling.

"Then," quoth Giffen, "if the board can't get along without this weighty publication, I move we also subscribe for the Youth's Companion. Some of you might enjoy it."

Skilling didn't like that. "Mr. Chairman, I'll pay for a subscription to the Youth's Companion and donate it to the gentleman if he wants it so badly; but his taste does not have to influence ours."

The final voting on the weighty issue was so hot and close that it had to be put to test by roll call.

Giffen and Foley had a little set-to about whether the janitress of the Tenth-street school should have extra pay or not for hoeing the plaster off the floors of the new rooms in that building; but the matter was adjusted without blows, and the janitress will wait while a few committees examine her case.

Reports of the different routine committees were adopted. Insurance will immediately be placed upon the Twentieth-street building, now being constructed. The Decoration Committee recommended that pictures for the schools be purchased, and their selection was left to Superintendent Foshay.

There are 1779 more pupils enrolled in the schools this month than for the same month last year.

A representative of W. Morgan & Co. of San Francisco, owners of a heating process for large buildings, appeared before the board to submit an estimate of the cost of their hot-air process if installed in new buildings. Hot air for twelve rooms will cost $2800. Foley suggested that Giffen might supply it free. The heating matter was referred to the Building Committee for investigation, and they will report at an adjourned meeting to be held Wednesday at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Seventeenth-street school invited the board to be present at a flag raising on September 27, at 1:15 p.m., and the Seventh-street school at 10:45 a.m. The board accepted with thanks.

A resolution was introduced by Foley demanding that the money subscribed by the city schools to the "American Boy" battleship fund be returned, to be placed in a bank here. The $2600 is in the hands of the Battleship Committee in Cincinnati. The demand will be made immediately.

The board of the Public Library asked the school board to aid in establishing a reading-room in the vicinity of Alpine and Castelar streets. The latter will try to furnish a room down that way.

Friday evening at 7 o'clock the Macy-street reading and lecture room will be formally opened, and a stereopticon entertainment given. Horgan of the Eighth announced that there would be a big time, and invited the board down. The board will go.

It was decided to keep the schools closed on Friday, November 29, the day following Thanksgiving.

The Teachers' Committee made the following recommendations, which were adopted:

That the resignations of Christine M. Monroe and Carrie Young be accepted; that leave of absence be granted to Marie White to the end of the first term; that Louise C. Flynn be assigned the third and fourth grades of the Grafton-street school; that Harriet Culver be transferred from the fifth to the second grade in Custer-street school, and that Ella Payne be assigned to fifth grade in Custer-street school; that Mabel Moody be assigned A2 and B3 classes, Hewitt-street school; that Mae T. Abbott be assigned to A3 and B4, Sand-street school; David Goldberg, B3 and A4 classes, west Vernon school; A. P. Chapman, boys' night school; that Minerva Cook be assigned to the seventh grade, San Pedro-street school.

That Selma Pfeffenberger, Edna L. Johnson, Lola D. Heffleman, Mrs. Kate Pollens and Lilly Warren be transferred from the substitute list to the regular list of teachers.

That Carrie Pfeffenberger, Katherine Nevius and Lizzie McGowen be elected substitute teachers for primary and grammar grades.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Ruskin Art Club.

Some of the phase of art and art environment during the seventh century were studied yesterday by the Ruskin Art Club, under the leadership of Mrs. F. H. Snowden and Mrs. I. B. Huber. Miss Emily Wing spoke upon the "Conquest of Spain by the Saracens;" Miss Belle Smith, on "The Tarik Lands at Gibraltar;" Mrs. D. K. Edwards on "Roderick, the Last of the Goths of Spain;" Mrs. I. L. Hibbard on the "Battle of Tours," by which the advance of the Moslems in Western Europe was checked. The Lombard invasion of Italy under Alboin was then taken up by Mrs. H. G. Brainerd. Turning to England, Mrs. E. E. Brown spoke on the "Monastery of Lindisfarne and Bishop Aidan;" Mrs. Young, in a paper read by Mrs. J. D. Gibbs, sketched the lives of St. Cuthbert and St. Hilda. "The Poetry of Caedmon and Beowulf" was discussed by Mrs. George Sinsabaugh. One of the chief features of the morning was a talk by Mrs. A. S. C. Forbes on "The Beginnings and Development of House Illumination," in illustration of which Mrs. Forbes exhibited a fine collection of ancient pottery and metal lamps from the island of Samos, from Rome, Benares and Antwerp.

State Federation Meeting.

The Los Angeles district of the State Federation of Women's Clubs will hold an open meeting at Ebell Hall today, at 1:30 p.m. The chief business before the meeting will be the election of a member of the Nominating Committee for the State biennial. Reports of district work will also be submitted by delegates from the clubs of the district, of whom a large number will be present. An address, "The Art of Extemporaneous Speaking," will be given by Mrs. Stella Clark.

Wednesday Morning Club.

The Shakespeare section met in the club's new quarters, Campbell's Hall on Downey avenue, at the usual hour and resumed the study of "Coriolanus." Scenes 2 and 3 of Act II were presented and analyzed, and scene 1 of Act III read by selected persons. The different qualities displayed in the character of the hero brought out animated discussion, as did also the social conditions which agitated Rome in ancient times, so nearly related to the problems of the present day. Next Wednesday afternoon the second meeting of the current-events section will be held with Mrs. Lou V. Chapin as curator.

SHOUTING METHODISTS MUST LOOK TO LAURELS.

FORWARD MOVEMENT AMONG THE PRESBYTERIANS.

Los Angeles Churches Getting Together for a Great Campaign Against Sin—Union Meeting Addressed Last Night by Dr. Stewart of New York.

The Presbyterians have evolved a far-reaching revival scheme, which will fairly take away the breath of the old-time "blue stocking." The "shouting Methodist" must look well to his laurels if he wants to maintain a round-up of the "hallelujah" host.

There are thousands of Presbyterian churches in the United States, and the last general assembly decided that during the year 1902 an evangelistic service should be held in each one of them. It appointed a committee to lay out the work and see that the plan was not miscarry.

Dr. George B. Stewart, president of Auburn Seminary, New York, is now representing that committee. Yesterday morning he held a conference with the Presbyterian ministers of the city to consider certain phases of the subject, and last night the Presbyterians held a union meeting in Immanuel Church to give the visitor a hearing upon the subject.

The church was well filled, and Dr. Stewart proved himself an eloquent and magnetic speaker. In the course of his talk, he said:

"This movement originated in the idea that a Christian should work so many days in a year, and to obviate the condition of a church going into winter quarters, four or five months in the hottest part of the year. Why should we not follow summer methods in summer and winter methods in winter? Out here, possibly, that does not apply, when I understand one can do very much like the other, if not a little more so.

"I believe in having a refrigerating plant in the cellar in the summer and a heating plant in the cellar in the winter. How long ago did you order? Out here, I am told, you have no refrigerator plant all the year round, the only difference is, you do not put it in the cellar. The church has been a little slow, but we see her waking up. The church is here for the purpose of reconciling men to God. If not, what is she here for?"

Dr. Stewart outlined the plan of the meetings followed in the East, and talked interestingly of some of the results. The tents provided for at the meeting of the Los Angeles Presbytery some weeks ago will be ready for service within a short time, when the work will be taken up in this section of the field.

Prof. David Starr Jordan of Stanford University, the most eminent authority on fish in the world, says that nowhere is there such an important body of water, from a scientific standpoint, as Monterey Bay, on account of the number of varieties of fish and sea animals found there and of the fact that there are more kinds in that bay that have never appeared in any other part of the world.

A big gray goose persists in following John Hunter of Milton wherever he goes. As soon as the cabin door is open in the morning the goose marches into the cabin and takes a seat. If Hunter seeks refuge in some downtown saloon, the goose, with stately tread, follows in his footsteps, and as long as the man remains so does the goose, observing every movement with affectionate gaze. In spite of repeated rebuffs the goose persists in its strange friendship, which has of late attracted the attention of the whole town.

RAILWAY TOURISTS GO DOWN TO THE SEA.

TRAVELING PASSENGER AGENTS' ROUND OF PLEASURE.

Trolley Trip to Hollywood and Santa Monica, Then Back to Los Angeles for a Spin to San Diego—Visitors Enjoy California Climate.

Under the escort of E. W. McGill of the Santa Fé system, and W. D. Larkey of the Santa Monica Electric Railway, about two hundred of the visiting transcontinental railway passenger agents and their ladies left the Santa Fé-street station at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning for Hollywood and Santa Monica. They were charmed with the bright sunshine, the green hills and the balmy, but exhilarating air.

Three parlor cars, packed with merry sightseers, slowed up in front of Paul de Longpré's picturesque mansion, and Col. G. J. Griffith and Robert Hale conducted the party through the beautiful grounds, while de Longpré graciously received them in his art gallery. The flower-painter's unrivaled gems were brought forth many expressions of wonder and admiration.

The visitors were next conducted to the palatial residence of H. J. Woods, where refreshments were served and appropriate remarks were made by Col. Griffith.

The cars then proceeded to Santa Monica, where the passengers alighted, strolled down to the beach, and roamed about for an hour, partook of a delicious lunch of clam chowder, etc., and returned to the city in time to catch the 2 p.m. train for San Diego.

Nearly all of the local passenger representatives accompanied the visitors on their trip to San Diego. J. J. Byrne, general passenger agent of the Santa Fé, clings to the tourists like a father, and is doing all in his power to make their sojourn in Southern California a round of pleasure, in which he is ably assisted by the rest of the local passenger men.

W. J. Parkyns, assistant general passenger and freight agent of the Southern Pacific; C. H. White, city ticket agent; passenger agent of the Southern Pacific; George B. Ochiltree, Mr. Young's chief clerk, and H. F. Stewart, advertising agent of the Southern Pacific will go with the visitors to San Diego and Coronado.

The excursionists will return from San Diego tomorrow, and at midnight tomorrow will leave for Santa Barbara. The passenger agents are keen, and will have good memories. Their visit with friends and acquaintances of other days, are of frequent occurrence, yet always surprising. Mr. Gunsip, agent of the Santa Fé system at Cincinnati, was passing through Mr. Knight of Los Angeles, and he stopped him and called him by name. "How long ago did I sell you a ticket to California?" he asked. "Ten years ago this month of November," was the instant reply of Mr. Knight, who quickly recognized the questioner. Similar unexpected but pleasant meetings and greetings are constantly occurring.

WHY BOYS PLAY HOOKEY.

Novel Theory Advanced at the Meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Workers Yesterday.

A novel reason for boys playing truant from the public schools was advanced by Mrs. Anna E. V. Hilles at the meeting yesterday afternoon of the Los Angeles County "Women's Christian Temperance Union Institute, under the auspices of the Los Angeles Union of Unions. Mrs. Hilles is superintendent of the mothers' work of the Los Angeles union. She spoke of the overcrowded condition of the public schools in this city, and she thought that it was the duty of the Christian women to see that the condition of things was remedied, as she said many boys played truant from school on account of the uncomfortable quarters in the packed schoolrooms. Mrs. Hilles also spoke of the necessity of a mother's watchful care over her children.

Mrs. E. V. Keever gave an address on "The Press." She compared the workings of the press with the great Corliss engine at the Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia in 1876. She said that the press is a great organ for advertising, and that it has been instrumental in giving to the world reports of the great work going on in the various unions. Mrs. Keever is a member of the Pico Heights W.C.T.U.

The morning session was devoted to reports of local unions, and at the noon hour lunch was served.

With the help of workers available from the East, the local unions purpose conducting a vigorous campaign this winter. At the first meeting of this institute, the East Side Union received a number of new members. At Mrs. Teat's recent meeting at the State school at Whittier eighty-three of the boys and two officers signed the pledge.

A meeting will be held by the Los Angeles W.C.T.U. today at 2:30 o'clock in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, corner Sixth and Hill streets. Mrs. Mary E. Teats, national evangelist of purity, will speak on "Home Life, or the Way of God in Marriage."

CHRIS BUCKLEY IN TOWN.

Ex-Democratic Boss on One of His Periodical Visits to the City of the Angels—Politicians Interested.

Christopher R. Buckley, the erstwhile boss of the Democratic party in San Francisco, and who probably knows as much about the ins and outs of California politics as any man in the State, notwithstanding long years of total blindness, is at the Westminster.

Mr. Buckley announced his retirement from politics some years ago, since which he has been devoting himself assiduously to forming and looking after his extensive business interests. His comings and goings, nevertheless, always create a decided ripple on the political pool, and his advice is much sought by those desiring tips on who is going to be "it" in the politics of the State, county or municipality. Christopher is credited with having been the most astute manipulator of conventions and ballot boxes the State has ever known, but he no longer plays the role of the big boss, nor wields the power over the slums of San Francisco any more, which earned for him the title among the denizens of Chinatown of the "blind white devil."

Mr. Buckley's periodical visits to Los Angeles are partly of a business nature, as he is, or has been, administrator of the estate of Thebaud Bauer, the erstwhile King of Little Paree. On the other hand, Buckley also makes his occasional pilgrimages to the Sunny Southland for the pleasure derived from such visits in meeting old friends and in basking in this genial climate. He will probably remain here for several days.

It is estimated that more than two hundred employes of the cotton mills of Nashua, N. H., are going to seek employment in southern mills.

Police Begin to Clean Out the Beggars and Monstrosities.

There is consternation in the hearts of professional beggars who have been coming into Los Angeles lately in greater number than for many previous seasons, and who had begun to think this city is "easy." The reason for their confusion is the determined stand taken by the police department and by the county, represented by the Associated Charities, whereby begging is interfered with and discouraged in every manner within the law, and indigents from other States are denied help from Los Angeles county and admittance to its eleemosynary institutions. It has been a cause of general remark that the business streets have been lined the past few weeks with more cripples, blind persons and others seeking alms than have been noticed at any one time before.

Whatever may be the cause of this visitation, the effect is recognized by President Frank of the Associated Charities, who, in his annual report submitted to that organization Tuesday, says that in no other city in the land are so many cripples to be found on the streets as in Los Angeles. His statements that hardly one of these unfortunates belongs to this community, and that the trouble is with the laws, are concurred in by Mayor Snyder and others who have given thought to the matter. "Each and every one of these unfortunates," says President Frank, "belongs somewhere; has a residence or family connections in some other part of the country, and that is where they belong. The mere fact that they make a feint of selling pencils or of playing a musical instrument amounts to nothing except to legalize begging. We ask the city authorities to give this matter just consideration."

MAYOR SNYDER'S STAND.

Mayor Snyder said yesterday that it is true that the city is overrun with this class of beggars, and that hardly one of them has a claim on the citizens of Los Angeles county for support, but he said the city ordinances are being enforced strictly, and that every effort within the law is being made to discourage the beggars.

"I don't know what more we can do," said the Mayor. "We can't meet these people at the railroad stations and send them back whence they came, when they are found to be paupers, as is done by the immigration officials at New York. The great trouble is that citizens generally, and especially sympathetic women, are too liberal with the begging class, and think they are doing an act of charity by tossing coins into hats or cups at the sides of the cripples, or other supplicants for charity. This only encourages the evil, and in the majority of cases the assistance is misplaced."

Probably no man in the city is so well informed on the condition of the city's beggars as is T. J. Stuart, secretary of the Associated Charities, and if he were to give the facts in the cases of some of these people it is likely that their daily receipts would fall off to an appreciable extent. Mr. Stuart's long and constant contact with applicants for charity has caused him to look on the administration of relief to the needy in a businesslike manner, which might be termed cold by those who are unacquainted with the methods of organized charity. The charity association does not have unlimited means, and many of the demands made on it must be refused, but every case is investigated, and when deserving, assistance is given. What Mr. Stuart objects most strongly to is the foisting on Los Angeles of the invalid and decrepit poor of the entire country, and he believes with Mr. Frank, that every community should care for its own unfortunates. The Los Angeles county institutions are inadequate to the needs of the county's poor, and it simply is impossible to give asylum either at the County Hospital or County Farm to the poor of the nation. Mr. Stuart agrees that the way to discourage the beggars is to refuse absolutely to give them assistance, even if it may seem heartless. By this means only, he thinks, can the evil be remedied. No other city in the United States, says Mr. Stuart, gives haven and support to cripples and beggars, who swarm to Los Angeles as the lazzaroni to Naples.

THE POLICE RAID.

It was noticeable yesterday that a thinning-out had been made in the ranks of the fakers, because the officers, acting within their powers, had told the beggars to move on, and many of them now are lying low, only to come back to their accustomed stations when they think they will not be molested. Several of the beggars who had pretended they were cripples were, upon examination, found to be sound of limb, and were ordered without ceremony to leave town. Two or three men, each minus one foot, but otherwise well and able to support themselves, went on a drunk Tuesday night on the proceeds of their day's begging, and were arrested and jailed.

While the majority of the mendicants are blind, legless or paralytics, there occasionally is seen on the street some monstrosity which appeals for pity with a cash attachment through the exhibition of some horrible deformity, the effect of which is harrowing, at least, to most persons, and is recognized as positively harmful to delicate women. One of these creatures, distorted almost beyond semblance of a human being, was taken to the Courthouse not long ago in a wheeled chair, where he asked for assistance from the Associated Charities. Upon investigation of the case it was found that he was from Portland, near which city he owned 155 acres of valuable land, and that he made a practice of traveling about the country, begging. No assistance was given him here.

SOME OF 'EM STAY.

A few cripples and others of the city's poor are not molested. Among them are two or three legless men who stand on their stumps or sit on the pavements, displaying trays of collar buttons, shoe strings, chewing gum and knick-knacks, and they transact considerable business with persons who patronize them through charitable inclinations. There are others, deformed or crippled in some manner, who visit places of business, selling small wares. One of these is "Jack" Smith, a tall, rather good-looking man about 60 years old, who claims to have served twelve years as an artilleryman in the British army in India, but he came to grief, he says, in a North Dakota blizzard, when the toes and parts of both feet were frozen so as to necessitate amputation, and his hands are almost useless from the effects of the same freeze.

Another character is "Old Blind Tom" Wallace, who stands at different times at Third and Spring or Third and Main streets. Both of Tom's eyes and part of one hand were blown away by a stick of giant powder in a Colorado mine, and the wide-open, eyeless sockets appeal not without avail to the passing crowds at those busy corners. Tom sometimes sells gum, but more often he displays in his tray a collection of cards, on which are printed verses of his own make, for he admits without a blush that he was born a poet, although he is a saddle-maker by trade. He blocked out a poem on the beauties of Los Angeles, the first line of which runs, "Come to the beautiful scenes of Los Angeles and gain back your health again."

There is one beggar in the city, who, though he has been here many years, seems to have not one friend. This man is known simply as "Ed," and he stands usually on Second or Third streets, between Spring street and Broadway. He seems to be a hopeless paralytic, and usually stands propped up against the side of a building, clad in blue overalls and a black coat, and wearing a pair of blue glasses, which accentuate the pallor of his cheeks. When he goes down the street his crutches are his legs, and he moves with an uncertainty which is agonising. "Ed" is known by the charity people as a "hospital bum," and it is said he has been at various times a patient in public hospitals of a dozen States. Though he has tried often, he never has been able to break into the County Hospital of Los Angeles for the same reason that all mendicants from other States are denied admittance.

There are many others of the same ilk as those named, but it seems to be a safe guess that none of them is in absolute want, while many of them probably are in receipt of larger incomes than are those who bestow their money in the name of charity.

Gold Rained Down on the China Band.

CHINA PRAYING BAND.

The "China Band" is now on the ocean, en route to its field of labor in China.

The history of this band of seventeen missionaries, while engaged in preparation for its work, in the Los Angeles Training School for Christian Workers, reads like a golden dream from the Arabian Knights.

Gold literally rained upon them, as manna from heaven, and yet this story has just come to light, told in a matter-of-fact way, as though it were an everyday occurrence.

The largest nugget was valued at $2400; others at $500, $400, $100, $50. They came in great numbers.

Horace W. Houlding, once a resident of Riverside, is the inspiration of the band.

It was part of his creed to ask for no aid directly for himself, but simply to keep about 1500 people directly informed of the needs of the field.

One day, while in this city, a check came to him from the Far East for $2400.

That seems to have been such a commonplace affair that it was not at first thought of sufficient importance to mention to a reporter.

Checks for smaller sums, but reading in the hundreds, continued to come to Mr. Houlding and other members of the band, up to the time set for their departure.

To equip seventeen people for a trip to China, and set them up in modest housekeeping after their arrival, and keep them from want while getting a grip, requires considerable money.

Notwithstanding the golden showers that fell upon them, when they left Los Angeles for Seattle three weeks ago, they were still $1500 short, but they started for China just the same. When they set sail a few days later they did so with a complete outfit of supplies and passage paid.

Some years ago Mr. Houlding tried to get the Congregational Church to send him, but funds were short, so he decided to go independently.

He and his wife at that time set sail, with no one to say good-by. They returned in 1896 for reinforcements, and when they left Seattle with fifteen recruits, the other day, thousands of people crowded the wharf and gave them a royal godspeed.

Speaking of his first visit to China, Mr. Houlding said, to a friend while here:

"Upon the day of my arrival, I met a Chinaman who approached me, speaking English. I told him my purpose, and he went away. A day or two later I met him on the street, and he said to me: 'I have been praying eighteen years for a missionary.' That was exactly the time when I realized the call that I must go to China. That Chinaman at once came to my support and all went well."

The group printed herewith is but a portion of the band, Mr. Houlding being the figure on the left, indicated by a cross. The following composes the party: Horace W. Houlding, Cecil Noxel, W. S. Elliott, Mary A. Hill, Woodford Taylor, Abraham Sommer, Mrs. Effie L. Karr, Bertha Schrack, Katherine Ewald, Margaret Rankin, Miss Robinett, Miss Armour, two whose names could not be learned, and three children.

The anecdote is told of Mr. Houlding, that some years before he first went to China—when he wanted to go and couldn't see the way—he owned some property, which he thought might some day help support him in China. He concluded that, as he wasn't getting there very rapidly, it must be because he was "trusting in God plus the property."

He forthwith sold the property and gave the money to send other missionaries into the foreign field, and soon after went himself without any means whatever.

THE PHILIPPINE REVIEW.

The Philippine Review, published from No. 62 Wall street, New York, aims to cull out from official reports all information of general interest, and also to summarize Congressional debates, Associated Press news and important books and magazine articles on the Philippines. The society's representative states that the War Department manifests great willingness to assist the work of the society by putting at its service both published and unpublished records of the department. The information to be obtained in the United States is, moreover, to be supplemented by correspondence from competent persons in the Philippines which will be published on its face value.

The Review is run in a somewhat unusual fashion, in that the use of an office and the services of editors and clerks are contributed by private individuals. The benefactors of the Review are persons of varying shades of opinion, who are interested in the spreading of accurate information rather than the advocating of policy.

Knows No Distinction

All observant physicians have noticed the enormous increase in catarrhal diseases in recent years, and the most liberal and enlightened have cheerfully given their approval to the new internal remedy, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, as the most successful and by far the safest remedy for catarrh yet produced.

One well-known catarrh specialist, as soon as he had made a thorough test of this preparation, discarded inhalers, washes and sprays, and now depends entirely upon Stuart's Catarrh Tablets in treating catarrh, whether in the head, throat or stomach.

Dr. Riadell says: "In patients who had lost the sense of smell entirely and even where the hearing has begun to be affected from catarrh, I have had fine results after only a few weeks' use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets. I can only explain their action on the theory that the cleansing and antiseptic properties of the tablets destroy the catarrhal germs wherever found, because I have found the tablets equally valuable in catarrh of the throat and stomach as in nasal catarrh."

Dr. Estabrook says Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are especially useful in nasal catarrh and catarrh of the throat, clearing the membranes of mucous and speedily overcoming the hawking, coughing and expectorating.

Any sufferer from catarrh will find Stuart's Catarrh Tablets will give immediate relief, and being in tablet form and pleasant to the taste, are convenient and always ready for use, as they can be carried in the pocket and used at any time, as they contain no poisonous drugs, but only the cleansing antiseptic properties of eucalyptus bark, Guaiacol, blood root and Hydrastin.

SUGAR BOUNTIES.

Germany and Austria-Hungary Willing to Abolish Them if France Will Take Same Action.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The conference to discuss the abolition of the sugar bounties, says the Brussels correspondent of the London Times and the New York Times, has been definitely fixed for December 15. Fifteen invitations will be issued next week.

It is understood that Germany and Austria-Hungary would abolish the export bounties, provided that France would do the same thing, and would further consent to reduce by one-third the bounties on home-consumed sugar.

TARIFF DECISION.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The classification board of United States General Appraisers has handed down the following decision: Neustadter Bros. of San Francisco imported a quantity of men's cotton gloves, having an elastic braid or band at the wrist band, for the purpose of holding them closely about the wearer's wrists. The goods were assessed at 15 cents per pound and 50 per cent. ad valorem. The importers protested against the 15-cent duty which was imposed, because of the rubber band, claiming that it was of infinite small value, and should not be considered. The board sustained the protest.

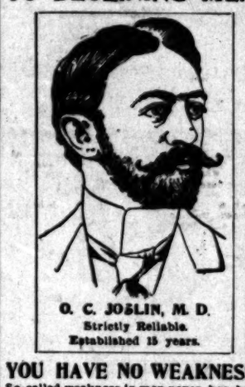
I RESTORE

Vim, Vigor, Vitality and Health

TO DECLINING MEN.



O. C. JOSLIN, M. D.

Strictly Reliable.

Established 15 years.

YOU HAVE NO WEAKNESS.

So-called weakness in men never has been and never will be cured when treated as a weakness, because no real weakness exists. The strongest and most robust of men are as often lacking in sexual power as are those who appear most delicate. That this is true is not at all surprising when we understand the real cause of weakness, nor is it remarkable that stimulants, tonics and electro-medical combinations not only fail to restore health and vigor, but render worse the condition they were supposed to cure. In practically every case of premature loss of vitality, etc., a careful and scientific examination reveals a tender, swollen and chronically inflamed prostate gland, which condition is entirely responsible for the disordered function, as this gland is the vital center of the reproductive system. To treat by any of those methods that have so long, so unsuccessfully and so disastrously been employed, is like attempting to quench a raging fire with oil, for stimulating remedies and exciting electrical currents can but add to the inflammation in the tender prostate and thus render more marked the prominent symptom—this weakness. I employ local treatment exclusively, and as the inflammation is reduced and the gland restored to its normal state, full and complete power returns. Those who have been unsuccessfully treated for a weakness should now understand the cause of failure, and realize that no method other than my own can produce complete and lasting results.

BUFFALO LITHIA WATER

Registered by U. S. Patent Office.

In All Forms of Bright's Disease, Uric Acid Diathesis, Rheumatism, Lithaemia, Gout, Latina, Typhoid Fever, Etc. Disintegrating Solvent, and Eliminating Poisons over Re-Calculus, Etc.

DR. GEORGE BEN JOHNSTON, Richmond, Va., Ex-President Society of Virginia and Professor of Gynecology and Abdominal Surgery College of Virginia: If I WERE ASKED WHAT MINERAL WATER HAS THE WIDEST RANGE of USEFULNESS, I WOULD UNHESITATINGLY ANSWER, BUFFALO LITHIA. It is a most valuable remedy in many chronic and stubborn conditions, which, at best, yield slowly, if at all, to drugs. In Uric Acid Diathesis, Gout, Rheumatism, Lithaemia, and the like, its beneficial effects are prompt and lasting.

"Almost any case of Pyelitis or Cystitis will be alleviated by it and many cured.

"I have had evidence of the undoubted Disintegrating, Solvent and Eliminating powers of this water in RENAL CALCULUS, and I have long continued use to permanently break up the gravel-forming habit.

"It is an agent of great value in the treatment of ALBUMINURIA, especially of NANCY, and is an excellent diuretic in SCARLATINA and TYPHOID FEVER. In all forms of BRIGHT'S DISEASE, except those hopelessly advanced, its good effects are pronounced. I believe it has been the means of saving many lives in this trouble. I regard it as a fine agent for establishing normal renal function preceding surgical operations, and very useful in the management of operative cases."

Spring No. 1 is both a NERVE and a BLOOD TONIC, and for FEEBLE and ANAEMIC SUBJECTS is to be preferred. In the case of these symptoms, No. 2 is to be preferred.

GOLD EXPORTS. Sterling exchange is not advanced to the gold export point. This was signalized by considerable engagements of gold for shipment. And it is expected that additional consignments will be arranged for next week. The movement was emphasized by the advance in the Bank of England's discount rate from 3 to 4 per cent. on Thursday. Gold goes out despite the fact that a large amount of foreign bills have come into the country. The raising of the discount rate by the Bank of England is interpreted to mean that the bank anticipates a heavy call for gold, and that it proposes to shift the burden of supplying it to New York. Last week the Bank of France lost $1,750,000 gold while the Bank of France gained just about that sum. The proposal of a large loan, which was this week announced, may be the occasion for the return of the Bank of France to its reserve. French holders of bills, on the other hand, are cashing these for the purpose of investing in the new French loan.—[American Banker.

NOTES ON CURRANTS. Hills of New York, say of the prospects for the new crop: "It would appear that there will possibly higher range of prices rule during the balance of the season, as prospective supplies are not large. The firmer feeling in the Greek market is explained by letters just received due to the fact that German buyers appeared as a buyer for considerable quantities. Late cables, however, point to show a somewhat easier tone at Greece."

THE MARKET. The New York Journal of Commerce says of the market for nuts there is more interest in the list. A lot of new crop walnuts (fifty bales) arrived. New crop to arrive during the week offer at 10½ cents, and one steamer from Bordeaux, leaving December 14, at 9¾ cents. Chile walnuts are offered at 9 cents by the bag. Almonds are very firm, and the market is noted. In almonds a report from Valencia reports higher prices there. The demand for spot is good through the shelled-almond trade, business is doing in California within the quoted range.

BUSINESS TOPICS.

THE MODERN GROCERY STORE. The modern grocery store, ready to deliver anything at any hour, makes it unnecessary for the modern housekeeper to keep supplies on hand, or to plan her menu a day in advance. Perhaps the crowding into cities has made the storeroom in the small house too expensive a luxury. Anais Burrows, in the Ladies' Kitchen, while the attention has been diverted from the kitchen in so many directions, must depend upon the central supplies. Whether the need be the demand, or the desire to supply, it is evident that the modern grocery store is not many removes from the cooperative store which some seers predict will be one of the present lack of system.

Well equipped city grocery stores have come to a telephone order to furnish a meal ready to serve, hot meats, bread, cakes, fruit and pie, or a more elaborate dinner to serve from tin cans. But not all. Today many processes are done in the house are performed in the store—meat boned, poultry and vegetables partially prepared, etc. It is suspected that the grocer suspected that may yet monopolize their business and there, through intendent, they are taking up There are even meat conducted by women, and this most agreeable part of the all-grocery business. Butter is firm; cheese very firm.

Eggs have been advancing about 1 cent during the week, and are firm.

Lemons are in active demand at firm prices.

Oranges are scarce, and have been bringing high prices at the East. There is no quotable price in the local market, prices being about all made where the fruit is sold. A carload of Valencias sold this week in New York at $3.05 per box for fancy grade, and the car averaged $6.40. The whole car sold for over $2300. This beats all former records.

Apples are in active demand, at $1.25 for good stock up to $1.50 to $1.75 for fancy Oregons, the latter for the best Spitzenbergs.

Bananas are firm, and in good demand.

Hay is firm, and feed barley very firm. Choice seed barley and wheat will be in active demand this winter.

Live poultry is doing well, large birds selling in a small way at $7.50 per dozen. Dressed turkeys for the holidays are contracted for at 13 to 13½ cents per pound. Local farmers want 14 to 15 cents live weight for their birds.

Dressed pork is now 9 cents.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

SHARES AND MONEY.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Stock market today after a rather irregular and ragged opening started up with a rise and some enthusiasm, but the heavy gold exports dashed the spirits of the speculators and drove prices down. The selling was not urgent or precipitate, and there was manifest growth of dullness as the decline and an undertone of some firmness. The market during the greater part of the day was feverish and irregular, but dipped suddenly at the last, and a number of important stocks closed at the lowest of the day. There was a marked contrast in the Union Pacific and St. Paul, the former offering resistance to the decline and the latter running off easily to the lowest of the day. This apparently reflected a dubious state of mind as to the exact benefit which would accrue to St. Paul from the Northern Pacific settlement. The stock was a leader in the early upward movement on reports that it would be absorbed by the Union Pacific as an incident of the great railroad settlement. The pendency of this settlement and the very optimistic reports in regard to quarters as to the condition of the anthracite coal were inspiring causes of the animated advance in price early in the day. The engagements of gold for tomorrow at one time aggregated $5,000,000, but the cancellation of a $1,000,000 order lightened the shipments and also the resulting depression in the market. The cause of the cancellation was not stated, but may have had to do with the customary limitation of the gold shipments by a single vessel. A notable feature of the gold shipments was its feature to affect the foreign exchange work. When gold is shipped it is customary to sell exchange bills against the shipments, but there was no sign of any such bills in the market today. This corroborates the supposition that the shipment is made in payment of debts which have been incurred by short selling of exchange bills earlier in the season and which there is now sufficient current supply of commercial bills offering to cover. The effect of the gold shipments was emphasized by their leaving the exchange market still at the export level, developing ground for the apprehension that additional shipments will go Saturday. Incorporation of the Northern Securities Company and the decision to retire the Northern Pacific preferred stock were known before the close, but did not meet with any marked response. Four per cent. was the minimum rate in the call market. The market closed generally easy and active. The bond market was less active. Total sales, par value, $5,852,000. United States 3s coupon advanced ¼.

London Financial Market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The Commercial Advertiser's London financial cablegram says: "The stock market today was becalmed, but cheerful. Among the factors that contributed to the better feeling was the rumor that the German Emperor was endeavoring to persuade the Boers to surrender, and also the news that refugees were returning and the mines were reopening. There was also a rabord that Botha, with 600 men, had surrendered. American stocks moved in narrow limits. The exchange expects a sag in prices because of the complete absence of the public from the market. New York bought Canadian Pacific only. Money is very scarce, the rate ranging from 1 to 1 per cent. The bank again borrowed on consols, and the market borrowed £1,000,000 from the bank."

GENERAL EASTERN MARKETS

GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—The wheat market was a steady affair, but was actively steady when numerous bearish conditions are considered. Cables were weaker, though only moderately so. Both primary and Northwestern receipts were heavy. The crowd showed no inclination to buy at the early steady hour, though offerings were liberal. This brought an easy feeling and a stream of liquidation. About this time the strength in corn developed, and wheat-traders took everything offered. Prices, however, never went high, and December closed at 71⅝@71¾, closing steady at 71⅞. Trade on the whole was only fairly active, the bulk of the business being done early. Oats were moderately active and strong. Provisions were dull over a very narrow range. January pork closed unchanged; January lard, 7½@5 lower, and January ribs unchanged.

The leading futures closed as follows:

DEATH OF A WELL-KNOWN PEACE OFFICER.

DEPUTY SHERIFF CHARLES BUSH SUCCUMBS AT SANTA ANA.

Was a Trusted Assistant of Sheriff Lacy and Well Known Throughout This Part of the State—Alleged Burglar Taken to Bakersfield.

SANTA ANA, Nov. 13.—[From The Times' Resident Correspondent.] Charles R. Bush, who has been Sheriff Lacy's chief deputy during his present term of office, died yesterday at the family home near Orange, after an illness extending over several months. Deputy Sheriff Bush had been failing in health for a year or more, and about five months ago he consulted a specialist in Los Angeles, who declared that he was suffering from cancer of the stomach. Later Mr. Bush went to Los Angeles to have an operation performed, but upon examination the physicians decided that the condition of the malady would not admit of an operation, and consequently his friends were compelled to bring him home to die. Deceased leaves a widow and ten children. The funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon from the residence.

WANTED IN BAKERSFIELD.

City Marshal Maxwell arrested a suspicious character in this city a few days ago, who turns out to be Frank J. Harris, wanted in Bakersfield on a charge of burglary. A Bakersfield officer arrived here yesterday, and at once recognized Harris as the man wanted there. Roke took the prisoner home with him.

ORANGE.

WANT THE MAIN LINE.

ORANGE, Nov. 13.—[From The Times' Correspondent.] The residents of Orange and vicinity are now engrossed in the matter of securing the main line of the interurban electric road between Santa Ana and Los Angeles. According to the original survey of the road this town was left off the main line by about a mile. It is proposed now to run the main line through the town and to enter Anaheim from the east instead of from the south, as was at first planned. It is claimed that the distance will be little farther by this route than the one first selected, and the benefits to Orange can hardly be estimated. In order to secure this change, however, it is necessary for Orange and vicinity to raise about $5000 to assist in defraying the expense necessary to make the change. For the past several days residents in this vicinity have been working on a subscription list in the hope of raising this amount. So far the committee has met with good success, but there is still a large balance to raise, and unless the citizens of the town come forward a little more freely in their donations they may yet lose the enterprise.

REDLANDS.

TO CARE FOR THE POOR.

REDLANDS, Nov. 13.—[From The Times' Resident Correspondent.] The rector of Trinity parish has undertaken the establishment of a sanitarium for the care of the sick poor. An acre of ground with a two-story house, at the intersection of Cliff avenue and Moreno road, has been rented. It is purposed immediately to equip the place with a sufficient number of tents, so that accommodations will be available at once for ten or twelve persons. A trained nurse will be in charge of the establishment, which will be also under competent medical direction.

REDLANDS BREVITIES.

A boy named Gutierez, about 14 years old, struck Leo Murphy, aged 11 years, on the head with a large stone yesterday afternoon, cutting a bad gash. After throwing the stone, he took to his heels, and has not been captured by the police. Murphy was taken to his home, where the wound was dressed and found to be not dangerous.

The case of E. S. Graham against the Redlands Heights Water Company will come before the Superior Court on Friday. This case is one in which the power and rights of a private water company as to right of way are to be determined.

A letter was received yesterday from A. W. Smiley, stating that he was opposed to the proposed changes near the Triangle, and that a building close up to the entrance of the park would destroy the beauty of the approach.

The resignation of Rev. Dr. William Noble as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church has been accepted. He has been elected synodical missionary for Southern California, and will make Los Angeles his home for the future.

An adjourned meeting of the City Trustees was held today to decide upon the petition of W. L. Dike, trustee, for the privilege of closing up Cajon street and erecting a handsome business block. No definite action was taken.

Redlands seems to be rivaling other cities in the entertainment of box-car tourists. Eight of them have appeared before Justice Tisdale within the last twenty-four hours. Four of them were ordered out of town, and three sent to jail for fourteen days each.

ONTARIO.

PURCHASED A WAREHOUSE.

ONTARIO, Nov. 13.—[From The Times' Resident Correspondent.] At a meeting of the members of the Ontario Citrus Fruit Association, held at the packing-house on East A street, to receive a report regarding the negotiations to buy the interests of the Peoples' Warehouse Company, the stockholders ordered the board of managers to make the purchase at the cost of $9500. Up to this time the fruit association, which has owned all of its machinery used, has been compelled to rent building and grounds. The association expects to ship a carload of this season's oranges this week.

PROSPECTIVE POWER PLANT.

W. H. Sanders of Pomona, at the request of the San Antonio Water Company, has made a survey of a portion of San Antonio Cañon, to determine the feasibility and cost of a proposed electric-power plant at that point. He estimates the total cost at $65,087. This matter will be considered by the stockholders of the San Antonio Water Company at a meeting called for November 18.

LEAD THE SEVENTH REGIMENT IN MARKSMANSHIP.

Co. M Makes Excellent Scores at Target Practice and One Member Almost Equals the State Record—To Select Carnegie Library Site.

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 13.—[From The Times' Resident Correspondent.] Co. M. held the last of its three practice target shoots of the year yesterday under the direction of Lieut. Thaxter of Redlands, inspector of rifle practice. Forty-four members of the company participated, and the result of the shoot places the company at the head of the Seventh Regiment in the matter of marksmanship. Lieut. Meacham made the best score yesterday, 72 out of a possible 75. This places him second in the regiment, Capt. Thomas of Co. D, Pomona, and E. E. Ayers of Co. Paddock, 63; Sergt. Kniss, 62.

Marksmen, with a score of 112 or over, are entitled to favorable mention. As a result of these shoots, the contestants in the first three ranks are classed as follows: Distinguished marksmen, Second Lieut. Bloom, 195; Sergt. RIVERSIDE BREVITIES.

Dewitt Brown, a fifteen-year-old boy, was brought in from Indio yesterday by Constable Westerfield and taken to the County Hospital. He had been stealing a ride in a freight train on the Southern Pacific road that was thrown from the track near Indio. It was feared he was seriously injured, but it was found that beyond a severe bruising, he was not badly hurt.

Superintendent Hall of the Indian school is trying to arrange a game of football between the Indian eleven and the Stanford team during its coming trip south. The splendid showing the Indians have made so far this season makes them more worthy to be pitted against the Stanford team than any other eleven in Southern California.

A horse and buggy driven by F. J. Stone and a bicycle ridden by Hugo Carlson came into collision last evening at Seventh and Orange streets, and what might have been a serious accident resulted in nothing worse than some damage to the buggy.

Supervisors Lilly, Craven and Dunbar, Sheriff Coburn, County Clerk Phelps, Dist.-Atty. Evans and Marshal Wilson were among the Riverside people who visited Santa Ana yesterday when the new Courthouse was dedicated.

Next Tuesday afternoon the City Trustees will take up the question of a site for the Carnegie library building, and it is believed that this important matter will be settled on that day.

NOTED PIONEER DIES AT SANTA BARBARA.

ALBERT PACKARD CLOSES LONG AND USEFUL CAREER.

Came to California Before Discovery of Gold and Was Prominently Identified With Development of the State. Won Distinction as an Attorney.

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 13.—[From The Times' Resident Correspondent.] At the age of 81, Judge Albert Packard passed away at his home in this city yesterday. He was a native of Providence, R. I., and came to California in early life, years before the days of '49. His name has been prominently associated with the general development of California, but especially with the southern portion of the State. As early as 1847 he entered into mercantile business in Los Angeles, and sold supplies to the first gold seekers who came West over the Santa Fé trail. He retired from business in 1852 and came to Santa Barbara to live, and this has been his home since, although he has spent much of his time traveling.

He began his career as a cabin boy at the age of 13. For several years he drifted about the world as a follower of the sea. The year 1842 found him in Mexico as a trader. In 1844 he came to California, spending his first few years here trading along the coast. Few men possessed a keener or more active mind. While in Mexico he mastered the Spanish language, and made a study of Spanish laws, and when he settled in Santa Barbara in 1852, he began the study of law, intending to make it his life's profession. Having been admitted to the bar, he made a specialty of land laws, particularly Spanish and Mexican grants, and had much to do with the settlement of the early controversies arising from uncertainty of land titles. He was known throughout California as an expert in his special line, and years of his life were spent in establishing the titles of great ranchos of the State. He continued in active practice until 1880, and kept an office in San Francisco until 1891.

Santa Barbara is indebted to Judge Packard as a promoter of the early industrial welfare of this community. He was especially instrumental in advancing the olive and wine industries. He introduced the loquat and cherimoyer into this State, and attempted to develop the silk industry, which failed, because of adverse labor conditions. Judge Packard married in 1848, and six children survive him, Fred A. Packard of Contra Costa county; William J. Packard of Lompoc, Francis L. Packard, Mrs. Mary L. Gillingham, Mrs. Manuella Sketchley, all of Santa Barbara, and Mrs. William Shyners of London, Eng. The funeral service will be held at his late residence Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

EXCITING RUNAWAY.

At the boulevard yesterday Sheriff Stewart and Henry J. Finger had a narrow escape from serious injury in a runaway. Mr. Stewart's team becoming frightened at a fish cart near the wharf, ran away. In the endeavor to stop the team a rein broke. The horses ran some distance, when they overturned the buggy, throwing both occupants to the ground, but, fortunately, no damage was done, other than considerably bruising the men.

SANTA BARBARA BREVITIES.

While one of the heavy wagons of the Pacific Improvement Company was passing up De la Vina street last night, loaded with sewer pipe, the pole broke, dumping the entire load in the center of the street. Several persons narrowly escaped running into the obstruction, as lanterns were not placed until several hours after the accident happened.

At a meeting of the directors of the Santa Barbara County National Bank an assessment of $2.50 per share was levied upon the capital stock, to be paid Saturday, December 10, and to be delinquent if not paid by December 14.

Joseph L. Raymond of Lisbon, an American, who has lived for several years in Portugal and Spain, is visiting Santa Barbara with his daughter. They will remain here during the winter.

News was received here yesterday of the serious illness of Edward Dowell, son of Policeman Richard Dowell, in Los Angeles. Mrs. Dowell and daughter left today to take care of him.

W. H. Matson, Jr., until recently general agent of the Santa Fé at this place, has gone East on a short business trip.

Tom More, Jr., has returned from Oxnard, where he was employed during the beet season at the sugar factory.

H. Bonetti, a well-known rancher of Santa Maria, is visiting Santa Barbara.

An Open-air Museum for Washington.

Washington is to have a duplicate of the famous "Skansen," the national park and Northern Museum of Stockholm, Sweden. It will form a part of the plans devised by the Federal Committee appointed for the embellishment and beautifying of the capital.

United States Minister Thomas has already forwarded to Secretary of State Hay detailed information, with plans and sketches of this world-famous institution. It was commenced in 1872 by the late Dr. Arthur Hazelius, and became a national property in 1880, over $2,000,000 having been expended in its establishment. Skansen and its annex, the Northern Museum, has received the unstinted praise of visitors from every foreign country as something unique and as an historical exhibit without an equal in the world.

It is an open-air museum, showing the culture of ancient Scandinavia, including the three Scandinavian countries, with Finland and Iceland. The location of Skansen is in the beautiful suburb of Stockholm, known as the Deergarden Park. Skansen itself contains hundreds of acres of ground, with picturesque dwellings representing every Swedish province. The interiors of the houses show the furniture, ornaments, articles of domestic use, and the provincial dresses of each period of Scandinavian history, while the buildings are surrounded by the plants and animals of each period.

Shipbuilding in Nova Scotia.

In connection with the proposal to establish a steel shipbuilding plant in Nova Scotia, the government has announced that it is prepared to appropriate $100,000, payable to the first company establishing a yard capable of building five steamers of a capacity of 5000 tons each, the terms upon which the bonus will be paid to be settled by an agreement with any company furnishing evidence of its financial ability to carry out the plan contemplated. At the last session of the Legislature an act was passed providing that all ships or shares in ships of iron or steel-built or registered in Nova Scotia shall be exempt from all taxation for twenty years, such exemption to come in force upon proclamation by Order-in-Council on the petition of the municipality desiring to grant the exemption. It is also provided that upon five-eighths majority of votes polled any incorporated town or city may grant a bonus of $100,000 in aid of the establishment within its limits of a shipbuilding yard. —Nautical Journal.

COSTA RICANS VISIT THIS "RICH COAST."

TRYING TO GET LOS ANGELES INTERESTED.

A Returned Angeleno Who is Stirring Up Things in the Land of Bananas, Coffee, Chocolate and the Big Nicaragua Canal.

C. S. Hogan of this city, Enrique Pueci and A. Foso arrived here yesterday from Costa Rica, Central America, and registered at the Natick. Mr. Hogan is the first vice-president of the Costa Rica Development Company, a new local business corporation which owns over seven thousand acres of rubber and chocolate land in Costa Rica, and will at once launch a scheme to interest local capital in its development. Enrique Pueci and A. Foso are Costa Ricans here on a sight-seeing trip, and will continue on to Europe shortly. The former is an owner of large banana and chocolate plantations in the little southern republic.

The lands in which Mr. Hogan are interested are situated in the central region of the country, between two streams that are tributary to the San Juan River, which will form part of the Nicaragua Canal if the big ditch is constructed. There is steamboat service to within fifteen miles of the plantations, and with the canal there would be an open route to the sea for the rich products of this tropical region. It is claimed that rubber trees planted on this tract will produce anywhere from $150 to $300 per acre a year, after the fifth season.

Of the little republic of which so little is heard, Mr. Hogan said yesterday: "Costa Rica is not constantly in revolution, as are the other countries of Central and South America; it is asleep. It is hardly in touch with modern times; a few miles of railroad, constructed under American supervision, are the only suggestion of go-ahead.

"There are no modern agricultural implements in use in the country—no plows or anything of that sort to make the work easier. All work is done by hand; the coffee plantations, for instance, are 'plowed' by men who pass along with large shovels, digging up a few inches of dirt at each thrust. Of course labor is very cheap—20 to 30 cents a day are paid to peons.

"Coffee and bananas have been the great industries of the country, but now chocolate and rubber culture has become very profitable. From one little town last year were shipped 20,000,000 bunches of bananas, which brought in $5,000,000 in American gold.

"San Jose, the capital, is a city of about thirty-five thousand inhabitants. It has a system of government public schools, but the better class of Costa Ricans are educated abroad. There are only about as many school children in the whole country as there are in Los Angeles. At least, this is what the census shows, but there are probably many in the woods who have never been counted.

"All the fruit of the country is handled by the Universal Fruit Company of New York, which is a trust that girdles most of the world, and only this lack of competition keeps banana growing from being still more profitable. The progressive people of the nation are looking anxiously for the Nicaragua Canal."

F. Marion Crawford, the novelist, has arrived in New York from Mediterranean ports.

LOCAL SPORTING RECORD.

GOLF SCHEDULE FOR COMING SEASON.

DATES ANNOUNCED FOR NEARLY ALL PRINCIPAL EVENTS.

Four of the Most Important Series of Games to Be Played on Country Club Links—Amateur Coast Championship Games Among Them.

In the absence of a quorum at yesterday's meeting of the directors of the Southern California Golf Association, the president and secretary prepared a schedule of events for the coming season to be revised at an adjourned meeting to be held on Thanksgiving day at the Los Angeles County Club, when an open tournament will be in progress.

Under the proposed schedule, four of the principal events of the season will be held on the links of the Los Angeles Country Club. There is no disposition on the part of the association's officers to corral all the best events for Los Angeles, but they recommend the Country Club's links in response to a general request in that the Los Angeles links are not only considerably the best in Southern California, but are the most centrally located and the most easily reached.

The Pacific Coast Golf Association's amateur championship is to be contested in the south next year, and it is proposed to hold it during the same week that the Southern California Association's open championship is played, in order to provide an additional attraction for northern golfers.

The proposed dates are as follows:

Friday and Saturday, January 31 and February 1, women's championship at Los Angeles.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, February 20, 21 and 22, men's amateur championship at Los Angeles.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, March 4, 5 and 6, Pacific Coast amateur championship at Los Angeles. [Subject to approval of the Pacific Coast Golf Association.]

Friday and Saturday, March 7 and 8, open championship at Los Angeles.

Rifle and Pistol Shoot.

At the regular weekly shoot of the Exposition Indoor Rifle and Pistol Club, which was held last evening, the following scores were made: Championship class, rifle: H. D. Bartholomew, 116; C. Elbing, 115; C. Woodruff, 116; C. R. Nichols, 108. Expert rifle class: D. Twitchell, 112; Mrs. H. O. Barrett, 111; E. Remey, 110; F. Bohrer, 104. Cracks, pistol: C. R. Nichols, 99; H. O. Barrett, 97; E. Remey, 86; Mrs. H. O. Barrett, 85; C. Elbing, 79. Marksmen class, pistols: D. Twitchell, 60; C. Woodruff, 42; F. Bohrer, 16.

THOMPSON MAY SETTLE.

PORT HURON (Mich.) Nov. 13.—It is now believed that Charles D. Thompson, former treasurer of the Maccabees, will effect a settlement of his $60,000 shortage. He already has $30,000 in sight, it is said. Thompson's attorney and Supreme Chancellor Aitken, of the Maccabees, have been at work for two days, endeavoring to effect a settlement. The money, however, will not be turned over to the order by Thompson's friends, until his attorney has assurance that there will be no prosecution.

CASH REGISTER MAN WANTED IN DENVER.

WARRANTS ISSUED FOR ARREST OF W. A. ZIMMERMAN.

Los Angeles Business Agent is Accused of Embezzling Seventy-four Hundred Dollars from Former Employer—Long Search for Him.

A special dispatch to The Times from Denver says warrants have been issued in that city for the arrest of W. A. Zimmerman, a business man of Los Angeles, who is accused of the embezzlement of $7400, funds of the Hallwood Cash Register Company.

Zimmerman, according to Denver advices, was formerly western agent of the Hallwood company, with headquarters at Denver, and was highly trusted. The alleged embezzlement took place more than a year ago, and it is stated that officers have been hunting for him ever since.

Recently it was learned through a former acquaintance that he was in Los Angeles, and the District Attorney of Arapahoe county, Colo., communicated with parties here to keep him under surveillance. No report was ever made to the Denver police by the company or any of its representatives about the alleged embezzlement, but yesterday E. H. Weekbach, present western agent of the company at Denver, swore out a warrant for Zimmerman's arrest, as did also Guy C. Wilcoxen, a clerk. A requisition for his extradition will probably be presented to the Governor today.

Zimmerman could not be found in this city last night by persons desiring to convey the news to him that he was wanted in Denver, but it was learned that he has been working for the National Cash Register Company, a rival of the concern he formerly represented. He is said to be of good family and well established in business here.

I. Freeman, Pacific Coast agent of the Hallwood Cash Register Company, with headquarters in San Francisco, was here for several days this week on business connected with the Zimmerman matter, but left for the north yesterday evening, without having taken any action, so far as known.

Frank F. Wear, local agent of the Hallwood company, stated last night that he had heard that Zimmerman was to be arrested as soon as the necessary papers arrived here from Denver, but he referred the interviewer to Mr. Freeman for particulars, who, he said, had charge of the matter at this end and was in full possession of the facts.

The representatives of the company at Denver would say nothing about the matter, further than to express gratification at locating Zimmerman after tracing him for fifteen months.

CALIFORNIAN ASPHYXIATED.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Isaac W. Wedells of No. 210 California street, San Francisco, was found dead at the home of relatives here. Gas poured from an open stop in a chandelier. Physicians investigated the case, and expressed the opinion that it was an accident and not suicide. The deceased was 55 years old.

Tired Out

And she does not understand why. Her work used to seem so easy. You could tell her whereabouts as she worked by the snatches of song which now and again overflowed her happy lips. And now she can hardly keep up. Her head pains, her back hurts, and she feels entirely worn out. What is the matter? The probability is that the stomach is disordered, the liver is not performing its whole duty. Poisons are accumulating in the blood, and unless these are removed, and the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition cured and strengthened, there is liable to be a serious illness. There is no medicine can equal Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for prompt help and perfect cure for diseases of the stomach and blood. It strengthens the stomach, purifies the blood, nourishes the nerves, and brings back the happy days of health, when life is all song and sunshine.

"I suffered ten months from a complicated case of liver complaint, constipation, indigestion, suppression of monthly function, and kidney disease, too," writes Miss Lula M. Brittle, of Ivor, Va. "I also suffered excruciating pain in my back and head. I am glad to say that six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' three vials of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and two bottles of 'Compound Extract of Smart-Weed' cured me entirely. I gladly recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines to all sufferers."

Doctor Abbo—Dear Friend: I want to add my testimonial to the many you already have, and I sincerely hope it may lead others to take your wonderful treatment. I have been an invalid for over seven years, and have confined to my bed for the last three years. I was in a continual rack of misery. Pain in my left hip, spine, left shoulder and around the heart, at times that it seemed as though it would kill me. My hands and feet would bloat up and turn black and spotted. I had no appetite and my food would not digest; neither could I sleep at night. On the eighteenth day of last May I began treating with you. I now feel fresh and good. Have a good appetite, can eat most anything that comes to hand. I sit up the greater part of the day, go to the table to my meals, and do many things about the house. I have gained in weight and can sew all day if necessary. The pains have nearly all left me, and I am now beginning to think life is again worth living. I believe a few weeks' more treatment will make me practically a well woman. Very truly your friend,

...BERTMAN'S PARK FOR PASADENA.

...ERMANENT OF ROSES DIRECTORS HOPE TO SECURE ONE.

...ournament Plans for Sports to Be Established—Annual Rose Fete May Be Made Self-supporting—Handshake That Cost a Thousand Dollars.

PASADENA, Office of The Times, ... South Raymond avenue, Nov. 13.—[From The Times' Resident Correspondent.] The Tournament of Roses directors propose, not only to make the tournament of New Year's Day, 1902, a grand success, but also to set the association upon a permanent basis, and to add to the city a permanent playground's Park, which shall be in keeping with the improvements proposed by the Mayor and City Councilmen. The scheme has been broached to the directors, and they are expressing their approval by doubling the size of their subscriptions. If the plans of the directors do not miscarry, this park will be established on the vacant property now used by the football and baseball players on the northwest corner of West Colorado street and Vernon avenue, belonging to Mrs. S. G. Reed. The merchants who have been interviewed regard such an improvement as a much-needed one.

"We have already raised $3500 in subscriptions for the tournament expenses," said President James R. H. Culver this evening. "We will have more in hand by January 1. This will be in addition to the amounts collected from the street grand stands and the grand stand at the football game. We expect to raise enough money in this manner to secure this permanent playground's park, the receipts from which from year to year will perpetuate the Tournament of Roses Association fund and make it self-supporting.

They will play either the Carlisle Indians or the University of Michigan team. This is also assured. If the Michigan eleven comes we will have the Michigan Society of Southern California here en masse to view the game. It will be a royal time.

"...ll Miller goes tonight to San Francisco, and will bring back about forty dozen of loving cups from which the prize designs—for prizes for the tournament. All the prizes for the tournaments will be handsome and better loving cups, mounted with the name. We have decided to have only fifty classes out of the two hundred entries last year. In the single lessons there will be a class for runabouts, a class for carts, for two-horse turnouts not for buggies; in two-horse turnouts for spider phaetons, for ponies, for golf wagons and for tandems. There will be prizes for four classes of automobiles, at least.

"The commercial envelopes will be ready in a few days. We have accepted designs for women's stationery envelopes, which is very pretty, and will be on the market in a week. Everything that we are getting these days sooner than last year, and that twice as many may be

They became great friends, and at length decided to go into business together in this city. They made arrangements to start for Pasadena on a certain date. Then McKee found that he had to change his plans. He seemed such a good fellow that Hansen agreed to certain deals which McKee got hold of $500 belonging to his partner, who was assured that $500 would be found in the Pasadena National Bank upon his arrival here, and that his friend would follow him shortly. Then McKee gave the grip again, and just as they were parting for the last time, "held him up" for another $500. Hansen stayed. Their hands clinched again, and broke away from the fraternal grip, and he raised his own leather grip, and went for the sunny southland, thinking that his partner's pleasant manners would stop business from rushing by him, and when they opened for trade. McKee never came. There was no money in the Pasadena National Bank for him or from him, and the disappointed partner has invoked the aid of Attorney J. A. SANTA CATALINA ISLAND.

DRIFTED MANY MILES.

AVALON, Nov. 13.—[From The Times' Resident Correspondent.] Three or four weeks ago, when the schooner La Grande was reported ashore on San Nicolas Island, a party of sailors came over and engaged the yacht Avalon to take them from here to San Nicolas. On her return trip the Avalon encountered some very rough weather, and when off Santa Barbara Island lost her skiff, which she was unable to pick up in the darkness. A few days since the skiff drifted into the little bay at Gallagher's, on Clemente Island, the headquarters of the San Clemente Wool Company, and was picked up in perfect condition by the Robarts brothers, who are in charge of the island. It had drifted nearly a hundred miles.

SANTA MONICA TALKS OF CITY BONDS.

STATEMENT OF THE PROPOSED ISSUES IS PRESENTED.

The Senator Jones Interests are Said to Be Favorable to All the Propositions—Committee to Work to Secure Full Vote.

SANTA MONICA, Nov. 13.—[From The Times' Correspondent.] The projected municipal bond issues, which are to be voted on at a special election next Tuesday, were discussed at a citizens' meeting held in the City Hall this evening. The attendance was large. The bond items are: City Hall, $35,000; storm drains, $29,000; Ocean-avenue bridge, $25,000; Ocean-avenue fill, $10,500; total, $79,500.

The meeting was called to order by Fred H. Taft. A. R. Fraser was chosen chairman and D. G. Holt secretary. Mayor Robert F. Jones presented a statement of some of the conditions under which the city is operating.

"The directors of the Bank of Santa Monica," he said, "have within the past few years added a number of improvements to the quarters now rented to the city, and have made no extra charge for them. A good vault has been provided at a cost of $1500, and several additional rooms have been turned over for the city's use. All of the stockholders of the bank, as far as I know, realize that the quarters now occupied by the city are not sufficient and believe that the municipality should have something better. The jail now used by the city is unfit for such a purpose.

"I have had an interview with E. P. Clark of the electric road, and have asked him if his company would contribute something toward the expense of building a new bridge on Ocean avenue near Railroad avenue. Mr. Clark said that in view of the favors his company had received from the people of Santa Monica, he felt disposed to make a contribution for that purpose."

Mr. Jones went on to say that Mr. Clark had expressed a desire for a double-track line over the bridge with a coping separating the tracks from the driveway. Mr. Jones stated other conditions on which Mr. Clark desired, and said that Mr. Clark had expressed a willingness on condition that those provisions be complied with, to give not to exceed $4000 toward the cost of the bridge.

"The Southern Pacific people," said Mr. Jones, "have declined to contribute in money toward the cost of the bridge, but they are willing to give a space twenty feet wide underneath, which would make it possible to construct the bridge at a materially reduced expense.

"It will not be necessary to issue bonds for the full amounts proposed. For instance, the contemplated City Hall bond issue amounts to $35,000. If, however, the hall and site can be procured for $20,000, only that amount of bonds need be sold. The interests I represent, which pay nearly one-third of the city taxes, are willing to pay their share of the cost of the several improvements contemplated in the proposed bond issues."

"If we issue all the bonds proposed," said City Trustee J. C. Morgan, "the annual interest on them at the start will be about $5000. The temporary repairs which we make on account of storm water from year to year are costing us about that much."

"Before we vote the bridge bonds," said E. J. Vawter of Ocean Park, "I believe we should have definite statements from the electric railway company and from the Southern Pacific company as to what they will do if the bonds carry. It seems to me that the location of the City Hall should not be restricted to any particular locality. It might be that some public-spirited citizen would donate a site outside the district defined in the petition."

Speeches were also made by City Engineer T. H. James, Fred H. Taft, Dr. P. S. Lindsey, Charles Stilson, Chairman Fraser, W. I. Hull, C. D. Middlekauff and Hon. John F. Ogilvee.

A committee to work for a full vote was appointed consisting of W. I. Hull, T. H. James, Fred H. Taft, Robert F. Jones and J. H. Hassinger. Robert F. Jones and H. X. Goetz were appointed to wait on representatives of the electric and Southern Pacific railroads, and endeavor to secure definite statements of what they will do if the vote on the bridge bonds results favorably.

BAPTIST CONVENTION MEETS AT POMONA.

LARGE AND IMPORTANT ANNUAL CHURCH GATHERING.

Rev. Joseph Smale of Los Angeles Delivers the Convention Sermon and Talks of "Christians With Modifications"—Large Attendance and Interesting Programme.

POMONA, Nov. 13.—[From The Times' Correspondent.] The Southern California Baptist State Convention began its four days' annual session here yesterday. It includes all of Southern California, and representatives of seventy congregations are in attendance, making it a body of importance to that denomination. A large number of delegates is present, and the work has been begun auspiciously, giving promise of an important and interesting meeting throughout.

On Tuesday, the entire day was occupied by the anniversary of the Baptist Young People's Union. There were three enthusiastic sessions, closing in the evening with an eloquent and powerful address upon the topic, "Bible Study an Incentive to Personal Work," by Rev. W. B. Hinson of San Diego.

The convention proper was formally opened at 9 o'clock this morning. The address of welcome was delivered by Rev. W. C. Clatworthy, followed by a greeting from city pastors at the hands of Rev. G. W. White. The response was by Rev. Dr. W. F. Taylor, president of the convention.

The feature of the morning session was the comprehensive address by Rev. Joseph Smale of Los Angeles, known as the "Annual Sermons." He took his text from Psalm xxxi, 20, "In the secret of Thy presence," and made the theme of his sermon, "The Religious Crisis and How to Meet It."

"Restoration is the most general and widespread need of the day," said Mr. Smale, in the course of his sermon. "I wish I had the ear of church members who are suffering a moral relapse. The backslider, like the poor, we have, also, always with us. What numbers of people there are of whom it must be said, 'they are Christians with modifications.'

"As ministers, how frequently we sigh for a refreshing. We offer ourselves a full sacrifice upon the altar of service. Our people have had a pastor, but we have been pastorless. Weak, we have seemed to meet many annoyances. The mail has brought us unkind letters, circumstances have crossed our purposes, unseemly interruptions have hindered us. Must it not be our reflection: 'They made me the keeper of their vineyards, but mine own vineyard have I not kept.'

"The minister of today is a man of works, but can it be said that these works are always the result of spiritual life and inspiration? Let us beware of professionalism in the ministry. It is to be feared that many a sermon is prepared that God never gave; that many a sermon is preached because it is Sunday, and the people must have a sermon.

"The church and the world today are suffering because so few are established of God, and not to be established is to be neither fit for nor faithful in a service which demands a man of God. The pew and the pulpit are alike to blame."

The speaker delivered a scathing rebuke to the church that demands from the pulpit rhetoric, history, science and the changed theology, which he declared was but a veiled apology for "higher criticism." He also took a pass at the "sacrilegious Oberammergau play."

"The question is not as to whether the minister is a man in deep communion with God," he said. "God's man finds no place in their pulpit; and if, perchance, he gets there, they lend themselves to the diabolical work of how to get him out.

"I plead this morning for a return to the Christ of the cross, and the word of the throne. Let those who are paying deference to the philosophies of the age, hear the word of the Lord.

"We live in a day of ecclesiastical cleavage. Great changes and contrasts are appearing in the pulpits of the land, and in religious literature; in Christian conventions, and educational institutions; in theological leaders and teachers. If you are wavering, my brother, consider my text. The man who is on the Lord's side shall be hidden in the secret of His presence."

This afternoon there was an excellent programme, including addresses by Rev. C. M. Jones of San Dimas and Rev. W. F. Harper, president of the board of directors. Reports of the treasurer and board of directors were also read.

POMONA BREVITIES.

Cut Down the Weeds.

Now that a carpet of green is beginning to cover the earth, the vacant lots in the residence sections of the city would look far better if the crop of dry weeds were cut down, so the grass and new verdure could have a chance to show itself.

Child Study Circle.

The Rosedale Child Study Circle held a meeting yesterday afternoon in the kindergarten room at the Rosedale school. Dr. F. M. Potenger addressed the meeting. His subject was "The Care of the Body and Proper Food for Children."

Child Study Meeting.

The Child Study Circle of the Stockton-avenue school met yesterday afternoon. There was a large attendance. The subject under consideration was "The Reading of Fiction and Fairy Tales to Children." The principal of the school, Fred Stein, Jr., participated in the discussion.

"Seven Churches" Meeting.

The assembly known as the "Seven Churches," holds an all-day meeting today in the Holiness Church, corner of East Ninth and Tennessee streets, and will be addressed by prominent local speakers. This meeting includes all the Holiness churches of Los Angeles and immediate vicinity.

Flames in His Face.

Warren W. Langdon, an iron worker in the employ of the Pinney & Boyle Co. at No. 2029 Palmetto street, was treated at the Receiving Hospital yesterday afternoon for severe burns on his forehead. He tried to blow out a gasoline flame which was burning from a leak in a furnace at the factory.

Unlucky Woman.

Mrs. Vernon Banks of No. 2105 Wall street was severely burned by the explosion of a lamp at her home shortly after 8 o'clock last evening. The fire department was summoned to extinguish the resulting flames, but they were out before its arrival, and no damage was done to the house or its contents.

Colored Business Men's League.

A movement is promoted in this city for the organization of a colored business men's league. The leaders of this movement believe that such an organization is necessary, in view of the increasing number of colored business and professional men, and that it will stimulate business enterprises among their people.

Pastor's Return.

Rev. J. E. Edwards, delegate from the western district of the United States for the A. M. E. Church to the recent Ecumenical Conference held in London, returned Friday from a visit in England, Scotland and continental points. Azusa-street A. M. E. Church gave their returning pastor a reception at that church Monday night.

Symphony Orchestra.

Friday afternoon at the Los Angeles Theater the first concert of this season of the Los Angeles Symphony Orchestra will be given. The soloists will be Mme. Charlotte Maconda, one of the leading coloratura sopranos of the United States, with a strong, sympathetic voice and a magnetic presence. The sale of season seats as well as of single tickets is now on at the box office of the Los Angeles theater.

Still Another Hotel.

John Brockman, the Arizona mining man, who recently purchased the old cable railway power-house and lot on the southwest corner of Seventh and Grand avenue from the Los Angeles street Railway Company, through the agency of John D. Foster & Co., for $52,000, announces his intention to remove the present building and erect a three or four-story brick hotel upon the premises. It is reported that the cost of the improvements contemplated will be between $60,000 and $70,000.

Looks Dark.

The meeting which was to have been held last night to further plans for the proposed industrial school for colored youth, was postponed, on account of illness of several of the board of directors, until Thursday night of next week, to be held in Zion A. M. E. Church, corner Fourth and Ruth streets. The proposition does not appear to be popular with many of the colored people, as they claim they now have admission to all the training schools of Southern California and equal rights there with white pupils.

Church Officers Elected.

The First Church of the Nazarene held its annual meeting last night and elected as officers for the ensuing year. Trustees—C. E. McKee, W. A. Powers, W. S. Knott, J. W. Jackson, H. A. Irish, J. J. Will Have to Serve Time.

Frank F. Simmons will have to serve ninety days in the City Jail because the Superior Court confirmed the decision of the Police Court in his case. Several weeks ago Simmons was arrested, charged with battering an inoffensive old man in a saloon. When he was given a sentence of ninety days, he appealed the case and was released on bail. Simmons, it is said, lives with a dissolute woman. The woman inveigled the old man, who had been assaulted, to San Pedro, in an endeavor to keep him from testifying against her mac. She was arrested in San Pedro, and as a result of her tampering with the witness was also given a sentence. Simmons was re-arrested yesterday forenoon.

Nazarene Workers Coming.

Rev. C. W. Ruth the recently-appointed assistant general superintendent of the Church of the Nazarene, will arrive with his family tomorrow from Indianapolis, Ind. Elder Ruth has been an active member of the National Holiness Association for the past seventeen years. He will at once enter the pastoral work at the First Church of the Nazarene, on Los Angeles street, which now has a membership of over one thousand, and relieve Dr. P. F. Bresee of many local duties. The latter, who is general superintendent of this denomination, will devote some time to the organization of Nazarene churches in other fields. Accompanying the Ruth party is Miss Nellie Springer, who comes from Indianapolis to take the position of teacher of vocal music in the Bible Training School for Christian Workers, on Doyle Heights.

NO GREASE OR DANGEROUS DRUGS

In "Herpicide," the New Scientific and Successful Dandruff Treatment.

Have you dandruff? Then you have a contagious parasite disease, unpleasant, unhealthy and one that will eventually lead to baldness. To cure it you must destroy the parasite that eats at the root of the hair. The only preparation for destroying these germs is Newbro's Herpicide. Charles Klein of Laramie, Wyo., says: "Herpicide allayed the itching, cured the dandruff and stopped my hairs falling out, and it is bringing a new crop of hair." Herpicide is free from grease or dangerous drugs, and makes hair glossy and soft as silk. One bottle will convince you of its merits.
